John H. and Mrs. Latham, New Dominion were among the visitors in this city yesterday.

How many of the people who read these lines have something they would like to sell or exchange or dispose of in some way? Just try a Guardian Classified ad.

The Guardian has received from The Dominion Fire Insurance Co., through their agents J. A. Webster & Co., of this city, one of their large and handsome office calendars for 1909.

Among the outward passengers from this city yesterday were: Dr. McGrath, Bloomfield to St. John; Miss B. Sullivan, City, to Boston; Mother Ste. Anne of the Notre Dame Convent, returning to Summerside from a short visit to this city.

The marketing of pork in P. E. I., commenced about three weeks ago. The total production for the season is estimated at about 45,000 hogs, of which say 30,000 will be sold for export, chiefly through Davis & Fraser, and other buyers in Charlottetown. The price ranges from 71 to 72 cents, and the value to the farmers of pork shipped this year will be about $360,000. In the early part of the season a small percentage found its way to the Upper Provinces, but the bulk is consigned in the Maritime Provinces, says the Halifax Maritime Merchant.

In the Baptist Church on Sunday evening Pastor White preached a strong and very instructive temperance sermon, in the midst of which he stated, "that the Saloons in the United States was going at the rate of thirty per day, for the last ten months, and during the last year 5000 saloonkeepers had left the Bar-tenders Union, for the want of a job." "The saloon is going," said the preacher. "Here let us rise and sing the Doxology" when the whole congregation rose and sang with power and much feeling—"Praise God from Whom all blessings flow," etc.—after which the preacher went on with his sermon.

The crop of oats in P. E. I., says the Maritime Merchant of Halifax, was quite up to the average, and is estimated all the way from three million to six million bushels, the latter being according to Government statistics. Up to the present time about 200,000 bushels have been shipped to Maritime and Newfoundland markets, the price ranging from 38 to 40 cents. The export will go on steadily during the winter. Early in the season a higher price was paid for black oats, owing to the preference given it by the Newfoundland buyers; but now that the bulk of the shipments find their way to markets nearer home there is little difference between the prices for the two varieties.

The hospitable home of John D. McDonald, Orwell Cove, P. E. I., was the scene of a very happy evening last Wednesday evening, when his daughter, Margaret, was united in marriage to John McLeod, Kinross. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a large number of invited guests, friends and relatives, by the Rev. D. B. McLeod, of Orwell. The bride, who was unattended, was given away by her father. The young couple was recently attested by the large number of valuable presents received. After a beautiful repast, the evening was spent by young and old in various ways. Mr. and Mrs. McLeod will reside in Lyndale. They are followed by the best wishes of a multitude of friends for a long and prosperous journey through life.

A correspondent writing to the Maritime Merchant about the potato crop in Prince Edward Island says: "Potatoes were from 20 to 25 per cent. more than an average crop, the yield being estimated at six million five hundred thousand bushels. Owing to the dry season there was a larger per cent of starch than usual in the crop, and a greater amount of this staple was manufactured than for many years past. The prices paid by shippers were 18 and 20 cents. About 200,000 bushels left the Island this fall. The early varieties, with the exception of the Dakota Reds, were not so profitable as expected, as they did not keep as well as usual. The later varieties are proving more satisfactory, but the prices are scarcely high enough to induce the farmers to bring them out in this uncertain weather, and it is probable that a considerable percentage will be held over until the spring. A feature of the situation was the increased export of early varieties, especially Dakota Reds, to Southern markets."

Joseph Kelly of the P.E.I.R. left yesterday morning on a visit to St. John.

Wm. McPhail and Miss Janet McPhail, Orwell, were in the city yesterday.

Mrs. B. Chappell and little daughter, of Japan, have arrived in Sackville and during their stay will make her home with Mrs. Harmon Humphrey. Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Chappell have two daughters attending the Mount Allison Ladies College.—Moncton Transcript.

Miss Nettie Ross, of Charlottetown, P. E. I., was a visitor with her brother, Rev. G. A. Ross, Methodist church Parsonage, Hampton, N. B., last week on her way to Boston, where at the home of her sister, Mrs. H. S. Ings, Dorchester, she will be married to Mr. McLeod, formerly of Orwell, P. E. I., but for some years in charge of a sugar plantation at Honolulu, Sandwich Islands, to which distant city of the Pacific they will proceed after the ceremony.—St. John Sun.

On Monday evening a number of the friends of Rev. W. W. and Mrs. Lodge of St. Andrews, N. B., gave them a surprise party, to celebrate Mr. Lodge's birthday. Guests to the number of nearly fifty invaded the Methodist parsonage about 8 o'clock, and, after showering congratulations and best wishes for many happy returns of the day, T. A. Hartt, M. P. P., in a few well chosen and pleasant words spoke of how Mr. Lodge had won the hearts of all, during his stay in St. Andrews, and presented him with ten dollars in gold, as a small token of the respect and esteem in which he was held by the members of the Methodist congregation. Mr. Lodge responded in his usual bright manner. Music and games were played, and later on a dainty supper which had been provided by the ladies was served and brought to a close one of the most pleasant evenings ever spent at the parsonage.—St. John Sun. Charlottetown friends will read the above with much interest.

A very pleasant event took place on Wednesday evening Nov. 25th at the residence of John and Mrs. Wedlock Stanley Bridge, when their daughter Miss Laura A. was united in marriage to C. Fenner Stewart of Cavendish. The groom was only supported by Honeywell Bullman, of New Glasgow, the bridesmaids being Miss Ethel Wedlock sister of the bride and Miss Margaret McEwen. The wedding march was well rendered by Miss Jessie McNeill, the officiating clergyman being Rev. John Stirling. The bride looked charming in a cream silk gown with chiffon and lace trimmings to match and bridal veil, carrying a bouquet of white carnations, Chrysanthemums and smilax. Bridesmaids wore white point de esprit over pink silk and white point de esprit over blue silk respectively. The bride being organist of the Presbyterian church for a number of years the choir presented her with an elegant morris chair, other presents costly and numerous amply testified to the popularity of the contracting parties. After about one hundred guests had partaken of the sumptuous repast provided and the usual merry-making at such functions, the bride and groom drove to their future home, the guests wishing them bon voyage through life. The company finished the evening's social entertainment by singing in real Scotch style "Auld Lang Syne."

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is usually due to inflammation of the mucous membrane of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed it has a running sound or impure discharge, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out this tube never opens. It is our motto, "Hear or Die." It is our business, "to cure or die." We have cured many cases out of thousands of others, which is proof positive that our medicine is the only one.
