LOCAL BRIEFS

THE American yacht Eugenie sailed yesterday afternoon at four o'clock.

Miss BOYER, of California, will sing in Y. M. C. A. Hall this evening.

A Raymond and Whitecomb excursion party will arrive in the city tomorrow evening.

Mrs. STEVENSON, in Y. M. C. A. Hall this evening at 8 o'clock, Judge Fitzgerald will preside.

An interesting event in which one of our city clergymen will take a prominent part, will take place at Pictou today.

You will have an elegant time if you attend Grace Church S. S. Picnic at Elliott's Mills to-morrow. Return fare 30 cents. Come.

THE Ontario Rifle Association matches came to a close on Saturday. In the corporation match, Lieut. Lordly of the Charlottetown Engineers was 10th, with 129 points.—St. John Sun.

THE marriage takes place at an early hour this morning in St. Joseph's convent of Miss C. Ross to Mr. George Thorne. Rev. Father Johnson will be the officiating clergyman.

TAKING Mr. William Bill Nolan's suggestion inserted in the Examiner of Monday Mr. Brace did "brace up" and last night swam across the Hillsboro and back in 43 minutes. Quite a number witnessed the swimming from the Plant line wharf.

At the police court yesterday morning the Liquor Regulation summons against Anthony Collett was dismissed. The Magistrate held that the evidence was not sufficient to prove that the elder sold was intoxicating. But he expressly stated that Mr. Collett's case must not be taken as a precedent. Frank Smith, charged with drunkenness, was fined $2 or 10 days.

WHILE Mr. W. F. Tarbush was opening some goods in front of his place of business one day last week a boy arrived on the scene and offered some assistance. While Mr. Tarbush's attention was being directed to removal of the goods from the box the boy suddenly disappeared taking with him a parcel of picture moulding. Mr. Tarbush says he knows the boy and intends bringing him to justice.

C. L. STAATS, a celebrated clarinet virtuoso, formerly of Sousa's band and the Boston Symphony Orchestra, is spending a few days in the city en route to Cape Breton and Prince Edward Island on a pleasure trip with Mrs. Staats, who is a native of New Brunswick. He has just returned from a thirteen-weeks' engagement as solo clarinet of the band at the West End, New Orleans. Mr. Staats is at the present time director of the Boston Sixtette Club, an organization which made a pronounced hit last season in the States. It is possible that Mr. Staats and his fine company of artists may be heard in Halifax the coming season.—Halifax Chronicle.

THE express did not arrive in the city until after midnight.

LA GRANDE DUCHESSE will arrive in port at 6 o'clock this morning.

THE entries for the races at the Charlottetown Driving Park are coming in fast. Tomorrow the entries close.

DR. H. D. JOHNSON of Charlottetown, with a party of about thirty Prince Edward Island riflemen, passed through the city on Saturday on their way to Ottawa, where they will take part in the D. R. A. matches.—St. John Sun.

THE place—Elliott's Mills; the time—to-morrow; the rate—30 cents return; the train leaves—9.30 a. m.; all aboard for Grace Church S. S. Picnic—the last and best of the season. Tea tables and refreshment booth, trout fishing and a good time.

LA Grande Duchesse was late leaving Boston Saturday, having waited for a number of people who were attending the championship events at Newton, and who intended coming to Halifax. The boat got away at 7 o'clock Boston time.—Halifax Herald.

IN view of the delay in issuing the St. John Exhibition prize list, in deference to the wishes of a large number of its exhibitors on that account, the time for receiving entries to the Exhibition, at lowest fees has been extended up to the 6th September.

WEDNESDAY, September 6th, is drawing near, and the interest in the Labor Day sports is daily increasing. In a few days we will be able to announce the contestants in the different events. The train arrangements all over the island give the public an opportunity to witness the day's sports at the lowest possible cost.
