Britain Makes Clean Sweep In Turning Back U.S. Davis Cup Challenge

Bunny Austin And Fred Perry Capture Singles Matches To Complete Rout Of American Team.

WIMELEDON, England, July 30—The Davis Cup was already safe for England, but to demonstrate their superiority in convincing fashion the defending Britons today completed the rout of their American challengers.

Fred Perry and H. W. Bunny Austin again won their singles matches to administer the first whitewashing to the United States in 24 years ,and by the same token, Britain swept the Challenge round five victories to no defeats for the first time since 1906.

Austin played the best tennis of his career to beat Donald Budge of California in four sets and avenge the defeat the American youngster inflicted upon him in the quarter-finals of the All-England championships. Then, in a match characterized by complete good-humor, Perry downed Wilmer Allison of Texas, also in four sets, and Great Britain had chalked up her third annual victory in the world's tennis classic.

STARTED VICTORY MARCH

Austin started the procession Saturday with a five-set victory over Allison, after which Perry trounced Budge and then yesterday the new British doubles combination of Pat Hughes and C. R. D. Tuckey triumphed over Allison and Johnny Van Ryn.

Austin won his tussle by 6-2, 6-4, 6-8, 7-5, after which Perry beat Allison 4-6, 6-4, 7-5, 6-3. The crowd of 12,000, almost to capacity, roared with delight as Perry won the final match and hats and seat cushions were thrown high in the air amid roars of triumph.

Princess Helena Victoria presented the much-coveted big mug to Captain Roper-Barrett of the British team after the players were presented to her. Sidney B. Wood, nominated as a member of the challenging team but did not play, was among the United States players presented.

The United States Captain, Joseph Wear of Philadelphia, said afterwards the better team won and he was satisfied he had played the best available men. "If we had it to do all over again we would do just the same," he said.

AUSTIN DISPLAYS FORM

Austin was never better than in match with young Budge. His driving was firmer than customary and he was cutting the angles sharper. The Californian was unable to find a punishment to answer Austin's slow sliced service.

Using the whole court with splendid judgment Austin took the first two sets with little trouble. The Californian went into a 2-0 lead in the third, including a couple of aces which nearly knocked Austin's racket from his hand, but Austin kept right up and took a 3-2 lead, then Budge 5-4, then Austin 6-5 and at 30-15 in the 12th game. Hitting powerfully, Budge took the third set and in the fourth went to a 4-1 lead but encountered a fighting Englishman at this point. Budge attempted to get at the net first but Austin's placing always beat him and forced him back. Austin pulled up to 4-4, won the ninth from 0-40, and saw Budge square it in the 10th. Austin went 6-5 and with beautiful passing shots in the 12th took the game, set and match.

ALLISON TIRED

Perry was inclined to take it easy in the final set-to. He dropped the first set on his own errors but brought out all the shots necessary for success after that, while Allison, after starting with verve, showed signs of weariness as the match progressed.

Had Perry really exerted himself it is probably Allison would not have taken more than four games or so in the last three sets.

Allison declared: "Britain won again and I congratulate them. the team as a whole played well, especiall Tuckey and Hughes. Perhaps we'll do better next year," said Captain Wear summed up: "Well. that's that. We lost to the better team and that's all there is to be said about it."

ALL-STARS DEFEAT TIP TOPS

Playing heads-up ball behind the superb hurling of their star right-hander, Wilf Stewart, the All Stars handed Jack Cameron's highly regarded Tip Tops a 9 to 4 defeat in a scheduled Industrial League game before a large crowd of fans at the Victoria Park diamond last night.

By virtue of their win the All Stars are practically assured of a first position playoff.

A large share of the credit for their victory goes to their young hurler. He retired twelve batsmen via the strikeout route and allowed but five scattered hits.

His opponent, "Lefty" McAleer, Tip Top's star portsider, struck out ten men and granted seven hits, but poor support from his teammates had him in trouble all during the game.

The attendances at the games seem to be increasing all the time, and no doubt before the playoffs roll around, the League will be receiving much looked-for support.

The next game is between the All Stars and the Anchors.

The lineups:

All Stars—S. Gallant, W. Stewart, C. Ryan, J. Tierney, J. Gillis, J. Roach, A. Nickerson, J. Hogan, F. McQuaid.

Tip Tops—J. Sherry, L. McAleer, P. Burnaghan, G. McMahon, P. Peters, M. Duffy, R. Dunn, B. Sherry, T. Murnaghan.

League standing:

FOURTH TEST MATCH IS DECLARED DRAW

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

MANCHESTER, England, July 30—South Africa maintainew its advantage in the test cricket series with England with England by forcing a draw in the fourth test match concluded here today. Failure of the Mother Country to win the remaining tussle next month would result in the Springboks being declared victors in the International series as they are credited with the only victory to date three games having been drawn.

England declared its second innings at the lunch score of 231 for six wickts today but of the 271 runs required for a win the tourists made only 169 for the loss of two wickets when play closed. The home players made 357 first time at bat, their opponents replying with 318.

Going all out for runs in the morning play England treated the spectators to a spirited display but although the wicket still favored the batsmen the Springboks early indicated their plan to play for a draw. Bruce Mitchell stonewalled to such good effect at the opening innings that he took two hours to score 19 runs and the only enterprising play was shown by Dudley Nourse, who, going in second wicket down hit up 53 runs, not out.

With the score at 43 for one wicket, Alfred Bakewell and Wilfred Barber continued the English second innings. The score rapidly mounted to 90 before Barber's dismissal with his total at 44. The Northamptonshire professional went on to score 54 before the third wicket fell at 110.

Vincent was the only visiting bowler to cause trouble to the home players. He took four of the six wickets that fell for 78. Against the South Africans in their second innings Robins was the most successful of seven bowlers tried. He captured the wickets of Rowan and Viljoen for 31 runs.

2 Home Runs By Williams Features City League Game

Coming from behind a big lead in the last two innings a battling Holy Redeemer baseball team last night earned a 9-all draw with the Holy Name Club Falcons in a City League encounter.

Two home run wallops by "Tic" Williams in the first and fifth frames accounted for five of his team's runs and kept the Francis cohorts in the running after the Falcons had built up a 6-1 lead as early as the second inning. Entering the sixth and final frame they were still trailing 9-6. A hit batsman and Duffy's single put runners on second and third; Blanchard came in to bat for Toombs and was safe as his pop fly was missed, Larter scoring from third; a wild pitch by Ayres scored Duffy a moment later putting the tying counter on third and once again the Holy Redeemer pilot's strategy worked as young "Tuddy" McKinnon batting for Connors drove a hard grounder to second to knock in the tying run. It was the end of the uprising as the next two batters swung futilely at third strikes.

It was a fairly well played game throughout with lots of heavy hitting being displayed. Falcons certainly looked like winners in the early stages, and outhit their opponents 11 to 6 during the tilt but the Holy Redeemer team made every one of their blows count.

GAME BY INNINGS

1st Inning

Falcons: Pius Bolger grounded out Doucette to Kenny; M. Bolger fanned; Bradley singled over short; Power doubled scoring Bradley; McQuaid struck out.—1 run, 2 hits, 0 errors.

Holy Redeemer: Cronin thrown out by Ayres; Kenny singled and went to second as the ball eluded the Falcon centrefielder. Doucette was out, Bradley to Bolger; Williams walloped a homer through centre to score Kenny ahead of him; Francis was safe on Acorn's error; Larter was thrown out by Ayres.—2 runs, 2 hits, 1 error.

2nd Inning

Falcons: Acorn was safe on Williams' error, stole second; Kenslow drew a life as Francis dropped the third strike; Ayres singled to score both runners; Gross drew a pass; P. Bolger flied out to Larter; M. Bolger grounded out, second to first Ayres scoring on the play; Bradley was safe on Williams' error, Gross scoring; Power tripled to right scoring Bradley; McQuaid thrown out by Connors.—5 runs, 2 hits, 3 errors.

Holy Redeemer. Duffy safe on P. Bolger's error; stole second; Toombs and Connors fanned; Cronin singled scoring Duffy; Kenny thrown out by Acorn.—1 run, 1 hit, 1 error.

3rd Inning

BAKERY TEAM AGAIN THE WINNERS

Backing up the steady hurling of Murray Carmichael with a smart fielding display Stewart's Bakery softball team last night chalked up another win in the City League as they defeated the Shamrocks 17 to 5.

Lusty clouting featured the tilt, no less than five four-base wallops being accounted for. Of these, Carmichael, the winning hurler poled out three, Pud Whitlock one, and Gus McKenzie of the Shamrocks the other.

Stewarts started the game away with a four run rally in their first turn at bat. The losers were held to one, but after blanking the "Bakery" team in the second, came to life in their second turn at bat to knot the count at 4-all.

But after this it was all Stewarts. They counted in every inning from then on while allowing their opponents but one more marked, this coming in the fifth.

Lineups:

Shamrocks — McKenzie, Nelson, Phillips, Cudmore, Rogers, McNevin, Diamond, Williams, Foster.

Stewarts — McLellan, Murley, Cairns, Carmichael, Whelan, Whitlock, Stewart, McGill.

O'Mahony Wrestling Champion

(A.P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

BRAVES FIELD, Boston, July 30—Danno O'Mahony, 22 year old Irishman, tonight gained the undisputed heavyweight wrestling championship tossing Ed George out of the ring after an hour and 30 minutes of earnest grappling. Jimmy Braddock, heavyweight ring champion and referee of this mat title bout, counted up to 20 and when George failed to return to the ring, awarded the victory to O'Mahony.

After rendering his verdict, Braddock was attacked by Frank Delamano, George's chief second, but he drove him off with a right hook to the jaw, much to the amusement of the crowd of 45,000.

Meanwhile O'Mahony's assistants were in the ring punching and grappling with members of the enemy camp and a furious, but futile, battle waged for almost five minutes before a large detail of police forced a passage to the ring-side and restored order.

Hard Fought Matches In N.B. Tourney

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

FREDERICTON, N. B., July 30—Favored players generally advanced another step this afternoon in second round matches of the New Brunswick tennis tournament, although stiff opposition continued in men's and women's singles. Efforts are being made to reach the quarter finals in all events by Thursday.

One of the best singles matches today was seen when Syd Bartlett, Fredericton star, took the measure of Jack Freeze, veteran stylist from Bangor, Me., in three bitterly contested sets. In another J. Louis McKenna, Rothesay, battled point for point with W. H. Vinton, of Brattleboro, Vt., who finally won 6-2, 6-8, 7-5.

Don Robinson, Moncton's greatest contribution to tennis ranks since the day Lloyd Keating broke into the game, gave a splendid display of hitting ability in his match with Garnet Raper. Although the former Montreal star took the match in straight sets, the Moncton junior made him fight for every point.

Johnny Kilburn, Fredericton, proved too powerful for Vernon Knight, Aroostook, former junior champion, and the latter passed out of singles competition after a hard three set struggle.

The best match in the ladies' singles event was that in which Elsie Long, Saint John district champion, gained a victory over Jean Dickie of Campbellton in three sets.

Cubs Win 10th Straight Game To Gain On Giants; Browns Whip Bengals

(A.P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

NEW YORK, July 30—Running their winning streak to ten straight, Chicago Cubs walloped the Pirates 9-6 at Pittsburgh today, gaining ground on the League leading Giants, who lost the first game of a doubleheader to the Phillies.

Larry French, Cubs star southpaw was belted out in the first inning as the Pirates leaped on him for four runs, climaxed by Arkie Vaughan's triple, before he got a man out. Big Bill Lee replaced French and allowed but four hits the rest of the way. One of them was Vaughan's 15th homer of the season, scoring the Pirates last two runs in the eighth.

Mace Brown, Pirate righthander, was no more successful getting under way than French. Augie Galan's single and doubles by Bill Herman and Gabby Hartnett got back two runs in the first inning and a four run rally disposed of Brown in the second, Jim Weaver finishing for the Pirates.

Buried under an avalanche of hits in the first game, the League leading Giants came back behind Hal Schumacher's air tight pitching to break even for the day and hold their loss to Chicago Cubs to half ing in the second game at New York a game.

Johnny Vergez two home runs led a 16 hit Philadelphia assault on Bud Parmelee and Allyn Stout for the Phillies 11-5 victory, while Schumacher fanned 10 before he weakened in the eighth and gave way to Leon Chagnon as the Giants took the second game 8-2.

Bennie Frey won his own ball game at Cincinnati clipping out a single for the Reds winning run to defeat St. Louis Cardinals 6-5.

Victory snapped the Reds' losing streak. Frey's winning blow came after two were out in the ninth.

Until Jess Haines tired, the Cards had matters much their own way, forcing Derringer from the mound with two successive triples in a four-run drive in the sixth. Clipping away, the Reds tied it up in the eighth, however, and won as Bottomley doubles and Frey got his single after pitching one inning as a relief hurler.

BROWNS TAKE OPENER

NEW YORK, July 30—St. Louis Browns, showing no favoritism to the American league leaders, showered Schoolboy Rowe and the Tigers with a 12 hit barrage today to take the series opened at Detroit 8-6.

Russ Van Atta got credit for the victory, although he retired in the sixth inning after successive singles by Greenberg and Goslin and a long fly by Rogell had given the Tigers their third run and endangered the early five run lead of the Browns. Knott took up the mound duties, but went out in the ninth in favor of Thomas when the Tigers threatened again.

Chicago's third place White Sox conquered Cleveland, 8-6 at Chicage in a battle of extra base hits and moved one game closer to both Detroit and New York in the pennant tussle.

The league leading Tigers, who lost to St. Louis Browns, were 3 1-2 games ahead of the Sox at the close of the day's business, while the margin of the second place Yankees, who were defeated at Philadelphia, was cut to one game.

A four run uprising in the sixth inning, built around Vernon (George) Washington's home run with one on, clinched the decision after the Indians had wiped out an early Sox 3-0 lead with a four-run cluster of their own in the fourth.

The Athletics further damaged New York Yankees pennant hopes at Philadelphia winning 6-5 for their first victory in six games with the New Yorkers there this season. It was the Yanks ninth defeat in the last 12 games.

A home run by Paul Richards with one on in the sixth pulled the A's up from behind and handed Red Ruffing his ninth defeat of the campaign.

Behind Fritz Ostermueller's four-hit pitching, Boston Red Sox whipped the Senators at Washington 11-4 in the first of their three game series.

Although Ostermueller was stingy with is hits, he was generous with his passes, his wildness giving 12 Washington players free trips to first base. Washington used five pitchers but none was able to stop the barrage of Red Sox hits which totalled 13.

CAPT. SMITH WINS COVETED RIFLE PRIZE

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire)

BEDFORD, N. S., July 30—Stepping out in high style with a near-perfect 99, Captain F. H. Smith of the Annapolis Regiment, today won the highly coveted gold medal of the Nova Scotia Rifle Association as its 67th annual meet got under way.

With a heavy wind blowing directly in the faces of the shooters, some good scores were posted and Captain Smith was forced to the limit as no less than 40 competitors carded scores of 90 or over.

The old original medal, hand-engraved from Nova Scotia gold, will be presented to Captain Smith this year. It was recently obtained from Sargeant James White of Vancouver who won it permanently a number of years ago. It was first presented to the late Major I. K. Blair of Truro in 1864, the first year of the meet.

Team honors were carried off by the 6th Machine Gun Battalion, which won two of the three team prizes today. The machine gunners won the Laurie Bugle Contest, carrying a prize of a bugle and an emblematic plaque, with a total of 348 compared with the Royal Canadian Regiment's 343 and the Royal Canadian Army Service Corps' 415. R. L. Simmonds, E. H. Gladwin, A. Carr and W. Wright made up the gunners' team.

The machine gunners also took the Irving Cup, a shoot for teams of four non-commissioned officers, with 311 against the 202 of the R. C. A. S. C. and the 161 of the R. C. R. Rapid firing on the 300, 200 and 100 yard ranges was required for the shoot.

The third team shoot, the Battalion Match, was won by the Royal Canadian Regiment squad which nosed out the gunners by one point, 303-302.

Four former members of the Canadian Bisley teams were here today. They were, Col. Henry Blair, Truro; Sgt. T. Laman, Nova Scotia's last Bisley man; Sgt. J. Armstrong, of the Princess Louis Fusiliers who won the grand aggregate, Rose Bowl and several medals at Bisley before the war; and Lieut. Harold Parker of Yarmouth.

Three other matches today were the tyros match for the Simmonds Cup, won by Gunner W. C. Ploeg, Royal Canadian Artillery, with 321; the Service Shoot, won by Fusilier George Thomas who had a 49 in the snap shooting; and the Stairs-Borden match won by Sgt.-Major A. G. Beale of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police with 49.

The four major shoots tomorrow will be in the Dennis Team Match, the Stanfield Match, and Merchant Cup, and the 66th Sergeants Team Trophy.

GASS REACHES FINALS IN LOCAL TOURNEY

G. F. Hutcheson, the grey fox of Prince Edward Island tennis went down to defeat in the semi-finals of the provincial closed tournament yesterday. He was eliminated by smooth-stroking Donald Gass in three straight sets, 6-2, 6-2, 6-2.

Mr. Hutcheson, one of the pioneers of tennis in this province, and always prominent in tournament play, Monday reached the semi-finals of the 1935 tournament by defeating Frank Hansen and Jack Kenny.

Teamed with Miss H. Morris in the mixed doubles, he reached the semi-finals but toppled before the speedier combination of Don Gass and Miss E. Sinclair.

The finals of the men's singles will be run off today, with defending champion, Stuart Dickson, meeting Donald Gass, the survivor of today's semi-finals.

Lt. Steeves Heads N.B. Riflemen

SUSSEX, N. B., July 30—Today's best shooting at the 62nd annual prize meeting of the New Brunswick Rifle Association was done by Lieutenant H. W. Steeves of the Moncton Machine Gun Rifle Association, who dropped only one point. He made a possible in the Sussex Merchantile Match at 300 and 500 yards, and 49 out of a possible 50 in the Officer's Match at 600 yards. These records gave him the cups and medallions for both events.

John Phinney, of No. 174 Saint John C. R. A., won the Tyro match this morning with a possible, and the Tyro team match also went to the Saint John C. R. A.

Visibility generally was good today, although glare made sighting difficult this afternoon.
