

The Central Guardian

PAYS to buy in this province.

THE MORNING GUARDIAN may be had at the News and Variety Store, 70 Great George St., opposite St. Dunstan's Cathedral.

CHARLOTTETOWN BOY WOUND.—A telegram was received by Mr. Charles McLean, 298 Euston Street, yesterday, announcing the fact that William No. 444742 Private William L. McLean, Infantry, was officially reported wounded on Feb. 6th, and admitted to No. 1 Casualty Clearing Hospital, suffering from gunshot wounds in the arm, thigh and side. Private McLean, who has been overseas since early in the war, was an employee in the mechanical staff of The Guardian, and his many friends sincerely hope that his injuries may not be serious.

STORE KEEPERS.—A quantity of store and office furniture is offered for sale in the classified column in this issue. Read the adv. 2656.

SLEIGH UPSET.—A peculiar driving accident happened yesterday on Queen St. before Large's Livery Stables. A prominent horseman, who was out exercising one of the speedy members of his "string" had stopped before the stable and was chatting with a fellow follower of the sport of kings. The speed department of the outfit was prancing and curvetting, eager to be off, and in the course of events backed up very suddenly and turned the sleigh over backward completely. The driver landing on the back of his head and rolling over in a most natural and nonchalant manner. The driver was not hurt and the horse was stopped before he got to the corner. The unusual way the sleigh turned over caused considerable comment among the driving enthusiasts yesterday.

MR. NASH AT P. S. S.—Mr. F. J. Nash, favored the Excelsior Club, of Prince Street school with a visit yesterday afternoon, by giving them a timely and instructing talk on the Great War which is holding the attention of the civilized world. The genial speaker, who is a great favorite with the P. S. S. girls, was graciously introduced by the president of the Club, Miss Pauline Rogers, who also presided, and spoke for some time on the successes and undertakings of Great Britain and her Allies. At the close a hearty vote of thanks was moved by Miss Jean Lounson and seconded by Miss Dora McDonald, in acknowledging Mr. Nash said it was a pleasure to talk with the young ladies of P. S. S. and promised a return visit in the not too distant future.

SUDDEN DEATH.—The residents of Stanley Bridge were shocked on Friday evening, when they learned that Mr. Samuel McKay had been found dead. Mr. McKay left home about ten o'clock on Friday morning with a load of wheat to go to the New Glasgow rolling mills. After dinner his father, Mr. Robert McKay went to the barn to feed the stock. While there the horse which his son had taken in the morning came running into the yard with one shaft attached to the harness. Mr. McKay immediately grasped the horse and went in search of his son. About half a mile from home he found his boy face downwards in the snow with life extinct—death being due, it is assumed, to heart disease. The deceased who was only 31 years of age, was a young man of splendid character. His funeral which took place Monday, was one of the largest seen in the district for many days. Besides his father and mother, the late Mr. McKay leaves to mourn several sisters and brothers, one of whom Miss Marjorie McKay, is attending C. B. C.

FORMER ISLANDER.—We have received by J. A. Bernard, Tigish, announcing the death of his uncle, Stanley G. Perry of Sconeville, N.S., on Sunday, February 10th, Mr. Perry, who had long been a director of the Brotherhood of Railway Station Employees, with office at Haymarket Square, Boston, had been in failing health for some time past, and his death while hardly unexpected was a severe shock to his many friends in Tigish. He was a son of the late Hon. S. T. Perry, and had lived in Boston for many years, but each year paid a visit to his old home, to renew acquaintances. Besides his wife, who was formerly Lena O'Meara, of Albion, he leaves to mourn their sad and irreparable loss one son, Leo, and two daughters, Loretta and Helen, who will have the sincere sympathy of a large circle of friends and relatives in their sad bereavement. On Wednesday morning a solemn Mass of Requiem was celebrated by Rev. Father Perry, in St. Benedict's Church and the remains were followed by a large cortege to Holy Cross cemetery, where interment was held.

ONCE MORE
The miner dropped his pick and stared with bulging eyes at the yellow mass which a stroke of the implement had just laid bare. For a minute he was struck speechless. Then, like one gone mad, he gave forth a mighty shout. His mate came running from the mouth of the tunnel.
"What is it?" he cried breathlessly.
"Gold! Gold!" yelled the other. "Pure gold! Tons of it!"
"Is that all?" exclaimed his partner disgustedly. "From all the hulla balloo ye were makin' one 'ud think ye had dug into a firkin o' butter!"

Away with Depression and Melancholy—These two evils are the accompaniment of a disordered stomach and torpid liver and mean wretchedness to all whom they visit. The surest and speediest way to combat them is with Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, which will restore the healthful action of the stomach and bring relief in thousand of cases and will continue to give relief to the suffering who are wise enough to use them.

NEW TESTAMENT FOR CATHOLIC SOLDIERS AND SAILORS

ISSUED.

The Chaplains' Aid association of New York has just had published for it by the Paulist Press of 129 West Sixtieth street, New York, a copy of the Douay version of the New Testament, bound in khaki and no larger than a prayer book, yet with a readable type. The Testament is known as the army and navy edition, being intended for Catholic soldiers and sailors. It is the smallest Catholic Testament ever published in English and to get it up was a tremendous task. All small English Testaments previously issued came from Europe. Cardinal Gibbons has written a foreword, saying in part: "Called by the President, as the commander in chief of the forces of the nation, to the service of your country, love for the soil and its people must necessarily be the mainspring of all your military activities. In these respects, Christ our Lord is your example. He loved His native land, for He sanctified it by His Precious Blood, and He illustrated it by the glory of His resurrection. He loved His people. Was it not to them that He first offered the priceless blessings of His Gospel? Sending His apostles on that memorable mission, He said: 'Go ye not into the way of the Gentiles, and into the cities of the Samaritans enter ye not. But go ye rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.' (St. Matthew x: 5). And when they refused the gift of God, what but the tenderest love could have prompted the pathetic lament: 'Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets and stones them that are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered together thy children, as the hen doth gather her chickens under her wings, and thou wouldst not?' (St. Matthew 23: 37). 'Respect for authority is of the very essence of military life, order and efficiency. It is plain, then, that your first and most important duty is prompt and cheerful obedience to the commands of your superiors. The sanction for it is found in these words of the New Testament: 'Let every soul be subject to the higher powers; for there is no power but from God; and those that are, are ordained of God.' (Wherefore, be subject of necessity, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake.' (Romans 3: 1-5). The honorable name of soldier, which you bear, is synonymous with courage in the face of danger, patience under
