

TONIGHT 10 CENT SKATE ARENA

THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block--Charlottetown--

The latest news, first of all.

10 cent skate at the Arena tonight. 4th Regt Band.

J. C. Irving, Cherry Valley, was in the City yesterday.

Arena tonight, Skating with band. Admission 10 cents.

Many iceboats enjoyed a spin on the river ice yesterday.

The mail train from Georgetown arrived yesterday at twelve forty.

Friday night the final game, Albes vs Crystals, Arena rink.

Rev. Thos. Marshall, formerly of this city, preached two much appreciated missionary sermons recently in Amherst N. S.

Tonight the Alegwits will play in Summerside. The special train will leave here at 4 o'clock returning after the game. Fare $1.00.

Rev. C. Jost, M. A., Bridgetown, N. S., and well known in this City, took a prominent part in the recent Methodist Jubilee held in Bear River, N. S.

The death has occurred in Tracadie Cross after a short illness, of Margaret McDonald, daughter of the late Augustine McDonald, of Grand Tracadie.

A new insurance feature has been issued by Hudson & Co. of this City. It is the Old Age Annuity and is worthy of careful consideration. For particulars see their ad in this issue.

J. O. Arsenault, City, Provincial Manager of the Mutual Life of Canada, leaves tonight for Waterloo, Ont., where he will attend the 39th annual meeting of the Company.

A friendly invasion took place at Albes, N. B. parsonage recently when the pastor, Rev. W. J. Kirby and his family were presented with a purse containing $5.10 in cash as a token of their esteem.

The death occurred at DeSable on Sunday morning of Mrs. Mack Shaw. She leaves to mourn a husband and infant child, besides a large number of friends and acquaintances. Funeral takes place today at 2 p.m. to Argyle Shore Cemetery.

The following sympathetic words have been sent to Sister Charlotte S. Howard, Sister Charlotte, D. Lowther and Brother Frank Lowther of Cornwall signed by a committee formed of Margaret Stevenson, Mamie M. Astace and Amy Nelson. The officers and members of Cornwall Division hereby wish to extend to you their sincere sympathy, in this your hour of bereavement. Whereas it has pleased our Heavenly Father to call from earth your dear Mother and grandmother, we know and feel what you have lost and pray that God's blessing may rest upon you at this time of sorrow. We know that earthly sympathy is not much avail. We therefore, leave you with Jesus who alone can heal all sorrows. May your loss tend to bring you a link nearer Heaven, and help you to remember that the time is not far distant when you shall all go to meet your dear one, when there shall be no more parting. Then we, too, shall meet our loved ones who have gone before. Again we extend our deepest sympathy, and pray that God will sustain and comfort you. Signed on behalf of Cornwall Division submitted in Love, Purity and Fidelity.

There assembled at the home of William and Mrs. McDougall a few friends to celebrate the anniversary of Mrs. McDougall's birthday. The evening passed all too quickly in music, vocal and instrumental also dancing and speech making. Music on the violin was furnished by Miss Arthur Sentner and Benj. Gastermer, accompanied on the piano by Miss Blanche Waye. Among the guests taking part in the evening's entertainment was Robert Silliphant who excelled himself dancing the sword dance. D. McN. Crawford sang a sweet old gaelic song entitled "Aurora". Next came Miss Blanche Waye who very gracefully performed the Highland fling, then Mrs. Hill and Mrs. Wall sang very sweetly when the Blue Birds rest again sweet Nellie Grey. Supper was then served in Mrs. McDougall's well known style and needless to say it was a bountiful spread. Supper over they once more repaired to the parlor when Mr. Sentner, Areola, Sask, who is visiting his home once more sang a splendid song entitled the Wild Cowboy. Next was a duet by Mrs. Sentner and Mrs. McDougall, a good old gaelic song entitled Gilli Callum. A speech by Robt. Stead thanking the gracious host and hostess for an evening of rare enjoyment seldom spent and never to be forgotten by those taking part, brought to a close a very pleasant evening.—Com. Examiner please copy.

John and Mrs. Coyle, City, are visiting in Alexandria.

James Stewart of Paton & Co., is ill at his home in this City.

H. W. Turner, O'Leary, returned from this City yesterday afternoon.

Chief Justice Sullivan, J. J. Johnston and W. E. Bentley, City, went to Georgetown yesterday afternoon.

Rev. Geo. E. Ross and David McInnis, drove to Montague yesterday to attend the funeral of the late James Aitken.

The many friends of Alfred Chappell, City, were glad to see him down town yesterday for the first time after his recent illness.

The Crystals and Abergweits will play the final game on Friday night, this will be the most exciting game played this season.

New striped suitings in London smoke, soft golden browns, clerical grey, clear navy, etc. See eastern window. Jas. Paton & Co. 2-23dtf.

Two basket ball games at the Y. M. C. A. tonight P. W. C. vs Business Men, and the P. W. C.'s second team vs "Stars." The teams will be evenly matched in both games.

Rev. Wm. Penna of Shediac, N. B. formerly of P. E. I., has accepted an unanimous invitation to the Milltown, N. B. Circuit for the ensuing term, subject to the approval of the Conference.—Wesleyan.

Mr. Paton delighted his large audience at Cherry Valley last Friday evening with a graphic description of his trip to the Holy Land. The stereoscopic views of places and people were very interesting. Professor Jordan who was present lent his valuable aid which was highly appreciated. Rev. Wm. Orman presided, John Tweedie moved and J. C. Irving seconded a vote of thanks which was heartily given.

Keith's Magazine for February has arrived. It is replete with articles devoted to the home in building, decorating and furnishing, and gives a lucid description of the country seats of four Virginia presidents, illustrated in most interesting manner. The new ideas in decorative art and several plans of comfortable well equipped bedrooms, as well as many plans of cottages, bungalows, etc., are among the contributions offered by the publisher Max L. Keith, Minneapolis, Min.

Guardian readers will hear with pleasure that the Enterprise Foundry Co., Sackville, N. B., are now again in operation, the first castings having been turned out on the second day of February. The new foundry has been built in a thoroughly up-to-date manner for the production of first class and highly finished goods and as in the past, the superior quality of this company's output will no doubt give universal satisfaction. The following winners are offered for 1909. The Enterprise Monarch Steel Traces, The Enterprise Grand, The Enterprise, The Enterprise Crown, The Enterprise Magic, The New Century, The Rival, The Queen Elevated Oven Cook, The Jewel Square Wood Cook and The Blazer Furnace, all constructed with the very latest improvements.

Victoria Division, S. O. T. to the number of about forty and a few from Prince Edward, both of this City, paid a fraternal visit to Cornwall Division last night. A large number of Cornwall Division were present as well as a number from surrounding Divisions. W. P., Rev. Hugh Millar opened the meeting and left it in the hands of Victoria Division. The evening was pleasantly passed in speeches, recitations, readings, instrumental and vocal music. Those who contributed to the evening's entertainment were: Mrs. Hawkins, Leslie Toombs in a solo accompanied by Miss Tanton, Ira Brown, J. E. Enman, Bertha Stewart, W. M. McKinnon, William Rowe, Miss Newson, Arthur Tanton, R. H. Moore, K. Ferguson, W. N. Tanton and J. P. Hood. At the close of the program which occupied about an hour and a half refreshments were served by Cornwall Division. Messrs Scott and Hay moved and seconded a vote of thanks to Victoria Division for their excellent entertainment. Arthur Tanton moved and Wm. Rowe seconded a vote of thanks to Cornwall Division for their share in making the evening an enjoyable one and invited them to a return visit, which was gladly accepted. The meeting was closed by W. P. Millar and Cornwall Div.

There were no cases tried before the City Police Court yesterday.

Tonight 10 cent skate at the Arena.

There was crossing both ways at the Capes yesterday but no mails were carried.

A close ended game of hockey was played in the Arena rink after the usual skate last night. It was certainly an eye opener for amateurs. It was played between the telephone and electric light boys. The Electricians didn't have a high enough voltage for the Hello boys rung it all over them from beginning to end. The puck was in the Electricians' hands nearly all the time and the score ended 6 to 1 in favor of the Telephone boys. You could hear the Telephone ringing loud and long at the finish of the game. John Gormely very kindly acted as referee to the great satisfaction of all.

DOCHERTY—At Cherry Valley on Feb. 12th to George and Mrs. Docherty a daughter.

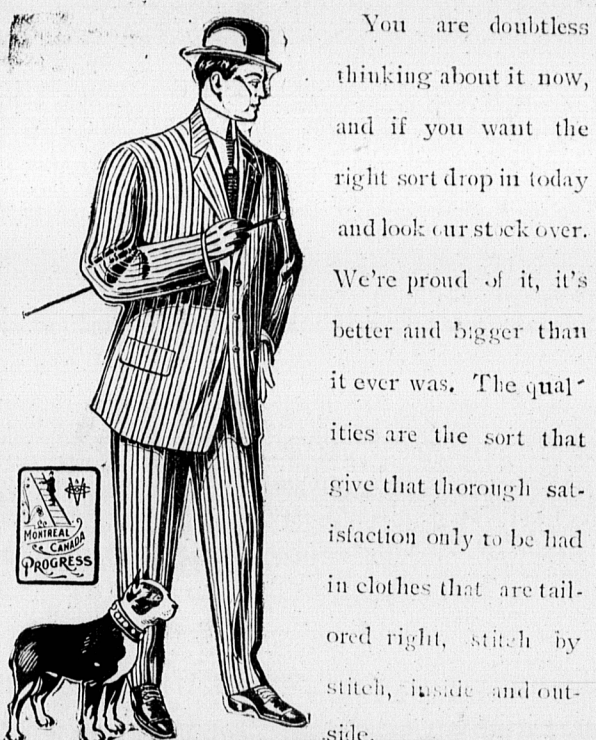

DIED.

SHAW—At DeSable on Sunday morning, February 21st, 1909, Sarah McDonald, beloved wife of Mack Shaw. Funeral today (Tuesday) at 2 p. m. to Argyle Shore Cemetery.

NICHOLSON—At Kinloch on Feb. 22nd, 1909, Mrs. D. A. Nicholson. Funeral tomorrow (Wednesday) Feb. 24 at 2 p. m. to Belfast Cemetery.

HUTCHESON—At Central, Lot 16, on Saturday, February 20th, Mrs. D. Hutcheson, aged 82 years.

About your Spring Suit

You are doubtless thinking about it now, and if you want the right sort drop in today and look our stock over. We're proud of it, it's better and bigger than it ever was. The qualities are the sort that give that thorough satisfaction only to be had in clothes that are tailored right, stitch by stitch, inside and outside.

Just now we are showing two special assortments

Men's Suits at $12.75

Made of a fine quality of tweeds and fancy worsteds, not cotton mixtures or cotton back cloth, but pure all wool through and through. We tested them, We know.

Men's Suits at $14.75

All hand tailored with mere style and snap to them than you'll find in many made-to-order suits that cost you twice the above price. Fine blacks and blues, as well as some mighty neat patterns in fancy tweeds and worsteds.

Extensive Showing of Spring Hats for your inspection

Never before have you seen as much coloring shown in fashionable head wear as show for this season. Like the clothing shown for this spring, the hats are very different from those of former years. This season greens have the call and are the very newest novelty for men; of course some men prefer Brown, but the shades are so pronounced from those you have seen, and the trimmings so far from what you look for season ago.

You must use care in selecting your Topper for spring. Here you will find some of the smartest blocks trimmed in becoming shades, and the prices modest.

Christy's—$2.00
Hawes'—$3.00
Scott—$4.00

The soft hats range is the most extensive, its' ever been our pleasure to show. Prices $1.00—$3.00

Prowse Bros. Ltd.
CORNER OF BERTOWN'S, BIG DEPARTMENTAL STORE

The Deliciousness

Of our cake cannot be surpassed. You want something nice. Then order some of our Sultana or Nut or Fruit Cake just what you want.

Telephone 211

D. Stewart, ECLIPSE BAKERY Bakes Best Bread

Johnson's Emulsion

Contains pure Norway Cod Liver Oil, pleasantly flavored so that it is easily taken by children.

For coughs, colds and pulmonary troubles it is an excellent remedy.

35 and 50 cents

Johnson & Johnson DRUGGISTS

Pure Olive Oil

Imported direct from France — Guaranteed by French and Canadian Government Analysts as being absolutely pure for medicinal and table use it is unequalled Price 30 & 50 a bottle.

"THE TWO MAGS" DRUGGISTS,

Now is the time to have your Sewing Machine, Organ, Or Gramophone

made as good as new, by sending it to the Music Store, 117 Queen Street, where it will receive prompt attention, workmanship guaranteed, and prices reasonable

A. E. TOOMBS, dtstrufft 177 Queen St.

The busiest store on Charlottetown's Busiest Street
Moore & McLeod
Open 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 23rd, 1909

To-day==starts the sale of Wall Paper Remnants

NO NEED FOR a lengthy story about this great sale—you all know it is an annual occurrence that means a great saving for wise housekeepers.

Every bin in the stock room has been cleaned, all patterns of which we have but limited quantity in stock have been cancelled from our samples. We have wrapped up all these small lots in parcels—in each case enough to do an average room—added border to match—and offer

HALF PRICE.

Papers for kitchens—bedrooms—halls—drawing rooms—any room in the house. The patterns are shown on outside of each bundle—please do not ask the salesman to remove rolls.

Special offer in gowns $1.19

On a long table on the second floor is arranged this tempting bargain for you—Dainty Gowns—prettily made, nicely trimmed—a very special line including perhaps a dozen different designs, that at our White Goods sale figures sold to 1.45.

We have taken the broken lots and offer them at

$1.19

See our offer in Corset Covers—Dainty goods of pretty design ..... 35c

Bargain in Petticoats 98c

Another bargain that will please you is the Line of Petticoats—cancelled from our regular showing. These garments are perfectly fresh and new—about eight or ten different models, White Goods Prices on them ran to $1.25.

We have taken the broken lots out and offer you at

98c

have a line of Drawers on the tables—Fine Goods cut to ..... 42c

Hemming Free

All sheets—pillow cases—better grades of table linens will be hemmed free on application to the salesman in the Linen department. We offer you not only the best range of Sheetings and Linens in the city.—Not only the closest prices—but to every purchaser the great advantage of time and labour saving in having the hemming and stitching all done free.