THURSDAY
MEDAL RECEIVED.—Mr. G.S. Inman, K.C., has received from the Royal Canadian Humane Association the beautiful bronze medal awarded by the latter to Vincent McQuaid of Charlottetown for the rescue of William Monteith from drowning in October 1918. The medal will be presented publicly in a short time, due notice of which will be given.

—LT. STRONG MARRIED.—The marriage was solemnized, in Summerside at an early hour Tuesday morning of Lieut. Ernest H. Strong M. C., who recently returned from overseas, and Miss Loretta, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel McNeill, Summerside. The Rev. J. C. McLean performed the ceremony in the presence of immediate relatives of the contracting parties. The bride and groom were unattended. After the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Strong left on the early train for Boston and New York on a wedding trip. On their return they will reside in Summerside. They have the best wishes of many friends for a long and happy wedded life.

—RECEPTION TO RETURNED SOLDIERS.—A reception for the returned soldiers John Burns, Eddie Stavert, Oscar and Wallace McLellan, of Kensington took place in the C. M. B. A. Hall on Monday evening 10th ult. Mayor Bentley who presided in a capable manner made favorable impressions as presiding officer. The spacious hall was packed to the doors when the following program was rendered. Remarks by chairman, Chorus by the choir. Address to soldiers, J. F. Profit. Address, Rev. C. W. Neish Solo Tyndale Semple. Address Rev. W. E. Johnson. Chorus by choir. Address Corporal Peter A. Hughes. Speech Rev. G. A. Sellar. Chorus by choir. After hearty cheers being given to the returned men the National Anthem brought to a close a most successful and enthusiastic meeting.—R.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY.—The funeral of Weston Newbery took place yesterday under the auspices of St. George's L. O. L. and the military. The pall bearers were chosen from the officers of St. George's Lodge who were attired in full regalia. The floral offerings were numerous and consisted in part of a crescent from Rev. C. A. Field, Wreaths from St. George's Lodge and Victoria Preceptory, 192, both of which the deceased was an active member of. The services at the house were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Field of St. Paul's Church and the Rev. D. McLean of the Peoples Church, after which the cortege which was a large one, proceeded to St. Paul's Church where the usual service for the dead was performed after which the remains were laid to rest in the Peoples Cemetery.

There passed into eternal rest at Dorchester, Mass. on the morning of the 6th inst., Mabel, beloved wife of Duncan A. Gillis in the 37th year of her age.

The deceased, up to a week preceding her demise was enjoying the best of health but contracted influenza, but as no alarming symptoms developed immediately she was thought out of danger. On Saturday pneumonia set in, and although everything was done that medical care could devise she passed in the hands of her Creator early Monday morning.

A person of exemplary character, a lovable disposition and a kind nature she endeared herself to all with whom she came in contact and the loss of a true friend and a trusted companion will be felt by her wide circle of friends and relatives.

She leaves to mourn besides her sorrowing husband in Dorchester, her parents, Capt. and Mrs. Joseph Tierney of Souris, to whom the loss is most keenly felt. Also the following sisters and brothers, Mrs. M. A. Paquet, Mrs. J. E. Moynagh, Souris; Mrs. Peter Cote, Concord, N. H.; Mrs. A. R. McLellan, Somerville, Mass., Miss Kate and Frank at home, and William with the American Expeditionary Forces in Germany.

Heal Itching Pimples On Shoulders and Back.

"For two years I was troubled with itching pimples on my shoulders and back. They were hard, red and very painful, and were scattered. I could not rest at night on account of the itching. I tried several remedies but they failed. Then I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and I used three cakes of Cuticura Soap and four boxes of Cuticura Ointment and I was completely healed in six weeks." (Signed) Miss Kate Young, Melrose, Mass., March 30, 1917.

Having obtained a clear healthy skin by the use of Cuticura, keep it clear by using the Soap for all toilet purposes, assisted by ointment of Cuticura. Cuticura Soap is ideal for the complexion.

The death of Mrs. John Baird occurred Friday at Dartmouth, N. S. The late Mrs. Baird was in her 84th year. She was formerly a resident of Moncton, having lived here for many years. Her husband predeceased her some years. She is survived by one son, who lives in Charlottetown. The remains will arrive in Moncton today on the Ocean Limited and will be conveyed to the residence of Mr. W. A. Davies, 92 Highfield Street, from which place the funeral will be held Sunday afternoon. Service at the house at 2 o'clock, leaving for Elmwood Cemetery at 2.30. Mr. Baird of Charlottetown, son of the deceased will accompany the remains to Moncton.—Moncton Transcript, Feb. 15.

SENT UP TO SUPREME COURT.—George and Alfred Lund and Harvey Manderson, appeared at the Police Court yesterday morning charged with assaulting members of the Police Force in the discharge of their duty. Officer A. Melnis, Sergt. Taylor and Marshal Cameron were the principal witnesses, testifying that the defendants were intoxicated on the night in question using bad language, acting in a disorderly manner and had assaulted the police. In the case of Manderson an additional witness was Mr. J. P. McCloskey who testified that an intoxicated man entered his store on Queen Street, near Kent, about 9.30 Saturday night, swearing and flourishing his arms and demanding a revolver threatening to kill witness if it was not forthcoming. Mr. McCloskey's lady clerk made her escape from the store by a side door and Mr. McCloskey seeing he could not reason with the man in the condition he was in went out of the store, leaving the drunken man in sole charge and ran over to the Police Station which he found closed. He saw several men in uniform on the street and got two of them whom he thought to be military police to come and take the man out of his store. The drunken man was in civilian clothes and his face was covered with blood. Witness was of the opinion that the prisoner Manderson before him was the same man, Mr. G. S. Inman, K. C. watched the case for defendants. The Magistrate after hearing the evidence remanded the prisoners to the Supreme Court.

FRIDAY

ANOTHER RETURNED MAN.—Among the soldiers who returned this week was Pte. Herbert R. Vessey, son of Mr. R. H. Vessey, harness maker Charlottetown. He left here with the first 106th reinforcements. He was in France nearly a year and saw considerable fighting. He was wounded in the right foot and spent some time in hospitals in England. His friends are glad to see him home again safe and sound.

There departed this life at Coleman on the fifth day of February, 1919, Albert Wallace aged 60 years. He was a man of an unassuming disposition and reserved manner yet every good work and worthy cause had his support and his words were always given in kind advice and gentle teaching.

Those who knew him from childhood as well as all his neighbours and associates have nothing but words of praise to speak concerning him. He and his wife, formerly Miss Mary MacNevin began life with comparatively nothing of this world's goods, but through patient industry and honest toil they provided and built up one of the most comfortable and valuable farm properties in the community. For a number of years he was a valuable member of the Church of Scotland and always attended her services and revered her Sanctuary. He leaves to mourn besides his sorrowing widow, six sons and one daughter, George of Vinyl Haven, Maine, John of Stoningham, Maine, Rankin of Hyde park, Mass., Herman, William, and Gordon at home, and Elsie, (Mrs. Jas. E. Stewart) of Hyde Park. The funeral service was very impressive and was conducted by his minister the Rev. James MacDonnell of Cape Traverse, all the family were present. Those abroad hastened home expecting to meet their father in this life but only arrived in time to attend his funeral and comfort one another in their bereavement. His remains were laid to rest in the Kirk Cemetery at Mill where still united to Christ, they await the resurrection.

FORMER RHODES SCHOLAR.—Mr. Louis Brehaut of Murray Harbor, a former P.E. Island Rhodes Scholar and who has since been connected with the University of Saskatchewan, arrived in Charlottetown last night from St. John N.B.

ISLAND LADY DIES IN LOWELL.—The Guardian regrets to learn of the passing away of Miss Susan McKenna, on Monday the 17th inst in Lowell, Mass., where she had been residing for a number of years. Miss McKenna was formerly of Kelly's Cross where her death will be regretted by her many friends. Her body will arrive by mail express this evening at North Wiltshire Station and will be conveyed to the home of her brother, Mr. Charles McKenna, Kelly's Cross. Funeral will take place on Saturday morning to St. Joseph's Church.

WEDDING BELLS.—Leonora Beer, Beer, only daughter of Lt. Col. and Mrs. L. H. Beer, 744 Echo Drive, Ottawa and Lt. C. H. E. Powell, second son of Mr. Frances Barcham Powell of Brylport, Dorset, Eng. Marriage took place in St. Stephen's Church, Grove Road, Baham, London, Eng. on January 29th. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Canon Curtis, vicar of the Church of Ascension, Baham Hill and Chaplain of Red Cross Weir Hospital, Baham, where Miss Beer was a V. A. D. worker. Mr. and Mrs. Powell are spending their honeymoon in Devonshire and expect to return to Ottawa about the middle of March.

BUSY DAY AT COURT.—Yesterday was prohibition field day at the Police Court. There were fourteen cases against Dr. J. R. Ralph charged with giving a certificate to men who were not his patients and who were not in actual need of liquor. The doctor was convicted on eleven of these cases and the fine in each case imposed was $20 or one month imprisonment. Two cases were dismissed and the other was adjourned.

The advantage of a good baking powder as a leavening agent instead of cream of tartar and soda is twofold. First, it is scientifically prepared in such a way as to insure satisfactory results. Second, it is much more economical when one considers the high price of cream of tartar.

Magic Baking Powder is guaranteed to be the best and purest baking powder it is possible to produce.
