Special to The Guardian. SYDNEY, August 16.—This morning, Griffin, the Quincey detective who was here on the Hestill case, was found dead in an alley way with his throat cut from ear to ear. AN ENJOYABLE DRIVING TOUR.

MONCTON, Aug. 15.—R. A. and Mrs. Borden returned last evening after a most enjoyable driving tour of P. E. Island, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, extending over several weeks. Leaving Moncton, Mr. and Mrs. Borden drove to Point du Chene, where they were joined by Miss Ella Stevens and Miss Borden. Taking the boat at that point, they crossed to Summerside, which they visited their headquarters for about a week, visiting various points of interest. Mr. and Mrs. Borden's grand-son, Robert Black, also joined them at Summerside. From Summerside they drove around the shore to Tryon and thence to Charlottetown, where they remained for several days. From the Island capital they crossed by boat to Pictou and from there drove to Truro, where they spent several days very pleasantly. From Truro they drove by way of Windsor to Yarmouth, spending five days there and at Wolfville, Nova Scotia. They then drove through the Annapolis Valley to Annapolis and thence to Digby, three days being spent at that popular seaside resort. Miss Stevens and Miss Borden remained at Digby, while Mr. and Mrs. Borden crossed by boat to St. John, continuing their drive from that city by way of Sussex and the Portage. At the Portage they were joined by I. W. and Mrs. Binney, who accompanied them home to Moncton.

CRAZED BY READING OF DIME NOVELS.

SHERBROOKE, Aug. 15.—Frank Harrington, sixteen years of age, arrayed himself in a cowboy's suit and saddling his employer's horse, started and has not yet been found. Harrington worked for C. C. Cabana and was seen to leave the yard mounted on Mr. Cabana's horse and his face covered with a mask. He also carried a revolver. The police were notified, but so far have been unable to locate him. The lad's mind was evidently turned from reading dime novels. Several months ago he did the same thing, but was let off by Judge Mulvena.

Minard's Lintment Cures Dandruff.

MANITOBA HARVEST IS ASSURING

Special to The Guardian. WINNIPEG, August 16.—Harvesting is general throughout Manitoba and much threshing has been done. The average yield is surprising to many who were depressed by the unfavorable weather conditions. The average is not normal, but is running ten bushels to the acre in a district where a total failure was expected. The question of men for the harvest continues to be a very serious problem all over the west.

TWENTY-FIVE CHINESE STOWAWAYS CAPTURED.

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 15.—Twenty-five Chinese stowaways who had eluded the inspectors at Vancouver, B. C., were captured aboard the British steamship Kumerick recently arrived from Hong Kong by immigration authorities yesterday. The Chinese had walked off a room twenty feet square under the cargo of the Kumerick. They had been confined to this den since the steamship left China early in June and planned to slip ashore when the Kumerick reached Portland, where she is going to load lumber. In their den they cooked their food, ate and slept. A lantern used in the search was thrust into the room and the poisonous air instantly extinguished the flames. The men were half clad and some were ill from their long confinement and scant provisions of tea, rice and water.

Potatoes sold for 75 cents a bushel; beets and carrots 35 cents a dozen, cabbage, 8 cents a bunch, cauliflower, 10 cents a quart, fowls, cauliflower, flower, cucumbers were plentiful.

MONTRÉAL, Aug. 15.—Official denial has been given by the Grand Trunk to reports emanating from Chicago to the effect that the Grand Trunk intend to build or acquire a road from Winnipeg to Chicago, in order to divert traffic from the National Transcontinental. It was stated by Grand Trunk officials that this had never been dreamed of, and the further intimation was given that this report was merely a follow-up of the efforts of the people who had tried to construe the extension of the Central Vermont to Providence to mean the abandonment of Halifax.

ADDRESS TO I. N. MCKAY.

At the regular meeting of Union Division, No. 45, S. O. T., the members of that Division waited on Bro. Ira N. McKay, previous to his departure for Western Canada, and on behalf of the Division he was presented with an address which read as follows:—It is with much surprise, mingled with regret, that we, your sisters and brothers of Union Division, hear of your intention to leave our midst for Western Canada. We shall feel the loss of another good and faithful member when you are absent from us. We believe that you have always taken the stand held by every true Son of Temperance, in keeping the vows which you of your own free will took on entering our Order, and we hope you will still continue to observe those obligations though far away from Union Division. You are going to a country where many opportunities await you which greatly exceed those of this Province. But, as the opportunities on one hand appear to be superior to ours, so, on the other hand, temptations will arise which you have never been called upon to resist in your native land, but we trust that as you have been enabled to overcome the few temptations at home so you will receive strength to resist the greater ones in the far West. In conclusion we wish you the best of health and prosperity in whatever sphere of life you may be called upon to enter; and, whenever you can find an opportunity of being with us again in old Union Division you may feel assured that you will be welcomed in our midst. Signed L. P. and T., Penzie Howard, Amy Sinclair, Peter Sinclair. Bro. McKay thanked the Division for the address and in glowing terms told the members of his intention to do all in his power to help along the temperance cause wherever he might have the privilege of doing so.

12 OUNCE LOAF WILL BE SOLD FOR 4 CENTS.

OTTAWA, Aug. 15.—A reduction in the price of bread to 4 cents per loaf or 24 tickets for 95 cents by Slinn-Shouldis, Ltd., is to take effect on Monday next. The Slinn and Shouldis firms recently effected an amalgamation and the reasons given for the reduction are the lessening of operating expenses and savings in delivery and flour buying. The other bakers in the city were interviewed by The Citizen this morning and nearly all stated that they were also reducing. They will sell twenty-four 12-ounce loaves for 95 cents. The standard bread remains as usual, twelve 48-ounce loaves for $1.30.

HOOSIER POET'S HEALTH IS IMPROVING.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 14.—The condition of James Whitcomb Riley, who suffered a stroke of paralysis three weeks ago, is improving today and hopes of his ultimate recovery are growing, though friends still fear a second stroke of paralysis. Dr. Carleton McCulloch says the patient's condition is not alarming.

THIS MAN MUST HAVE DIED HARD.

MONTRÉAL, Aug. 14.—A gardener, named Porter, living on Falford Street, this city, hanged himself in a remarkable manner in his house tonight. He was found by his daughter hanging in a clothes closet from a rope attached to a hook. The closet was so small that there was no room for Porter to hang down, so he tied the rope around his neck and lay down, his shoulders being only two inches from the floor when he was cut down. The man must have slowly strangled to death.

TERRIBLE DYNAMITE ACCIDENT

Special to The Guardian. ST. JOHN, August 16.—A sad accident occurred at Grand Falls in which John Ryan, employed with Johnson Bros, contractors, lost his life in an explosion of dynamite. A MURDERER'S CONFESSION

Special to The Guardian. ST. JOHN, Aug. 16.—Giovanni Rossi's confession of the murder of Diego Siracusa was read in the police court today. It would appear that luring the latter part of June Rossi was goaded to frenzy by Siracusa's annoyances respecting a woman with whom both were acquainted. Rossi deliberately shot Siracusa in the head to stop his tormenting.

LIEUT. GOVERNOR ROGERS.

The Aug 13th Canadian Courier contains a fine photo of Governor Rogers with the following short synopsis: The ninth Lieutenant-Governor of Prince Edward Island is Hon. Benjamin Rogers. He is a Liberal—was rather, has been thirty-two years in politics in that tight little island which gave to the geography books of our youth the political jungle about "oats, potatoes and hay." The new Governor has been Secretary Treasurer and Commissioner of Agriculture. These portfolios kept him busy; and he has done as much as anybody in his duties it has got from Ottawa of late as well as to systematic farming where every fence corner counts. He did not succeed in getting the tunnel. At present his duties are not excessively onerous. If he has an automobile he might make a complete circuit of his kingdom in a day's drive; and he would see more prosperity and contentment than could be found anywhere else in Canada except along the St. Lawrence. His demesne might be flung down on the floor of Alberta and it would look like a blot of ink on a sheet of foolscap.

AN ISLAND INVENTOR.

A correspondent at Point Prim writes that John McDonald Jr. of that place has solved the problem of air by an improved flying machine. His latest improvement is in the line of safety control and wing-warping, the control being effected by a single lever. Names are given of American firms desirous of developing and exploiting these improvements, on terms which will be heard with circumstances will be heard with sincere regret by all who knew him. He was a lad of sterling character and excellent parts and very popular with his associates. He leaves to mourn a father and mother residing at Murray Harbour, and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. McWhirter, Halifax, Misses Daisy, Gertrude, and Reagh and Fred at home. The Guardian extends sincere sympathy.

AN ISLAND LADY ABROAD.

Prince Edward Island, although the smallest Province in Canada, is by no means behind the others in the quality of trained teachers sent out. Many have, on account of small remuneration for their services here, found their way into the far West. Among those at the coast is Miss Annie S. Clark, M. A., whose efficient services as the Principal of the Fanshawe School at Malpeque, P. E. I., were severed about two years ago, much to the regret of those under her tuition. She is now Principal of the Girl's Central High School at New Westminster, B. C., and her pupils ranked among the highest at the recent entrance Examination, and won the Governor General's Medal and standing second in the Province. New Westminster sent up 127 candidates; only 72 were successful, and yet 22 out of her 25 succeeded, which is the highest percentage among the larger schools of that Province and speaks for itself of her unwavering effort which has always characterized her in the past. Miss Clark has recently been offered the Principalship of the Chilliwack Central High School.

MISSIONS SAVED FROM THE FLOODS

The Methodist mission board have received a cable notifying the board of the floods. The cable states that the Canadians were all safe.

DREXEL FLIES 6,700 UPWARDS.

LONDON, Aug. 14.—Armstrong Drexel's daring altitude flight Thursday night, when he reached a height of 6,700 feet and still more daring volcanic descent at a terrific pace, have made him the hero of the hour. This morning's newspapers print an extended interview with Drexel and stories of his experience. Drexel's present intention is not to repeat an attempt at high flying unless, he is guaranteed, "somebody gets higher than I did." Robert Lorraine, the actor, who had been weather bound at Anglesey, on the Welsh coast, awaiting a favorable opportunity to attempt a flight to Ireland, had a narrow escape during a trial flight yesterday. His machine fell to the ground and was smashed.

ROYAL WELCOME FOR Q. O. R.

MONTRÉAL, Aug. 15.—The Queen's Own Rifles, of Toronto, arrived in Montreal yesterday and were royally entertained by the 65th Carabiniers, Mount Royal, the leading French-Canadian regiment of the Province. On arriving here the Q. O. R. were met by the entire regiment of the 65th, and Colonel Sir Pellatt was greeted by Lieutenant-Colonel LaBelle, of the 65th, with Colonel Gordon, O. C. Q., and other headquarters officers. The Toronto regiment was escorted to the 65th armories and entertained to luncheon, where the French-Canadian and Toronto officers and men fraternized with much speech. The Q. O. R. left later for Quebec and were given a great send-off by the Montreal militia.

GEORGE PERCY TANTON.

Great sympathy is expressed for Conductor George S. and Mrs. Tanton in the sudden death of their eldest and dearly beloved son, George Percy, who passed away in the Prince Edward Island Hospital Monday night at the age of twenty-three. The deceased took ill while in Wood Islands on Sunday last, and yesterday was brought to the hospital, suffering from what the physicians termed uremic poisoning. He reached the hospital about noon, and rapidly grew worse, such a delicious for quite a while. The end came between eleven and twelve o'clock. The deceased who had been employed in A. Duchemin & Company's factory, had looked the picture of health and strength prior to his recent illness, and his death under such circumstances will be heard with sincere regret by all who knew him. He was a lad of sterling character and excellent parts and very popular with his associates. He leaves to mourn a father and mother residing at Murray Harbour, and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. McWhirter, Halifax, Misses Daisy, Gertrude, and Reagh and Fred at home. The Guardian extends sincere sympathy.

COMMENTS OF BRITISH JOURNALS

Special to The Guardian. LONDON, August 16.—The controversy between the tariff reform and free trade press regarding what really is happening in Canada is still raging. The free trade papers publish long despatches from Winnipeg describing the formation of a great free trade league, anticipating that Laurier may be forced to abandon protection and describing as futile the tariff reformers' dreams of imperial preference.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—The New York Americans have purchased Catcher Blair, of the Rochester team, and Pitcher Caldwell, of the McKeesport, Pa., team. Caldwell will report to the New York club on September 8, and Blair at the end of the Eastern League season.

CENTENARY OF SAVINGS BANKS

Just one hundred years ago in June the first savings bank opened its doors to the public in the village of Ruthwell, Dumfriesshire, Scotland. From an economic standpoint, the amount of good done for the nation and the world at large by the establishment of savings banks is incalculable, and it is satisfactory to know that due honor has been done to the memory of the "Father of Savings Banks," Dr. Henry Duncan, of Ruthwell Manse, at the celebration of the centenary of savings banks held in Edinburgh, under the auspices of the Edinburgh Savings Bank.

Dr. Duncan, at once a philanthropist and economist, and a deep student of the poor laws, evolved the idea of establishing a savings bank for the use and benefit of the poorer people of his parish, and with the idea of instilling thrift and economy into their minds. His first efforts met with poor support, and, with the usual suspicion of the poorer classes of that time in anything where their money was concerned, fears were openly expressed that the minister himself and his first to benefit by their hard-earned savings. These doubts and fears were ultimately set at rest by a system of joint custody, and a box was made, with three locks, which could only be opened by the three persons having the custody of the keys, viz., the minister and elders of the church; the public banks; at that period would not accept of deposit amounts of less than ten pounds, so that the poorer classes had to content themselves with the proverbial stockings, which they carried in a bag, or for their meagre savings, and, as too often proved the case, these hiding places were too easy to get at and to dip into, and, in consequence, few, if any, were able to put by money for their old age, or for the time when misfortunes should overtake them.

A man with less force of character than Dr. Duncan would have given up in despair in the face of the almost endless difficulties and obstacles that confronted him, but one, by his sheer seldom heard of, and by his passionate belief in the ultimate success of his scheme, he surmounted them, and pushed his ideas through to a successful issue. In the first year the bank took in deposits to the amount of £151, the second year £176 and £237 in the third year; and from then on success was assured, and in the fourth year the little bank took in nearly £1,000.

The Quarterly Review of 1816, six years after the forming of the Ruthwell Bank, says: "Justice leads us to say that he has seldom heard of a private individual in a retired sphere, with numerous avocations and a narrow income, who has sacrificed so much ease, expense and time for an object purely disinterested as Dr. Duncan has done. Dr. Duncan has carried his point. Savings banks are an established fact. It was at this time, 1816, when deposits were rapidly increasing, and other towns were opening savings banks, that it was borne in upon Dr. Duncan that the protection afforded by the "friendly societies act" was inadequate, and, after having taken legal advice on the subject, he wrote W. R. Douglas, member of the Dumfries burghs, on the subject of a special act to deal with the State protection of savings banks.

DR. CARMAN CREATES BIG SENSATION

Special to The Guardian. VICTORIA, August 16.—Rev. Dr. Carman created a sensation at the Methodist General Conference today when he called upon the delegates to endorse his behavior in criticizing the action of the wealthy Sherbourne Street Methodist Church, Toronto, in importing to its pulpit Rev. George Jackson and for his public denunciation of Jackson's advanced views on doctrine when the British preacher was appointed to the professoriate of Victoria College.

THE VETERAN GENERAL SUPERINTENDENT WAS UNSPARING IN HIS CRITICISM OF THIS CHURCH WHICH HAS FOR ITS PILLARS SUCH METHODIST MILLIONAIRES AS HON. GEO. COX, J. W. FLAVELLE AND H. H. FUDGER.

Looking for man with $150,000.

LOOKING FOR MAN WITH $150,000.

BOSTON, Aug. 15.—Somewhere in Boston is Louis Tessier of Montreal, seventy-six years old, said to be worth one hundred and fifty thousand dollars. He neither speaks nor understands a word of English. Miss St. Pierre told the Grey nuns, with whom she has been placed, that she and her foster-father arrived in Boston yesterday from Montreal via Portland, bound for Manchester, N. H. They went together to the post office to inquire for mail. In some way they became separated. After looking without result for her father, Miss St. Pierre told a policeman of her situation. The search has since been continued, but without disclosing his whereabouts.

The bill of 1817 for the protection of savings banks, while suited to the banks then established in England, was not at all suited to Scotland and Dr. Duncan resisted its extension to that country. Shortly afterwards he was invited to London to fight his own cause. He accepted the invitation readily and made good use of his friends of student days—Lord Brougham, Lord Milner, Lord Binning, Sir John Marjoribanks and John Gladstone (father of the great statesman, William Ewart Gladstone), and, in spite of the opposition of the famous Cobbett, who fought tooth and nail against the bill, it became law; and, as Dr. Duncan was afterwards told by the member for Dumfries, "You may carry with you the satisfaction of knowing that the bill would not have been carried except by your visit to London."

Some of the rules of the first savings bank were as follows:—"Any sum not less than sixpence may be lodged, but interest is allowed on pounds only. "Every depositor must lodge to the amount of four shillings at least within the year, under the penalty of one shilling. "Interest at the rate of 5 per cent. is allowed to every depositor who continues a member of the bank for three years, but such as withdraw the whole of their deposits before that period receive only 4 per cent. "Repayments are made on giving a week's notice to the Governor or Treasurer. "The Council meeting will be held on the first Saturday of July, at 6 o'clock in the afternoon, when it is expected there will be a full attendance. Each member who is not present at the meeting, either personally or by proxy, incurs a fine of sixpence."

Dr. Duncan was one of the best-known men of his time, and, besides being a minister of the Gospel, was the founder and proprietor and first editor of the Dumfries Courier, which last November celebrated its centenary. He was also an author of some note, his works being well received and widely read by the public. He was Moderator of the General Assembly of the Established Church for some years previous to the disruption in 1843, when he and his sons left the church, and were afterwards instrumental in establishing the Free Church.

Minard's Lintment Relieves Neuralgia

VISITORS AND ATHLETES ARE HEARTILY WELCOME

The athletes and visitors who came by boat and train last evening from the mainland were accorded a right royal welcome to Charlottetown. They were met by a reception committee from the Abegweit Club and the President of the M. P. A. A. Lieut. Col. Dr. Johnson, Secy. McMillan and others, with a full band escorting them. The visitors are more than welcome to Charlottetown and the freedom of the town is extended to them. A hearty invitation has been given them through the press by the merchants to visit the stores and whether to purchase or otherwise and Charlottetown will to day take on a holiday appearance in their honor.

ABIDE WITH ME

The darkness deepens; Lord, with me abide, and so on. You thus see how he came to sing: "Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day, Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away; and you trace the picture still further in this line: I need Thy presence every passing hour, whilst you see how the last red glint of the sunset inspired the following: Hold Thou Thy cross before my closing eyes, Shine through the gloom and point me to the skies. The hymn was shortly afterwards published, and before very long Henry F. Lyte had passed away at Nice for his eternal rest. But the hymn "Abide With Me" echoes and resounds throughout Christendom and has made that sunset scene on Tor Bay famous for ever.
