COOPER-McKAY WEDDING—A quiet home wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Allen B. Gibson, Melrose, Mass., on Tuesday evening, September 26th, when their niece, Miss Mary Willena McKay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. N. McKay, Murray Harbor, North, P. E. I., was united in marriage to Carl Curtis Cooper, son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Cooper, Malden, Mass. The ceremony was witnessed by only the immediate families and was performed by the Rev. Thomas Sims, pastor of the First Congregational Church of Melrose. The wedding march was played by Miss Olive G. Danford, cousin of the bride, and the double ring service being used. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Annie Myrtle McKay, and the groom by his cousin, Stanley Cooper, of Malden, Mass. The bride was attired in white pussy willow taffeta with Egyptian tulle over dress, and embroidered veil. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and bride's roses. The maid of honor wore Nile green taffeta with silver trimmings and carried Ophele's roses. A reception, which time refreshments were served. One very pleasant feature of the evening was the presence of the bride's mother and youngest sister, Miss Hazel, from P. E. Island, together with guests from Melrose, Malden, Everett, Rollinsdale, Lexington and Philadelphia. Telegrams of congratulations were received during the evening from New Hampshire, and the York and Atlantic Ga. Many beautiful presents, including several cheques, were received. Following a honeymoon of two weeks through Maine, Mr. and Mrs. Cooper will reside at their new home, 41 Gleason St., West, Medford, Mass.

ORANGEMEN TO ATTEND SERVICE—Rev. D. McLean will preach to the Orangemen in Church of Scotland at Churchill on Sunday afternoon at 2.30 to which all the sister lodges are invited. The procession will be for charitable purposes. The orangemen are asked to meet at the corner at two o'clock. By order of Hamilton Lodge.

AUTOMOBILE CASE—The case of Peter Brodie, against W. S. Grant for running an automobile on the Duggan Road on Tuesday August 29th was continued before Stipendiary Sheriff Monday last. Mr. J. J. Johnston acted for the prosecution. Lieut. Colonel J. R. Allan gave evidence as to the hiring of the car for the purpose of going to Montserrat and Souris in connection to orders received by him from Divisional Headquarters of this military district. The Colonel stated that he was acting in conjunction with Lieut. T. W. Morris and Capt. W. E. Hardy, of the 22nd Regiment. He deposed that he acted in good faith in the matter and what was done was, he considered, his positive military duty and the best way of carrying out his orders. It was no joy ride or pleasure trip as far as he was concerned. The case was adjourned for one week for further consideration.

APPRECIATION—The Bazaar held during Exhibition week in aid of St. Joseph's Convent was a decided success. The sisters of the Convent and the ladies of the sodality sincerely thank all who sent in donations of kindly help in any way. A word of praise is due the members of the Fourth Regiment Band for their courtesy in discoursing excellent music which added so much to the enjoyment of the evening. The names of the lucky winners are: Mrs. Helen Macdonald, brooch; Mr. John Bradley, Hillsborough St., table scarf (bonnet lace); Miss Ada Gillan, woolen shawl; Mr. Romaine Gallant, velvet cushion; Mr. J. J. Collins, Detroit, table cloth (Mexican work); Miss M. A. Monaghan, statue of the Sacred Heart; Reverend F. McQuaid, embroidered cushion; silk quilt, Sister St. Helen of the Rosary; Rabbit, Mrs. H. McKenzie. 2403.

IN METHODIST CIRCLES—A writer to the Wesleyan thus notices the opening of the pastoral and church work of the Rev. H. E. Thomas at Sackville: "The preacher has recently returned from active service as chaplain of the E. E. F. and now has charge of this circuit—than whom perhaps no more worthy successor to Dr. Bond could be found in any of the conferences of our church. As a preacher, Mr. Thomas does not deal in the crude speculations of unsettle minds; but in the blind certitude of Christianity, he could the fathers and maidens in the many Christian homes of the maritime provinces have listened to his discourses on that Sabbath morning from the words of the great apostle: 'I know whom I have believed,' etc., a deep feeling of thankfulness and hope would have filled their breasts." As a preacher, pastor and teacher for the young, Mr. Thomas seems to appreciate very closely to the ideal of what a Christian minister should be. Of Rev. Howard Sprague, D. D., who now lies sick in his home, he says: "For many years he has been a tower of strength in the principal pulpits of the N. B. and P. E. I. conference. He is in extreme weakness with little hope of his returning to the active service of the church. His preaching and teaching through the years has inspired the church as preacher and professor, has inspired those who have come under his influence with lofty ideals, and strong convictions of duty preached, pastor and teacher for the

The choir of St. James' church will meet for practice tonight at 8.45.

FORMER ISLANDER—At the convocation exercises of Montreal Presbyterian College on Oct. 3, Prof. D. I. Fraser, was installed in the presidency of the college by the presbytery of Montreal, by authority of the General Assembly.

MR. W. B. DYER—His friends in the Province will greatly regret the passing of Mr. W. B. Dyer, formerly of Alberton, and in recent years a resident of England, passed away in London on the 12th August. Suffering severely from a heart ailment, he was taken to a hospital in which he underwent an operation. At first it seemed probable that the operation would be successful. But a sudden change, probably resulting from failure of the heart, ensued, and his spirit departed for the world beyond the vale. Mr. Dyer was while here known as an efficient chemist and druggist, and a man of business ability and high character. His widow will have the sympathy of her many friends in the Province and City.

BRADALBANE NOTES—Mr. Rod McKay has returned home after attending the exhibition. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Drummond, Preptown, have returned home after attending the exhibition, also visiting friends in Bradalbane. Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Large have returned after spending a well-earned vacation in New York. Among those attending the exhibition were the Misses Margaret and Addie Biggar. Mr. D. N. Maheson has accepted a position on the P. E. I. Railway at "Water River"; his many friends wish him success. Mr. P. E. Murray has returned to Bideford after visiting his home in Bradalbane. Mr. Warren Houston-Mayfield has returned home after visiting friends in Bradalbane. The many friends of the Misses Mabel and Katie McLeod are pleased to see them home again. Miss Julia Graham, recently of Kensington, has returned home after spending the week-end at her home in Bradalbane. Among the visitors to Bradalbane recently were Mr. Hiram Thompson, Margate, Mr. Wm. and Fred Warren, Clinton.

We've a Suit for your boy $6.50

This six-fifty suit that is referred to above is well worthy of a visit—a d we're taking this means of inviting you to see the suits.

They are made of a good weight of tawed. The colors are brown—and a dark green effect. The coats are smartly tailored Norfolk—the knickerbockers are thoroughly well made, and have the "GOVERNOR" fastener at the knee—this is a feature that all boys want.

We bought a lot of this suit—got it right and we are able to sell it right. We regard it as a mighty good value at..... 6.50

A word of praise is due the members of the Fourth Regiment Band for their courtesy in discoursing excellent music which added so much to the enjoyment of the evening. The names of the lucky winners are: Mrs. Helen Macdonald, brooch; Mr. John Bradley, Hillsborough St., table scarf (bonnet lace); Miss Ada Gillan, woolen shawl; Mr. Romaine Gallant, velvet cushion; Mr. J. J. Collins, Detroit, table cloth (Mexican work); Miss M. A. Monaghan, statue of the Sacred Heart; Reverend F. McQuaid, embroidered cushion; silk quilt, Sister St. Helen of the Rosary; Rabbit, Mrs. H. McKenzie. 2403.

IN METHODIST CIRCLES—A writer to the Wesleyan thus notices the opening of the pastoral and church work of the Rev. H. E. Thomas at Sackville: "The preacher has recently returned from active service as chaplain of the E. E. F. and now has charge of this circuit—than whom perhaps no more worthy successor to Dr. Bond could be found in any of the conferences of our church. As a preacher, Mr. Thomas does not deal in the crude speculations of unsettle minds; but in the blind certitude of Christianity, he could the fathers and maidens in the many Christian homes of the maritime provinces have listened to his discourses on that Sabbath morning from the words of the great apostle: 'I know whom I have believed,' etc., a deep feeling of thankfulness and hope would have filled their breasts." As a preacher, pastor and teacher for the young, Mr. Thomas seems to appreciate very closely to the ideal of what a Christian minister should be. Of Rev. Howard Sprague, D. D., who now lies sick in his home, he says: "For many years he has been a tower of strength in the principal pulpits of the N. B. and P. E. I. conference. He is in extreme weakness with little hope of his returning to the active service of the church. His preaching and teaching through the years has inspired the church as preacher and professor, has inspired those who have come under his influence with lofty ideals, and strong convictions of duty preached, pastor and teacher for the APPRECIATION—The Bazaar held during Exhibition week in aid of St. Joseph's Convent was a decided success. The sisters of the Convent and the ladies of the sodality sincerely thank all who sent in donations of kindly help in any way.
