NEXT Thursday evening the congregation of Main street Baptist church meet in business session to consider the resignation of their pastor Rev. J. A. Gordon. Mr. Gordon's own date for surrendering his charge was fixed at August 1st, but the matter of an extension of that time is left optional with the church people. St. John Record.

MR. A. IRWIN of the Examiner Publishing Company has placed on our table a copy of P. E. Island Illustrated, for 1899. The magazine is much larger than in previous years and so far as workmanship and illustrations are concerned far surpasses anything of the kind yet issued in our city. The work is embellished with half tone illustrations and is so beautifully arranged that the non-scientific art lover as well as those of the most cultivated tastes must take pleasure in looking through its pages. The descriptive matter is invested with a genuine literary charm. The illustrations include the public buildings of Charlottetown, many of the churches, residences and suburban scenes about the city, also many beautiful island landscapes. The book is certainly worth the small amount asked—25c.

THE Charlottetown Driving Park management have issued post cards with the programme of the races to be held on Wednesday and Thursday, the 13th and 14th September next. They offer $1000.00 in prizes. The first day the following races will take place:—

3 minute class,	purse $150.00
2.28 "	" 200.00
2.40 " (pacing)	" 100.00

The second day the following races:

2.50 class	purse $150.00
Free-for-all	" 250.00
2.30 class	" 150.00

Entries close the 30th August. The purses are divided differently this year than heretofore. Instead of being divided into three each purse will be divided into four parts as follows:—50 per cent to first, 25 per cent to second, 15 per cent to third and 10 per cent to fourth. This division we are assured will cause greater competition as a number of horsemen have spoken decidedly in favor of it. Full particulars of the races will be given shortly.

All members of the society are urgently requested to attend, and have the privilege of bringing a friend with them. A silver collection in aid of mission work will be taken.

Rev. Mr. Teasdale.

Rev. J. J. Teasdale, who is tomorrow leaving this city to assume his new pastorate at Charlottetown, takes his departure amid the general regrets of citizens of all classes and creeds. To his own church and congregation, Mr. Teasdale has endeared himself by his faithful labors and devoted ministrations, and the city at large has felt the impression of his strong personality, Christian zeal, diversified labor, and commanding talents. In the pulpit of his church and the homes of his people, upon the streets of the city and in his intercourse with the business community, by teaching and by example, Rev. Mr. Teasdale has exerted an ever widening influence for the uplifting of men and morals. It can be readily understood by those of other congregations why it is that Mr. Teasdale is so highly cherished by the Methodist Church, and the people of all denominations regret the provision, while they do not question the wisdom, of the denominational law which makes his removal from our midst a necessity. Rev. Mr. Teasdale takes with him to his new field of labor the sincerest wishes of every citizen of Fredericton for unbounded success in his labors upon the Island by the Sea—such success as attended his labors in this city and province.—Fredericton Gleaner.
