Detective Powers, of the Halifax Criminal Investigation Bureau, who has been on the Island for the past few days, investigating the burning of the Schooner, J. H. Livingston, which occurred some weeks ago, leaves for Halifax today after bringing his investigations to a successful conclusion.

Detective Powers, arrived in Charlottetown last Friday, in the interests of insurance underwriters and at once quietly commenced his inquiry.

From information obtained from different sources, he learned that one interested in the schooner would arrive in the city from the Eastern portion of the Island on last evening's train. Having a description of the party in whom he was interested, Detective Powers was at the Railway Station yesterday evening on the arrival of the Souris train. Here he met his man with whom he had a long interview.

The result of the interview revealed the fact that the burning of the schooner was of incendiary origin.

Detective Power obtained a sworn statement from the party interviewed that he was familiar with the facts of the fire and the circumstances attending its cause.

The situation will go a long way to clearing the mystery surrounding the burning of the schooner, which was burned to the waters edge in the East River some weeks ago.

Much credit is due to Detective Powers in his speedy despatch of an occurrence to which there were apparently no clues as to its cause, and to all appearance was likely to have remained a mystery.

The death occurred at his home 4 Hillcrest Avenue, Charlottetown, on Sunday morning at 1 p. m. of Mr. Malcolm Matheson, retired Road Master of the Canadian National Railway.

Mr. Matheson was 67 years of age, and passed away on his birthday. He was born in Emerald, January 2nd, 1859, about six months after his parents, the late Mr and Mrs Donald Matheson, came out from the Isle of Skye, Scotland, to settle in this Province.

The late Mr. Matheson was in the railway service continuously for forty-four years, beginning work as a section man at Emerald on May 12th, 1881. He was promoted to the position of foreman at North Wiltshire on July 3rd, 1888, and appointed Road Master of the Eastern Division on removing to Charlottetown.

Owing to ill health he retired on a pension February 25th, 1925. Since then he was confined to his home. He suffered from pernicious anemia, and underwent several blood transfusions. He also was a week under treatment in the Hospital in Montreal, but respite the best medical skill and tender nursing of his devoted wife and members of the family his health did not improve.

On Tuesday last he was seized with an attack of pneumonia, and in his weakened condition the attack proved fatal.

Prior to his illness he had always enjoyed splendid health, being a man of magnificent physique. He was a most efficient railway employee, and a man of splendid character, who stood high in the esteem of all who knew him.

He was a member of the L. O. Lodge of Brookfield. He leaves to fondly cherish his memory, a widow, nee Miss Martha Large of North Wiltshire, four sons and three daughters, namely, Daniel in Lynn, Mass; William in Somerville, Mass., Clifton, Station Agent at Kensington; Stanley with Stanley, Shaw & Peardon, Della at Moore & McLeod's, and Mabel at home.

The following is taken from a Calgary paper:

Funeral services held at Wesley United Church on Tuesday afternoon, for the late William J. Yeo, were attended by a large number of friends gathered to pay their last respects. Rev. W. E. MacNiven officiated, assisted by the Rev. Canon James. Mr. J. W. Quinney sang "Crossing the Bar," accompanied by Mr. Harvey Rimmer on the organ.

The late Mr. Yeo, was born at Higgins road, P. E. I., and came west some twenty years ago, settling in Edmonton, where he started the firm of W. J. Yeo and Co., in 1916. Two years later he moved to Calgary, to be more centrally located in relation to the mining industry, as his firm acted as manufacturers' agents, supplying mine and power plant equipment. in 1913 he married Miss Annabelle Musselman. He took an active interest in church work, being on the boards of stewards of Wesley church at the time of his death. He was taken ill in February of this year, and after spending some time in hospital in Calgary, he went for a trip to the coast, in the hope that it would aid his recovery. However, upon his return he had a relapse, and in order to be in the hands of the doctor who had ministered to him a number of years ago, he went to the hospital at Lamont, Alta., where he passed away on December 4.

Miss Catherine Yeo, a graduate of the New England hospital, Boston, came west in April to nurse her brother, and was with him at the time of his death, as were also Mrs. Yeo and Mrs. R. E. Harrison (a sister of Mrs. Yeo's) and Mr. Harrison. Mr. and Mrs. Harrison reside at Lamont.

He leaves to mourn his loss, his wife and son, Donald, and four sisters and our brothers. The large number of floral tributes bespoke the high esteem in which he was held. The remains were laid to rest in Burnsland cemetery.

The residents of North Lake and adjoining settlements, sincerely regretted to learn of the death of G. A. McInnis on Nov. 26th. ult.

He was around as usual on the day before, retiring about 10 o'clock. He got out of bed during the night and started a fire. His daughter, Mrs. McDonald hearing him at the stove quickly got up and came to see what was wrong. He said he felt his feet very cold. She gave him some stimulant and, in a short while he said he felt quite comfortable and went back to bed. She stayed around a little longer and before retiring went to see her father. It was a sudden and unexpected shock to her to find that he was drawing his last breath when she came to his bedside.

He was one of the oldest residents of North Lake, being in his 85th year.

His kindness of heart and genial manner made for him many friends. He was particularly fond of children and many happy moments they spent in his company.

He had a large family of his own —thirteen, some of whom are dead and the others, except his daughter, Margret, who was living with him on the old homestead, live in different parts of the U. S. Five of his sons are in the employ of the N. E. Telephone Co., since they left the old home many years ago. Still, they regularly wander back and spend a few happy days among the scenes of their childhood. Two of his daughters trained as nurses in American hospitals; one, Annie, married to Mr. Murphy of Lockport, Maine, died suddenly about one year ago. The other, Florence, is married to Mr. Alfred Rose, formerly of Priest Pond, but now with the N. Y. and N. H. and H. bridge constructors.

His son, Frank, arrived home Sunday morning in time to be at his father's funeral. To do so, they had to motor from Charlottetown over an almost impassable road, occasioned by previous heavy rains. It took eleven hours to reach their objective. Frank is very grateful to A. P. McPhee, engine-cleaner of Elmira, who went to meet him for doing what he, mile after mile, predicted impossible.

A large gathering of both young and old, followed his remains to St. Columba Church, where the requiem services at the Church and the grave were performed by the parish priest, Rev. R. J. MacDonald.

The pall bearers were: Messrs. Pius MacAulay, Columba J. MacDonald, Daniel J. Campbell, Laughlin A. MacDonald, Marcellus MacInnis, and Joseph MacInnis.

The deceased was a brother of the late Joseph F. MacInnis, painter of Ch'town.

In all these years of service Mr. Gillis had never taken a holiday and with the exception of one month, had never been absent a single day from his duties.

—WELL KNOWN RESIDENT.— The death took place at Summerside on Monday morning of Mrs. Rosalie Waite, at the ripe age of 83 years. The deceased lady had resided here for about half a century and was highly esteemed by all who knew her. Having no near relatives, she latterly resided and was tenderly cared for at the home of Mr. Joseph Richards, from whence the funeral took place Tuesday morning to St. Paul's Church and Cemetery.

A pretty wedding took place on New Year's Day at New Hamburg at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George D. Agnew, when the latter's sister, Jennie Hodgson, daughter of Mrs. C. W. Kielly of Charlottetown, P. E. I., was united in marriage to Mr. George W. Dewar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Dewar, "Newlands," Charlottetown. The bride was attired in seaspray green georgette and carried a boquet of Ophelia roses and maidenhair fern. The ceremony was conducted by the Rev. C. C. Anderson of New Hamburg. After the wedding a dainty buffet luncheon was served, and then Mr. and Mrs. Dewar left on a short wedding trip. On their return they will make their home at Charlottetown. The bride's going away costume was of two-tone fawn crepe de chine, with shoes and hat to match and coat of Hudson seal. Mrs. Dewar is a graduate nurse of the Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal. Mr. Dewar is a prominent horticulturist and fox farmer of P. E. I.—Toronto Globe.

Death although as old an institution as time itself, and a sure and certain factor in every life, yet its appearance in the home causes no small degree of consternation, and its passing leaves but a trail of sorrow, and unhappiness. Such were the conditions in the home of Mr and Mrs. Edward Stewart of French River when at midnight, Dec. 24 with the advent of Christmas the soul of their youngest son, Donald Edward, aged one year and ten months found a haven in the immediate presence of God.

Donald as he was known in the home was a "stirring child" with a lovable disposition and a general favorite with all. About three weeks previous to the last sad scene in his short but eventful life he contracted a server cold which developed into pneumonia with the result above noted, despite the best medical treatment and experienced nursing.

Besides the parents who lament the loss of a son there are two brothers and one sister left to mourn the companionship of a little brother.

The funeral on Sunday afternoon Dec. 26th was conducted by the family pastor Rev. George Ayers assisted by the Rev. G. T. Spriggs, both speakers voicing their sincere sympathy for the bereaved, not forgetting to sound a warning note to the living. At intervals during the service the large concourse of friends listened with interest to the two solos. "Looking this way" and "Shadows' delightfully rendered by Mrs. Hubert Phillips of Tyne Valley and Mr. Roy Phillips of Kensington respectively. After the service in the home had been concluded the remains of little Donald were conveyed to the Geddie Memorial Cemetery and laid in their last earthly abode by four youthful pall bearers, (viz) George Howatt, Harold Bernard, Everett Bernard and Ralph MacLeod, there to list with the many in that silent city for the sound of the last trumpet of God.

Entered into rest at Peter's Road on December 5th, 1926 at the home of his father in law, Mr. Daniel Campbell, Kenneth MacDonald, aged 52 years. The deceased was the son of the late Alex. and Mrs. MacDonald of Alliston, Lot 63. Mr. MacDonald was long and favorably known in this community, where many of his relatives reside, and he also spent some time in Sydney, C. B., where his health became much impaired.

Returning, with his wife to their home in Murray River in hopes of improved health, it was soon found necessary to remove him to the Hospital for special treatment.

Gradually growing worse he wished to be taken home, and in a weakened condition he was tenderly nursed in the home of his father in law.

His devoted wife was ever at hand to help alleviate his suffering and relatives and friends were constant in attendance, but to no avail. The end came peacefully.

The late Mr. Macdonald was a favorite with all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance—kind and obliging in disposition.

During his illness he often spoke of the better home beyond and had a firm trust in Jesus, his Saviour.

Rev. M. D. McDonald who frequently visited him during his illness, conducted the funeral services, speaking very fittingly on this sad occasion.

The following hymns were sung at the service:

"The Lord's My Shepherd," "Will the Circle be Unbroken" "Take Comfort Christians'

Numerous Sprays resting on the Casket gave silent evidence of the esteem and respect of his many friends.

Besides the sorrowing and bereaved wife, nee, Irena Beatrice Campbell, the following brothers and sisters survive: John A. of Greek River, Charles of Allister; Daniel in Maine, Mrs. George Ferguson, Moncton, N. B.; and Mrs. Calvin McFadyen in Sydney, C B.

The remains accompanied by a large number of relatives and friends was interred in the New Cemetery at Murray River.

To the bereaved widow and relatives of the deep sympathy of the community is extended.

There was a large attendance at the Caledonian Club lecture last night, the subject being: "Seeing France and Belgium on Bicycle" Mr. Reginald H. Bell was the lecturer. Mr. Jas. Paton occupied the chair and at the close of the lecture a cordial vote of thanks moved by Mr. C. M. Shannon seconded by Mr. P. W. Clarkin and supported by Mr. C. G. Duffy was tendered the lecturer for his instructive and interesting description of a most interesting tour.

Mr. Bell began his remarks in a happy humorous vein telling of his and his companions departure from Charlottetown on May 1st and after spending a week in Montreal left that port May 5th on board the Manchester Regiment arriving in Manchester, Eng. After a voyage of ten days. From Manchester they went to London where they spent several days after which they proceeded with bicycles via. Canterbury to Dover thence by steamer to Ostend. Here Mr. Bell described the sights along the way from London particularly the Cathedral which they visited. Leaving Dover they sailed for Ostend where they landed on Sunday afternoon. Here he gave a humorous description of the ignorance of the foreigners who could not understand the language of the tourists and whom the latter could not make understand them.

From Ostend they visited the battlefields of Belgium taking in all the places made famous by the Great War, the cemeteries in which lay the bodies of thousands of British and Canadian soldiers in well marked graves and in artistically arranged and flower bedecked rows, all the cities including Ypres, Armetiers, Vimy, the different battlefields all the way from Ostend to Paris were described minutely and most interestingly recalling scenes familiar to his hearers during the anxious days and months of 1914-18. A stay of several days spent in Paris with its interesting scenes and historic places was graphically described together with their historic surroundings. A number of interesting excursions from Paris to nearby places including the palace of Versailles with its wonderful halls, stairways, galleries and gardens were interestingly outlined; then the return to England and the voyage home.

The lecture which occupied over an hour in delivery was entertaining and informative and Mr. Bell whose first public appearance in the role of a lecturer was most highly complimented for his excellent effort.
