POLICE COURT.—At the Police Court yesterday Michael Hennessey was fined $20 or sixty days for being drunk and disorderly on the 12th. On a charge of having assaulted John Larkin, he was sentenced to thirty days imprisonment.

VISIT APPRECIATED.—On Friday, May 7th, the Women's Institute of York was favoured with a very interesting and practical address on Gardening by Mr. J. A. Clark, of the Experimental Farm. He first outlined the surroundings of an ideal home, the care of the lawn, and the placing of flowers and shrubs. He then spoke of the necessity of the vegetable garden, giving valuable information as to his experience in growing the different vegetables. At the close a hearty vote of thanks was tendered Mr. Clark and the hope expressed that it would not be long before he would again visit the Institute.

S. S. BRANDON.—The s. s. Brandon, (Capt. A. S. Wilson), owned by the New England Coal & Coke Co., is at present in Charlottetown taking a supply of coal and water before proceeding to Boston to be re-built and fitted up for coal work. She is 1691 tons net and has an average speed of 10 knots. She has just completed a trip from Ogdensburg, N. Y., to Dalhousie, where she loaded with a full cargo of pulp wood for Portland. In coming here she tried to make her way by the North of the Island but found the ice too heavy; she was also blocked for a while off Pictou. This is the first trip of the "Brandon" to the Island, and it is understood that a similar steamer belonging to the same company is on her way here. The Brandon was built four years ago in Detroit and has a crew of 24. She is a splendid steamer, well kept. Yesterday a representative of The Guardian had the pleasure of inspecting her through the courtesy of one of the officers, Mr. G. W. McEwen. Mr. T. D. Chan, Assistant Superintendent of the New England Coal & Coke Co., is travelling by the Brandon.

THE PRINCE EDWARD

Two real comedies are rarities at the local picture houses and the management of the Prince Edward Theatre do not put on these features unless they are extraordinarily clever and calculated to provoke continuous laughter. "His New Job," a long comedy in two parts, was shown yesterday afternoon and evening to large houses and it is safe to say that had this picture alone constituted the entire programme the audience would have been perfectly satisfied. It was a rare treat. Every part of the film was a comedy in itself, and as there were two thousand feet of reels it can well be imagined what an uproar of unrestrained laughter filled the house during its presentation. Ford Sterling is known to all theatre-goers as one of the funniest men in the moving picture world, but he is outclassed by Charles Chaplin, the man of the stubby moustache and the indescribable cane. This is a picture that no one with the slightest pretensions to a sense of humor should miss. Chaplin is the comedian par excellence today and his mere appearance is enough to create an outburst of genuine laughter. Mr. Gallagher, the manager of the Prince Edward Theatre, never secured a better film than this, which is saying a great deal, in view of the enviable reputation of his theatre. The programme yesterday was splendidly balanced, having as a leading feature in addition to the rare comedy referred to, a magnificent two part drama, bringing out Francis Ford and Grace Cunard, the popular stars of the "Lucille Love" serial. This was an unusually strong story of a brother's affection and devotion, in spite of circumstances, above which he lifted himself to fame, honor and love—which last he would, but could not reciprocate. It was well worth the price of admission. "The Miracle" was another splendid drama with gorgeous scenery laid in Quebec. The programme will be repeated today and no doubt large crowds will again see it.

His many friends in Charlottetown will be pleased to learn that he is now quite recovered and holds an excellent position under the British Admiralty, being employed in secret service work on the construction of aerial machines near London. Railway and Fred, of Auld Bros., Ltd. The funeral will take place Sunday afternoon at 3.45 to the People's Cemetery from her son's residence, 25 King Square, Rev. T. W. Murphy officiating.

IN MEMORIAM

MR. CROZIER BERNARD

The community of Baltic was greatly shocked on Sunday morning to learn of the sudden death of Mr. Crozier Bernard. On Saturday morning he took his team of horses out to work on the road machine, one of the horses kicked Mr. Bernard in the stomach. He was not thought seriously hurt at the time, but soon had to be taken to his home, and all that medical skill and loved ones could do, he passed away at eleven o'clock Saturday night. Mr. Bernard leaves to mourn a wife and one child, two brothers, James and Ernest, both of whom were in the military service, Mrs. Bernard, Baltic, and Susie at home; also a mother and father who are sadly affected over the loss of a loving son who always had a cheery word and a smile in the home for all. The funeral which took place on Monday to the new cemetery was followed by a large number of people, there being one hundred teams in the funeral procession. The funeral service was conducted at the grave by Rev. Mr. McLean of Charlottetown.

MISS MAUD R. RYAN.

The death occurred at Mt. Ryan on April 28th of Maud Rosalie, youngest daughter of the late Mr. Edward Ryan in her 39th year. The late Miss Ryan was in delicate health for some months suffering from the effects of a severe attack of influenza which des-final verse of that splendid "Farewell" to them.

MRS. R. I. SIMPSON

"So greet thou then thy dead,
Across the homeless sea,
And be thou comforted,
Because they died for thee.
Far off they served but now their work is done,
Forevermore their lives and thine are one."

When William of Hohenzollern comes to lie down in death, we wonder what his thoughts will be when he thinks of the deeds that have stained the fair name of Germany, bringing it forever into disrepute deeds done by his order, and at his command. He has flaunted every idea that had its birth in Bethlehem of Judea, and it seems to me that in his dying ear will be wafted in the words "Inasmuch as ye have done it to one of the least of these, ye have done it unto Me."

"And after 'The Day' there's a debt to pay
For the sleepers under the sod,
And He you have wronged for many a day
Listen and hear what He has to say.
'Vengeance is Mine, I will repay.'
What will you say to God?"
