-FURTHER PARTICULARS—A youngest child, Jackie. However, they have the consolation of knowing that Leonard was always a loving dutiful child and that during the two years since he made his First Communion he had missed only one First Friday Communion and just the day previous to his death, he had received Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. His funeral was held on Sunday evening to St. Patrick's Church, Grand River, and was one of the largest ever seen in this locality. Service was conducted by the pastor, the Rev. John A. McDonald. The pall bearers were: Alexander McKinnon, Roland Thompson, George McDonald, Earl McLellan, Elmer McLellan and Joseph McLellan. Besides his parents there are left to mourn the following sisters and brothers to whom we extend our sincere sympathy: Kathleen and Emmet in Boston; Daniel, Arnold, Neil, Roy, Marion, Walter, Fred and Louis.—N.
