parts of the province. These are: Charlottetown $18,000; Summerside and Prince County $12,000; Queen's University $10,000; St. John's $5,000; King's $4,500. He urged each and every worker to put forward their best effort in the campaign. The drive gets underway next week and the responsibility rests with the workers. He reminded them it was "the biggest war service objective ever faced in this province."

The Provincial President warned against over-confidence. He pointed out that it is important to get the smaller subscriptions as well as the larger ones. To assure the success of the campaign the workers must have in sight by Saturday — or at latest by Monday evening — the sum of $20,000 (The special names committee start to work today.) It was confident the special names committee would get this amount. The campaign has been well publicized. Every Women's Institute branch in the province had been sent a letter in this connection, also every clergyman and every school teacher.

Mr. Bonnell, in conclusion, announced that an Honor Certificate was being prepared and would be given to the group going "over the top" first.

Hon. Dr. W. J. P. MacMillan, President of the Provincial Red Cross Society, declared that "this is the greatest campaign organization the province has ever known." He referred to the importance of the work done by the Red Cross, especially in wartime.

In view of the fact that there was no campaign last year, he thought the contribution should double this time. He was confident that the objective would be oversubscribed by the patriotic citizens of this province. Pointing to the seriousness of the situation at present, Dr. MacMillan said there was no organization with the opportunity to help the sick, the suffering, the wounded, the bombed out victims, and the prisoners of war like the Red Cross. The role of the Red Cross in the Far East may be better known because "Japan stands outside the pale of decency" and does not recognize the Red Cross. However, he hoped that the British Society for the Interests of Humanity would not be rebuffed by the Japanese.

He declared that the number of parcels being packed at present for the Red Cross is 100,000. The number would soon have to be increased to 80,000. The Red Cross undertakes to go everywhere. It supplies every arm of the service, including the Canadian Red Cross Military Hospital at Taplow, England, which is "the greatest military hospital in the world."

He also referred to the "generous gesture" of Lt.-Col. K. S. Rogers in giving $500 towards the campaign for funds. Already there were eight donations totaling $4,500. In conclusion he said that the Red Cross "knows no failure." It is always ready to give and this is largely due to the work of the women of this country.

Capt. N. W. Lowther

Capt. Norman W. Lowther, chairman of the Charlottetown Committee, paid tribute to Dr. MacMillan for his efforts on behalf of the Red Cross. He said that the expense of the dinner was being borne by Dr. MacMillan. He then went on to give an outline of the organization which had been set up in the city. The honorary chairman is Mr. George M. Moore, and vice chairmen are Messrs. Roy Giddens, J. J. Duffy and Roy Quigley. These workers would supervise the 500 canvassers. Capt. Lowther announced that the Special Names Committee would commence its work today. This committee is headed by Mr. J. J. Tweedy and Mr. G. T. Hardie.

He went on to say that the following subscriptions had already been received: Moore and McLeod $1,000; DeBlais Bros. $1,000; Hon. Dr. W. J. P. MacMillan $500; Mr. Russell Clark, M.L.A. $500; Lt.-Col. K. S. Rogers $500; Currier and Bros. $500; Rogers Hardware $300, and Dr. G. F. Dewar $100.

A special committee of women had volunteered to conduct an envelope canvass in the city, in addition to the work of the other canvassers. The canvassers would be given a dinner each night during the campaign. This is being arranged by the Food Administration branch of the Disaster Relief Committee. The first would be held next Monday evening at the Holy Redeemer Hall; the next would be held in the Baptist Church Hall; the third would be in the Holy Redeemer Hall; and the final one on Thursday evening in the Zion Church Hall.

Other members of the city organization include: Mr. R. L. Cotton, Provincial Publicity chairman; six Divisional Commanders—Messrs. N. H. DeBlais, J. F. Lightizer, D.M. Gass, H. L. Sear, G. M. Avarid, and J. E. Richardson.

Mr. P. G. Clark

Mr. P. G. Clark, Summerside, spoke briefly outlining the set-up for Prince County of which he is Chairman for the campaign. He predicted that the objective in that county would be reached. The district captains and canvassers had been appointed. Others present from Summerside included: Mr. W. A. Currie, chairman for Summerside; Mr. E. P. Foley, M.L.A., and Mr. Neil Durant.

Mr. H. F. McPhee, Chairman for Queen's, announced that the county was divided into electoral districts and each canvassing unit was the school district for the purpose of the drive. He pointed out that it was the duty of a person to act as canvasser if approached; if he is unable to act he should appoint somebody else.

Mr. A. F. McQuaid, Chairman for northern and eastern King's, said the county had been divided into sections and subdivided into school districts. He was confident the quota would be reached. Messrs. L. H. Poole and A. G. Parks, chairmen of western and southern King's, Monaghan, also spoke briefly. Other speakers included: Maj. T. E. MacNutt, Honorary Secretary; Mr. M. Alban Farmer, treasurer, and Mr. G. J. Tweedy.

Boston Wallop Indians 13-3 In Making Clean Sweep Of 3-game Series

NEW YORK, May 5 (AP)—Boston Red Sox hammered a trio of Cleveland pitchers for 18 hits and a total of 28 bases today while sweeping their three-game series with the American League-leading Indians with a 13-3 triumph. The Indians, who have been jittery since the Sox broke their 13-game winning streak, again were ragged at field and made four errors, which gave them a total of nine runs in the series.

They did, however, send the veteran Vernon Kennedy off to an encouraging start by scoring in the first inning against Ken Chase, who kept their 12 hits well scattered while going the distance. The first Cleveland miscue, however, gave the Red Sox an unearned run in the second, and they clinched the game in the third by unhooking a six-run rally that drove Kennedy from the mound.

At Philadelphia, rookie Russ Christopher, drafted from a Yankee farm, pitched a three-hitter in his first major league start to give Philadelphia Athletics a 2-1 victory over Detroit Tigers. The defeat allowed Christopher's former employers to move into second place in the league, replacing Detroit.

At Washington, Bob Harris limited Washington to five hits but second place with two home runs and a triple that brought a 5-4 10-inning triumph over Chicago White Sox. DIMaggio was ably supported by

Air Raid Shelter For Racing Horse

LONDON, May 5 (CP)—"Pampered Pony" That, perhaps, is the best two-word description of the unbesieged Italian-bred Neacro. At any rate, the second of three animals Britain that bed down nightly in his own private air-raid shelter. The horse, worth such care. After winning the Grand Prix de Paris he was purchased by Martin Better, English sportsman, for an amount equivalent to $264 through a telephone transaction completed in 15 minutes.

At a cost of more than $200,000, the horse was air conditioned underground shelter. Every night Neacro walks from his ground-level stable box to the shelter. The horse won all his 14 starts, 13 of them in Italy. He earns approximately $75,000 a year in stud fees and is insured highly. Two foals by Neacro will be running for the first time this season.

BRITISH PUSH

(Continued from page 1) British sources gave only the briefest accounts on the progress of the landing. "Operations are proceeding and our casualties have so far been light," said a communique from the Admiralty and War Office tonight.

Vichy reports said waves of paratroopers had been landed at the expense of a double attack in which a British and a French parachute brigade made a frontal thrust from the sea timed with the overland assault on the rear by light armored units landed in Cotentin Bay.

Vichy said also that the British naval forces consisted of two cruisers, four destroyers, two troop transports and an aircraft carrier, and reported that two British planes were shot down.

The German radio earlier in the day said a French submarine and tender had been sunk off the coast. There were French casualties.

Diego Suarez Main Objective

Diego Suarez was the primary British objective, although it is likely there will be a subsequent move against Tulear on the southwest coast. Tulear has a good air-drome from which allied planes could patrol the entrance to Mozambique Channel and the southern routes of allied supplies to the Near East, Russia and India.

Block Jap Plan

This was destroyed what an informed source declared was a Japanese plan to seize Diego Suarez with the connivance of Vichy and make it a base for Axis attacks on allied shipping. But this same informant conceded the possibility that the Japanese high command might at once send its Indian Ocean battle squadron against Madagascar in a desperate attempt to dislodge the British forces from the northern tip.

State of Alert Still In Alaska

JUNEAU, Alaska, May 5 (AP)—Twenty-four hours after Hawaii was attacked, Alaska was on the verge of a surprise assault and the vigilance of the people has never relaxed even during the long winter nights that cloak this isolated land in protective darkness. But the days are lengthening. Whites and Indians alike are running civilian defenses in anticipation of a surprise assault by the Japanese to sea land long-range bombers against this American outpost—or to try invasion.

Inch as accompanist, was a feature of the evening. Those present were also privileged to listen to several fine vocal selections by Mr. Raoul Raymond, with Mrs. Raymond as accompanist.

Mysterious Ailment Stops White Sox' Thornton Lee

By Judson Bailey Associated Press Sport Writer NEW YORK, May 5 (AP)—Some sort of a blight seems to have settled over last year's leading pitcher, withering their hopes of getting another great season. Lefty Thornton Lee, the foremost hurler in the American League a year ago, has not pitched a single inning of a championship contest this spring; Whitlow Wyatt, the ace of the National League in 1941, has not won a game and in his last two outings has not been around at the start of the second inning.

The list is long—Bucky Walters of Cincinnati lost four games before beating the Giants today; Elmer Riddle of the same club was batted out of the box in his first three starts; scutumpah Marius Russo of New York Yankees has made only one appearance and was beaten.

Lee's case is perhaps the most despairing. The big fellow who won 22 games and lost 11 a year ago in his current eastern trip and nobody knows when or if he will pitch a game this season. Nobody even knows what is ailing him. "Sometimes he says he has a pain in his arm, sometimes it is in his back, sometimes it is some place else," growled Manager Jimmy Dykes today. "I don't know what is wrong with him and I don't even have any idea when he got hurt."

Wyatt is nearly as big a question mark for Brooklyn Dodgers, who need him now much more than the White Sox need Lee. He stayed a long holdout and after he did report illness and bed weather combined to keep him from getting into shape.

He pitched only seven innings in exhibition games. Finally he made his 1942 debut at Boston and looked off in turning nine shutout innings but the affair went into overtime and Wyatt retired to keep from straining his arm the first time out. His next start was at Cincinnati last week and on that occasion his arm went lame in his first inning. He tried it again at St. Louis with disappointing results and now no one cares to guess when he will regain his form.

He joined first at the age of 14.

JAPANESE LAND

(Continued from page 1) bombed from the air, but it has been pounded unceasingly by big guns emplaced both on Bataan and on the Cavite shore. It was generally considered that this battering had destroyed the fort's shore or beach defenses including barbed wire entanglements, pill boxes and the like, thus facilitating the Japanese landing. Word that the soldiers on Corregidor lacked food and ammunition came, for the first time, in a message which President Roosevelt sent to General Wainwright before the receipt of the latter's communication telling of the landing attack.

"In spite of all the handicaps of complete isolation, lack of food and ammunition," the President said, "you have given the world a shining example of patriotic fortitude and self-sacrifice." Hoping for the best, but fearing the worst, Washington foresaw, with the fall of Corregidor, the collapse of two smaller island forts guarding the entrance to Manila Bay. This would permit the Japanese for the first time to make full use of the bay and its sheltered shore facilities as a stepping-stone base to bulwark their war activities farther to the south.

It would mean, that resistance to the invader in the Philippines had been reduced to the activities of isolated bands, which are still active on several of the islands.

NO INTEREST IN WOODEN SHIPS

VANCOUVER, May 5 (CP)—In a letter to City Council in reply to its endorsement of a wooden shipbuilding program for the Pacific coast municipalities, Minister C.D. Howe said that neither the British nor Canadian navies nor the British ministry of war transport were ever indicated the slightest interest in wooden ships. Several British Columbia shipbuilders had urged the launching of a wooden shipbuilding program here.

Larry French Pitches And Bats Dodgers To 3-1, 11-inning Win Over Cards

NEW YORK, May 5 (AP)—Lefty Larry French, the 33-year-old veteran whom Brooklyn Dodgers almost cut admit during their Florida training, pitched and batted the National League champions to a 3-1 11-inning triumph over St. Louis Cardinals today at St. Louis.

Working against the newest southpaw sensation of the senior circuit, 21-year-old Howard Pollet, the crafty French kept his arm in to four scattered hits and would have had a shutout except for an error by Billy Herman in the eighth inning. French himself drove in the first run of the game with a single in the seventh and when the bitter duel ran into overtime, French again came through with a single to drive in the run that broke the tie in the 11th.

At Chicago, Johnny Posajny, always a Chicago Cub nemesis, whipped the Bruins again 4-2. The win gave Philadelphia Phils the National League series two games to one.

At Pittsburgh, Jimmy Wallace, a tiny, apple-cheeked boy with a winning smile and a prezel curve, made his bow as a big league hurler for Boston Braves and did a man-sized chore of throttling Pittsburgh pirates 7-1 on six widely scattered hits.

The victory gave Montreal a 2-1 edge in the four-game series which concludes tomorrow.

At Toronto, Newark noosed out game that pushed Toronto deeper into the cellar while Newark extended their first place margin.

Admits no chip Off old block LONDON, May 5 (CP)—The Marquis of Queensberry in a recent book, "The Sporting Queensberry," admits that he was almost before he knew the "difference between a bantam and a welter fighter."

"I was utterly oblivious of what should have been an obvious family obligation as the bearer of the name," he wrote. His feelings when introduced to a great crowd gathered in New York's Madison Square Garden for a boxing show as "none other than the Marquis of Queensberry of London, England," and pushed into the ring, are graphically described.

After attempting to make his best with a smile, he raised his hands above his head in orthodox boxing fashion and "during the terrible roar of delight which the gesture evoked I managed to crawl through the ropes and back into my seat. Until that moment I had never occurred to me that it was my duty to have at least a smattering of knowledge of the sport which my ancestors did so much to foster," he added.
