Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup.

It contains all the virtues of the world famous Norway pine tree, combined with Wild Cherry Bark and the soothing, healing and expectorant properties of other excellent herbs and barks.

Nasty Hacking Cough Cured.

Mrs. John Pelch, Windsor, Ont., writes: "I was troubled with a nasty hacking cough for the past six months and used a lot of different remedies but they did me no good. At last I was advised by a friend to try Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup and with the first few doses I found great relief and to-day my hacking cough has entirely disappeared and I am never without Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup in the house."

The price of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is 25 cents per bottle. It is put up in a yellow wrapper, three pine trees the trade mark, so be sure and accept none of the many substitutes of the original Norway Pine Syrup."

KEITH & PROCTOR'S FIFTH AVENUE THEATRE.

New York for Week of April 11, 1910.

Illness compelled Miss Irene Franklin to cancel the second week of her recent engagement at the Fifth Avenue Theatre. Thousands were disappointed at not being able to see the charming comedienne, especially as she had promised six entirely new songs for the second week. A severe attack of la grippe, however, made Miss Franklin think that she was realizing her popular song, "I've Got the Mumps." With health renewed, America's surest vaudeville headliner will return to the Fifth Avenue for the week of April 11, and render the new numbers already promised. As usual she will be assisted by the talented Burt Green at the piano, a fact which means added enjoyment as the pianist's little snatches of comedy during Miss Franklin's changes make a decided hit with all parts of the house. When the curtain falls on the Sunday night of Irene Franklin's engagement, it will mean her farewell to vaudeville. She was a long time withstanding the many offers made to star her, and variety purveyors began to look upon her as the chief standard-bearer in that branch of the amusement world. Now, however, the magnificent inducements proferred by Lew Fields were not to be foregone, and Broadway will soon see the dainty little singer of "Red-head," a full-fledged musical comedy star. As a tribute to Miss Franklin, Messrs. Keith & Proctor have surrounded her with a bill of tremendous quality. At the head of her associates will be W. C. Fields, the funniest juggler in the world. That statement is the unqualified truth, and the man does not live whom Fields cannot convulse with laughter at his comic feats of difficult balancing and placing. Hoey and Lee graciously made way for Maude Raymond last week, but they both insist upon being on Miss Franklin's farewell bill. If the boys go on after her, they'll surely parody one of her numbers, but their fun is so good-natured that none will enjoy it more than Miss Franklin herself. Count upon Hoey and Lee for bright dialogue and twistings of the leading songs and sayings of the day. The Ruby-Raymond Trio will introduce a dancing and patter skit, "Street Urchins in an Amateur Contest," and there'll be something lively happening during every second that the young folks are before the audience. John Neff, the brainstorm comedian, and Carrie Starr will then entertain smartly, Neff introducing his famous bounding buck dance as performed with all the leading minstrel organizations. Conspicuous on the programme, too, will be James Dolan and Ida Lenharr in that classic, "A High-Toned Burglar." Dolan and Lenharr may try to produce new sketches, but "A High-Toned Burglar" will always be their masterpiece. It's a gem of a one-act play, and the first of all the burglar shows. Jimmy Valentine should visit the Fifth Avenue, and learn the joy of "taking things easy." Will Rogers, the lasso king, will give exhibitions of what is possible to be done with an ordinary rope; the Robert De Mont Trio will present the acrobatic absurdity, "Hotel Turn Over," and more Roosevelt films will be disclosed in the motion pictures.

HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The House resumed committee of supply at 1.30 Mr. Kennedy continuing his critisism of the bills for the steamer Hillsboro. He thought the Commissioner should keep an order book and that goods should be ordered by requisition. He held there was nothing to show that these goods were received, or checked off, or that the bill was paid; also that the charges were one third in excess of what they should be, both in the Kennedy and Rogers Hardware Company bills. He also brought in the purchase of seed oats, making various charges.

HON. MR. CUMMISKEY, replied. He had been charged by the member for Kensington with incompetence and neglect. He had inquired as to the prices. In thirty years he had never known nails to be quoted at such low rates as those quoted by the last speaker. He denied that there was any over lapping of the two accounts of A. Kennedy & Co. He quoted prices from different city firms to show that the prices charged in the bill for nails, spikes, manila, &c, were fair and reasonable. He said rope was considerably dearer a few years ago when these supplies were procured than it is now. He claimed that he had proved his case. And he did not think any fairminded member would accuse Kennedy & Co of wanting more than a reasonable profit. The bills were paid by cheques which are returned to the department at the end of the month and filed away. The endorsement showed what the payment was for. This was a sufficient receipt.

MR. KENNEDY said the Commissioner had quoted the prices now from hardware firms that are supplying the department with the same goods.He (Mr. K) was ready to supply like goods for the lower prices he had quoted, one third to one half lower than what the Department paid.

MR. WYATT objected that the quantities had not been checked.

MR. McLEAN claimed that when the goods were received the captain should have certified to the Commissioner that the goods had been delivered and at fair prices.

MR. MATHIESON said that of four bills only one certified by Capt. McDougall, another had his name miss-spelled penciled on it, but the signature was not his. It was absurd to quote prices from the ring that supplied the Government. They, of course, all quoted the same prices.

The discussion was continued by Mr. J. Kennedy, Hon. Mr. Cummiskey, Mr. Mathieson, the Premier and others till nearly 5 o'clock when the item passed. Road inspectors' salaries, $2,195 was next taken up. This gave occasion for further discussion of Mr. Lavers, Mr. Clay, and various works and transactions with which they were connected. This concluded the discussion in committee of supply, all the items having been voted.

The Speaker took the chair and several bills were advanced a stage.

EVENING SESSION.

On resuming at 8.30 the bill to amend the Public Roads Act 1907 was further considered in committee, Mr. Palmer in the chair. It is a short bill, the object being to adjust the Roads Act to the Tax Act. It provides new forms for overseers to attest their returns and for persons under 21 years or over 60 years to make affidavit of the fact in claiming exemption.

MR. PROWSE made the statement that the overseer, sometimes employed incompetent persons to brush the roads across the ice.

HON MR. CUMMISKEY admitted the importance of having this work carefully done and by competent persons, as the overseers are instructed to do.

The importance of bush cutting, and having road fences of wire to prevent drifting was discussed by Mr Cox and a number of other members. The bill was then agreed to and reported with amendments.

MR. McLEAN moved the House into committee to further consider the bill to incorporate the Town of Souris, Mr. McKinnon in the chair. The bill is a long one of 149 sections and makes a pamphlet of 73 pages. It provides for a Mayor, to be elected by ballot annually and six Councillors, who shall hold office for two years.

The bill occupied the entire evening down to a late hour in reading. There was very little discussion.

At 11.30 the bill was reported agreed to with amendments and the house adjourned till tomorrow at 10 o'clock.

TO PROTECT TRADEMARK.

Vigorous Campaign to be Instituted by The Slater Shoe Co., Ltd.

Some weeks ago a report was published of an action instituted by the Slater Shoe Company, Limited, against the Eagle Shoe Company, in which an injunction was applied for by the Slater Shoe Company, Limited, to restrain the defendants from using the name "Slater" on shoes made by that company.

"The case has been before the courts now for some time," said Charles E. Slater, president of the Slater Shoe Company, Limited. "We intend to prosecute the action vigorously to the end, for we have for years been subject to this and many other forms of unfair and unjust competition."

"Every Slater shoe has the "Slater" trademark on it and we have even had to protect ourselves against flagrant use of this trademark.

"Year in and year out we have been hampered and harassed by the sale of common shoes, which the buyers were led to believe by some sort of subterfuge were Slater shoes, when they were not. We are instituting a vigorous campaign to protect our customers against these infringements. We are even securing the names of retailers who make a practice of co-operating with the unscrupulous makers of these counterfeit shoes."

Eczema For Nine Years.

Zam-Buk Works Another Great Cure.

Another wonderful cure of the dread scourge, eczema, by the great herbal balm Zam-Buk is reported from Montreal by Mr. Thos. Amesse of 600 St. Timothee St. He says:

"For about nine years my son, Emile, was a great sufferer from eczema. The disease broke out on his face and arms, which were covered with sores. These would scale over for a time, but would then break open again and cause him terrible agony. At other times they would itch and burn, and it was impossible for him to refrain from scratching. Yet scratching or rubbing only caused him more pain afterwards.

"We tried salves and soaps and preparations of all kinds, but it seemed that we could get nothing to benefit him. This state of affairs went on during nine long years, and you can well imagine the agony he suffered!

"Zam-Buk was recommended to us, but we feared it would prove like all other remedies had proved—useless! We got a supply, however, and it was not long before we found out its virtues. It eased the pain and removed the irritation. Then it began to heal the sores, until bit by bit the patch got less and less. The skin which was cracked and sore became soft and smooth, and in the end every trace of the disease was banished. The skin to-day is clear and smooth and there is no trace of the sores and ulcers and cracks, which for nine years caused him such agony."

Not only for eczema, but for ulcers, blood poisoning, bad leg, varicose ulcers, itch, salt rheum, cold cracks, scalp sores, children's rashes and piles, Zam-Buk is a sure cure. Used as an embrocation it cures rheumatism and sciatica. All druggists and stores at 50c box, or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price. You are warned against substitutes and harmful imitations.

GENERAL BOOTH SERIOUSLY ILL

LONDON, April 5—General William Booth, head of the Salvation Army, is seriously ill at his home in Queen Victoria street. He was seized with a fainting spell yesterday, necessitating the cancellation of all his engagements. Those in attendance upon the General fear his present illness means a general breakdown. He is 81 years old, and his health has been failing rapidly for the last few years. General Booth seems to realize that the end is not far off, and expressed his pleasure to several of his co-workers who called on him today, that the affairs of the Salvation Army were in such shape that passing would be without serious effect.

$100 Reward, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

AUCTION SALE
—OF—
Business Stand

I am instructed by Patrick Duffy to sell by auction his property situated on the corner of Cumberland and Sydney Streets on at 12 o'clock noon. It comprises a dwelling house and store combined. There is also warehouse and stable. This is a new dwelling house which has only been built a short time. It has a stone wall with frost-proof cellar and is heated all through with furnace. The store is also fitted out with all conveniences found in an up-to-date grocery and provision store. As Mr. Duffy had this building built for his own use he spared no expense in having everything first-class and, as he has decided to change his occupation of business, he has decided to have this property sold, with or without stock of groceries. It is close to the new Railway Station and Hillsboro Bridge, making it in all an ideal place for any person wishing to start in the grocery and provision trade.

TEACH WOMEN HOW TO SPEND MONEY.

TORONTO, April 5.—The Home Science Department of the Ontario Educational Association made a rather new departure towards popularizing the work when a directory of teachers was organized and a committee placed in charge.

Another interesting lecture by Miss Van Reussealear, of Cornell University, upon "The Education of Girls," was heard yesterday morning. She warned girls against going into the overcrowded and underpaid profession of teaching unless they really liked it, and were adapted for that sort of work. Home science gave women a larger range of living. If women were not executive it was accounted for by their being deprived of their right of domain for so long. Girls were just as capable of real honest responsibility as boys when experience taught them.

The women of the home science profession should be broad-minded, should seek culture, music, art and literature, outside of cooking, nutrition and sanitation. The woman who kept her refrigerator and backdoor clean had as great a part in citizenship as the one who cast her vote, but too much stress might be laidupon that end of it.

Of $1,000,000 spent upon food, shelter and clothing in the United States about $900,000 was spent by women. Women should be trained for this duty. They should know that a "marked down" article was in most cases not a bargain. Woman filled the highest place in the land in that she fed the members of the family in order that they might go and do their work. All mothers did not train their children properly, so that because some mothers gave good training to their girls, the value of work in school for others should not be lessened.

Home science opened up a new and interesting world for girls—chemistry, physics—they should know about sliding doors, windows, stove smoke, the difference between hot water and hot air furnaces, plumbing and piping, so that a mechanic would not have to be called in every time something went wrong. In short, school work should have to do with the tasks of life, and girls usually find theirs in the home.

Your Mother's Health

More Precious Than Your Own.

"My mother," writes Mrs. J. R. Morrison, of Glen Ridge, "enjoyed excellent health until she had entered her sixty-first year. ...Then she grew listless and weak—anything she attempted to do made her tired. Her mind was not really weak, but 'she lost taste for reading and conversation, probably because they caused her tiredness and confusion of mind. It was dreadful to have mother ill, and not so very old either. The doctor told us she needed building up, and at about sixty the body met with a sort of decline, which, if tided over, meant good health for years to come. As a general tonic medicine, I had heard more about 'Ferrozone' than anything else, and got a few boxes at the drug store. If you could see mother now, you would realize how much good 'Ferrozone' had done her. She has grown almost young looking, feels strong, and takes a keen interest in everything that goes on. Now that mother has been restored to her old-time vigor and health, the little things she does for us would be more missed than ever." ...

All old folks will feel the rejuvenating, uplifting influence of Ferrozone. It is a nourishing tonic of unequalled potency. Try it—one or two tablets with each meal; 50c per box, six for $2.50, all dealers, or The Catarrhozone Co., Kingston, Ont.

BETHEL BIBLE CLASS FAREWELL A STUDENT.

On the evening of March the 30th the members of "The Bethel" organized adult Bible class met at the home of J. J. Domville on the eve of the departure of his son, Walter, for Sackville, where he goes to study for the ministry, to say good-bye and wish him God speed. After spending some time in music and games of various kinds Rev. H. A. Brown took the chair and called for the address, which had been prepared by the class for Walter. This address was then read by their teacher, W. E. Brooks, and reads as follows: "We, the members of "The Bethel Bible class, learn that you are leaving our midst with the purpose of studying in Sackville for the ministry. Though we shall regret your absence and miss the very efficient help you have given the Bible class, in your capacity as president, yet we rejoice that the Master has led you to give yourself more fully to His work. During the course of study preparatory to that work, you will have our prayers and deep interest. May God keep you faithful, firm and true. We trust the accompanying small token of our appreciation will be found useful and remind you of your true friends and well-wishers. Sincerely yours. Signed by W. E. Brooks, teacher; Annie E. Dyment, vice-president; Henry A. Brown, pastor; Mae Gunn Brown, pastor's wife; Lena Domville, secretary-treasurer, and many others. Mr. Brown then presented Walter with a beautiful fountain pen as a token of appreciation from the class. Mr. Brown then followed with an able address, which was replied to by Walter in a very feeling manner. After partaking of the good things of the home those present sang God Be With You Till We Meet Again, Mr. Brown read from the 4th chapter of 2nd Timothy, and then led in prayer. After bidding good-bye to brother Walter and wishing him every success in his study, the guests departed for their different homes feeling how sweet and pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity.

SUFFERED THREE YEARS

Till Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills cured his Kidney Trouble

There are few diseases that cause more acute suffering than Kidney Trouble, and Mr. F. A. Thomas, of Sudbury Ont., is one of those who know it. He writes: "For over three years I suffered from kidney disease. First I thought I had sprained my back; for suddenly the pain would catch the small of my back and it would be impossible for me to straighten myself up for several minutes. A dull ache across the kidneys was always present, my urine was thick and cloudy, and passing it caused a burning, scalding pain. Tried medicines, but they failed. I was advised to try Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills, as they had cured my wife years before. A few boxes affected a complete cure. I now enjoy the blessings of good health, which is due to this remedy."

Don't neglect kidney trouble—it's too dangerous as well as too painful. That old, reliable family remedy, Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills, has cured thousands and will cure you. It is equally effective in curing constipation and its attendant evils, biliousness, indigestion and sick headaches, and in purifing the blood. 25c a box at your druggist's 10

THE MORNING PAPER.

Some Reasons Why it Makes The Best Advertising Medium.

A woman's curiosity to know about society, marriages, births, deaths, forces her to read it.

The Morning Paper is before her all day long, and it is when she is doing her household duties, arranging and improving the appearance of her home, that the missing and necessary articles of furniture, rugs, carpets, curtains or other necessities, show up the plainest, and there could be no more opportune time for a dealer to tell about the new goods, the new styles and the bargains offered, for the day or week.

In a majority of homes the newspaper is practically the bulk of the reading matter, and the long, all-day life from 5 a. m. to 10 p. m. of The Morning Paper gives not only the housewife but every member of the family an opportunity to read it.

The Morning paper is read at the breakfast table, again at home attants. It is read in doctor's offices, professional offices, clubs, hotels, cafes, barber shops. It is read by daylight everywhere you go by both employer and employee.

It is a known fact that throughout the world, possibly with a half-dozen exceptions, the papers with editorial influence and national reputation are Morning Papers.

With these facts in mind, the business man who is looking after the real money-spenders of the family to interest in his goods will consult his best interests by placing his announcements where the women will read them.
