He is now branch manager of the Sun Life Assurance Company at Newark.

—INJURED IN FALL — Many friends in Summerside and other parts of the province will learn with regret that Mrs. A. J. Phillips of Brackley met with a regrettable accident last Tuesday. Mrs. Phillips who is over seventy was about her household duties when she slipped and fell, dislocating her hip. Mrs. Phillips is resting as well as can be expected, but the injury will keep her confined to her bed for some time. Her many friends trust she will in time have a complete recovery and be as well and active as ever. Her daughter Mrs. Woodside of the Granville House, Summerside, motored to see her mother on Wednesday and found her quite cheerful although suffering a good deal.—S

On Friday evening, August 12th, a number of friends and neighbors assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Whitehead, Clinton, to express to their daughter Grace, their sincere regret at her departure from among them also to extend to her the best of wishes and good luck. Mr. Ernest Pickering who was appointed chairman explained the object of their presence and then called upon Miss Elva Pickering to read a short address. The presentation of a beautiful toilet set to Miss Whitehead was made by Miss Lorna Warren. Miss Whitehead graciously thanked the donors, for their expressions of kindness. A dainty lunch was served and the remainder of the evening was spent in music etc.

T. C. Edgett, 59, native of Moncton, N. B., but for the last [illegible] years or more a resident of this city, died at his home North River Road last night. He had been ill and confined to bed since last February, though lately his condition seemed improved. Shortly before his death, he stated he was feeling much better and thought he would get up, and his death came as a great shock to his family and friends.

He first came to this province in the employ of the Imperial Tobacco Company, but shortly after his retirement from this concern, purchased a farm on North River Road on the outskirts of Charlottetown. He went in extensively for fox-breeding, and up to the time of his illness had followed this vocation.

He is survived by two sons, Jack and Tom at home; a daughter, Hazel; a brother Fred, of Moncton, and another brother in Vancouver; and a sister in Moncton, whose name could not be learned last night.

Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed, pending arrival from Moncton of his brother, Fred.

CONSIDER BIRD SANCTUARY—R. W. Tufts, migratory birds officer, of Wolfville, N. S., who has been a visitor to this province for the last week, has been investigating the possibility of converting a pond at Dalvay, within the Prince Edward Island National Park area, into a wild bird sanctuary. Mr. Tufts examined the pond with a view of ascertaining the quality and quantity of natural food available for the wild fowl. Already existing in the province is a wild duck sanctuary at Black Pond, near Souris at the eastern end of the province. A number of these ducks take advantage of the sanctuary each year, it is said.

On Friday evening a large number of the friends and neighbours gathered at the home of Mr. Fred Paynter, Mill Valley, to welcome him and his bride to the community. In a few well chosen remarks Mr. J. Albert Walker explained the nature of the gathering and welcomed them to the community. Mrs. John Thompson read an address and Mrs. Robert Hogg presented them with a well filled purse, to which Mr. Paynter fittingly replied.

A dainty lunch was served by the ladies of Mill Valley and Kelvin. Mrs. Albert Campbell, Freetown, and Miss Olive Thompson, Kelvin, were the accompanists for the evening.

Vesey and Mrs. Vesey at York.—Mr. George Watts, York, has sucured a position at the National Park. Mr. Watts is a returned man.—Mr. M. Cedric West, Eldon has returned to Lunenburg to resume his place as manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce. He reports business as slow on his return. While on the Island he was pleased to meet Mr. Noel DeBlois a comrade in arms in France.—Mr. Fred R. Mellish, Union Road, was a visitor to the Provincial Exhibition. —Mayor J. H. Mervyn Essery and Mrs. Essery reached their home at Duval, Sask., and his sister Mrs. J. P. Hepburn, her home in Toronto. They were delighted with their visit to the home land.

Construction of the new ferry terminal at Wood Islands was expected to be well advanced by the end of the season, Hon. P. J. A. Cardin, Federal Minister of Public Works said here last night. He arrived in the Province Saturday night on a short holiday visit accompanied by Mrs. Cardin, Mr. and Mrs. J. Simard, Montreal and Mr. T. T. Lawlor, manager of the Bank of Montreal at Sorel, P. Q., Mr. Cardin's home town, and Mrs. Lawlor.

Plans for the terminal on the mainland, which would be located at Caribou Island, on the Nova Scotia coast, were almost complete, the Federal Minister said. Calls for tenders for the construction of the mainland piers would not be made before the end of three weeks but he did not anticipate it would take much longer to complete plans and specifications.

MR. JAMES BYRNE

The residents of Watervale and surrounding districts were shocked to hear on the afternoon of July 11th, that Mr. James Byrne had departed this life. Although in failing health for some time it was not thought there was any immediate danger of death. However, on the morning of July 11th he took a turn for the worse and at noon his spirit passed to eternity.

He leaves to mourn four sons and two daughters: Joseph and Pius, Boston, Mass., who visited their father shortly before his death; Mrs. James E. Curley, Watervale; George John and Annie at home; also one brother, Michael, Fall River, Mass., and a sister, Mrs. John T. Garland, Tarantum. His wife predeceased him twelve years ago. His funeral took place by motor Hearse to Veron River on July 13th. Although the morning was exceptionally wet a large number of people attended. A high Mass of Requim was sung by Right Rev. Monsigneuar MacDonald who also performed the services at the grave.

HAD LEG BROKEN—Mr. Homer Matheson of Clyde River is in the Prince Edward Island Hospital with a fractured leg received in an accident on the Milton Road Sunday evening. He was driving a bicycle with his brother Eric Matheson on the cross bar when he was struck by a half ton truck driven by Mr. Leslie MacNevin of Argyle Shore, Royal Canadian Mounted Police said. Both men were thrown to the ground but Eric escaped with slight inuries. The accident occurred about 9 P. M. The bicycle was being operated without lights, Police said, adding they were still investigating.

With harvesting operations well under way it was learned that wheat rust was general on most sections of the Province. Other grain crops were good in almost every district it was said. Dr. J. A. Clark, superintendent of the Charlottetown Experimental Farm said cutting had been finished there. Considerable grain had been threshed and the returns had been good. Wheat at the Farm had been of a rust resisting variety and was a good crop. Reports from Illustration Stations scattered in all sections of the Province indicated good grain crops with promise of exceptional yields of turnips and mangles. All grain had been sown early on the Illustration Stations, Dr. Clark said.

—WELCOME VISITORS — Welcome visitors to Summerside last week were Mrs. M. C. Molloy and Mrs. Laura Bouren of Boston, Mass. Rev. A. G. Christopher, Mrs. Christopher and daughter of Holton, Maine, and Mrs. W. R. Keenan of Murray River, Prince Edward Island. The ladies in the party are all daughters of the late John Crozier, who resided in Summerside and brought up his family there. It is the first time that the family have all been together in their old home town for over thirty years. On Sunday they all attended divine service in Trinity Church, where they attended as children. Their mother, Mrs. Crozier is now eighty years of age and lives with her daughter, Mrs. Keenan, at Murray River, and is quite well. She was very happy to have her family with her once again.—S

ALUMNAE TEA—The assembly Hall of St. Mary's Convent, Souris, artistically decorated with cut flowers and potted plants, made a delightful setting for the afternoon tea and annual meeting of St. Mary's Alumnae which was held on Tuesday afternoon, August 16th. The Rev. Sisters of the convent, including visiting sisters, Members of the Alumnae visitors who were former pupils, and the graduating class attended, making it one of the most successful affairs yet undertaken by the Committee. The tea table with its tempting delecacies was effectively adorned with bouquets and lighted yellow tapers. Mrs. Adrian MacInnis, president of the society received the guests at the door and registered the names. Guests were ushered by Mrs. Vincent MacIsaac. Mrs. Patrick St. John, Past President, presided over the tea table, the ladies assisting in serving were, Mrs. Daniel McEachern, Mrs. Alex P. McDonald, Mrs. Howard Paquet, Mrs. Geo Campbell, Mrs St. Clair Paquet and Miss Mary St. John. Excellent music was furnished by Miss Alice LaVie assisted by the graduating class. At the close of the tea hour the annual business meeting was held which opened with prayer by Rev. Mother Superior directress of the Society. A four year resume of the work of the Alumnae since it was organized, was read by the president. Excellent reports were read by the Secretary, Mrs. Alex P. MacDonald and the Treasurer, Mrs. St Clair Paquet, which showed after all financial obligations were paid, a substantial balance was added to the Altar fund. Election of officers by ballot for the ensuing year took place which resulted as follows: President, Mrs. Alex P. McDonald. First Vice, Mrs. St. Clair Paquet. Second Vice, Mrs Val MacDonald. Third Vice, Miss Mary St. John. Treasurer, Mrs Vincent McIsaac Secretary, Miss Marion Conway. Councillors, Mrs. A. MacInnis, Mrs R. St John, Mrs. Josephine McEachern, Mrs. Geo. Campbell and Miss M. ENJOYING HOLIDAY — The charm of P. E. I. lured Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Dickerson from New York City to P. E. Island again this year. With them is their daughter Vivian (aged 9) and Mr. Piementel a boxer and former Welter-weight champion of the Metroplitan District. After staying two weeks at Mrs. Publicover's Ocean View Inn at North Rustico, they are leaving Saturday for New York.

Fire in a building on Great George Street, owned by Mr. L. P. Tanton, caused several hundred dollars damage early this morning. The blaze, at the rear of the building which houses the City News Store, was discovered by a member of the Guardian Office staff shortly before 3 o'clock, as he was returning home from work. With two other members of the staff he assisted in rousing the occupants of an apartment on the second floor. The rooms were filled with dense smoke and some of the half dazed people were roused and persuaded to leave the building only with difficulty.

Firemen laid two lines of hose and within a short time had the fire under control. The blaze was confined to the rear of the building and apparently started on the ground floor.

One half of the building is unoccupied and formerly housed the Vendor store.

Origin of the fire was unknown, at the time of writing. It was not known if there was any insurance.

—W. C. T. U. MEET—The annual meeting of the W. C. T. U. of Prince County was held on the shore at the summer cottage of Mrs. Harrison MacFarlane, Bedeque on Monday. There was a good representation from Summerside, Bedeque and Freetown. Mrs. MacFarlane presided and called on Mrs. Trueman to conduct the devotional period. Encouraging reports were given from each society on their year's work. Thirteen schools received prizes for the temperance educational essays. Mrs. George Pickering reported on her work of the Travellers Aid. Mrs. Parker read the scripture lesson Mrs. Profitt read a paper stressing the necessity of earnest work as well as prayer in the temperance cause. Mrs. Linkletter gave a paper on temperance. Mrs. Profitt, Mrs. Henderson and Mrs. T. M. Linkletter were appointed as a committee to bring in resolutions at the Provincial meeting to be held this year at Bedeque. Mrs. (Rev.) Barker read a very interesting paper on temperance, during the hour before refreshments were served. The officers for the year are, President, Mrs. Harrison MacFarlane; Vice President, Mrs. Deacon; Treasurer, Mrs. John Frizzell; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Archie Sharp. Afternoon tea was served by the hostess.—S.

CROKEN-TRAINOR NUPTIALS —A very pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Joseph's Church, Kelly's Cross, when Eleanor Gertrude, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Trainor, South Melville, became the bride of Mr. Walter Croken, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Croken, Summerfield. The nuptial mass was celebrated by the pastor, Rev. Wm. McCabe. Appropriate hymns were rendered by girl friends of the bride during the ceremony. The bride, given in marriage by her father was charmingly attired in a floor length dress of white crepe back satin, princess style, with Venetian veil caught with a halo of orange blossoms. She was attended by her sister, Miss Vera Trainor who wore a gown of shell pink crepe with aqua picture hat. The groom was supported by Mr. Charles Deighan. After the ceremony a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride, attended by Rev. Fr. McCabe, P. P., and immediate relatives of the bride and groom. Later the happy couple left on a short trip through the Maritimes. For travelling the bride wore a dress of dove grey with navy accessories. Previous to her marriage the bride was tendered a shower at her home at which she received many beautiful and costly gifts. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Croken will reside in Summerfield and their numerous friends wish them many years of happy wedded bliss.

FUNERAL SERVICES—The funeral of Mr. R. E. Faquharson was held yesterday afternoon from his late residence, 145 King Street, service at the home and grave being conducted by Rev. Mr. Tilley. The pall bearers were Messrs. Neil Robinson, Stanley Matheson, Herb Mason, Wm. McMillan, W. Chester S. McLure and H. H. Horne. Interment was in the People's Cemetery.

MRS. MARY SHEEHAN

The death occurred at St. Josephs Hospital, Lowell, Mass., June 15th, of Mrs. Mary Sheehan of 11 Stevens Street, resulting from injuries received in an automoble accident. The late Mrs. Sheehan had a large number of relatives and a host of acquaintenances in the province who will be grived to learn of her death, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Brogan, Fort Augustus. She spent the greater part of her life in the United States. The late Mrs. Sheehan visited her old home last summer and previous to the fatal accident resulting in her death was making arrangements for a visit this year.

THURSDAY

MRS. SELDON DRAKE

The Community of St. Peters Harbour and the surrounding district were shocked to hear of the sudden death of Laura Drake wife of Seldon Drake, who died on August 12th, after a short time of illness. She was 23-years of age and her passing so early in life leaves a vacancy that cannot be filled.

AT LAST LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL—It is interesting to note that there is at present in the City Mr. Daniel MacRae, California, one of the few surviving links between the now extinct Legislative Council and the present Legislative Assembly. Mr. MacRae was one of the last official messengers of the Council at the time of its abolition, 40 years ago. Now retired from active business, Mr. MacRae's last visit to the Province was in 1934.

—GIVEN 12 MONTHS — John Gorman of Carleton was sentenced by Magistrate W. E. Darby to one year in the Prince County Jail for breaking and entering the store of Doull Bros., Carleton, and stealing a quantity of goods to the value of 15 dollars. Gorman pleaded guilty to breaking the lock off the door and gaining entrance to the store, in the early hours of Sunday morning. He smashed the combination of the safe but was unable to force the lock. The case was brought by the R. C. M. P.—S

INJURED IN ACCIDENT—Wendell MacKinnon, 6-year-old Winsloe child is in the Prince Edward Island Hospital with injuries received in an accident on the Malpeque Road near his home yesterday afternoon. He was knocked down by a truck driven by Mr. Revel J. Clarke of Freeland, police were informed. The child ran from a parked car as the truck driver pulled off to pass, it was said, and was struck by the truck fender. The driver had blown the horn prior to pulling out to pass the standing machine. The boy was taken to the Prince Edward Island Hospital but it was not considered his injuries were serious. No bones were broken.

—DEATH OF MRS. ANNIE MCCAULL—There passed away on Tuesday morning at the home of her son, Mr. Vaughan McCaull, Freetown, Mrs. Annie McCaull, widow of the late William McCaull, who predeceased her a few years ago. Mrs. McCaull was 84 years of age and was a Miss Lewis of Freetown. She was a woman of very fine qualities of heart and mind and had many friends who will regret to learn of her passing. She leaves to mourn four sons, Harland in western Canada; Ward and Louis of Boston, Mass.; and Vaughan on the homestead. Also one brother, William Lewis, the last remaining member of a large family. Much sympathy is extended to the bereaved. S.

James Hashard, member of the crew of the Canadian Government Steamship Arleux, was in Prince County Hospital last night recovering from severe burns on his face and hands, as a result of a fire on the Arleux at Summerside early yesterday morning. Another member of the crew suffered cuts from flying glass, and was given medical treatment on board. He was not seriously injured.

Little damage, except to painted parts, was reported from the blaze, which was said to have been caused from ignition of gasoline fumes which exploded when a seaman, carrying a lighted oil lantern, was drawing some gasoline from the ship's motor launch which was to have made a patrol trip off the harbor.

The flames spread rapidly along the metal decks of the Governmen boat, blazing as high as the masts at times, it was reported. Firemen soon had the fire under control, and Captain Swansburg of the Arleux said there was plenty of paint aboard and the damage soon would be repaired.

HOLD ENJOYABLE RE-UNION —Members of the 2nd Overseas seige battery held their annual re-union at Charlottetown yesterday. In the afternoon former comrades gathered at the summer cottage of Dr. B. C. Keeping at Brighton Shore while in the evening a dinner was held at the Armouries. At a business session Mr. E. M. MacNevin was elected president of the organized comrades while Mr. George Sherren was made vice-president and Mr. Windsor Campbell, secretary. Members of the executive committee include, Messrs Harold Moore, Rex Kielly, James Leightizer all of Charlottetown and Norman Howell, Moncton. Dr. Keeping is past president. Out of the Province guests at yesterday's re-union included, Archie Potter, Springhill, N. S., Roy MacKay, Boston Mass., and Norman Howell, Moncton, N. B. The dinner was presided over by the president-elect. An impromptu program was carried out with Mr. Jack Sterns master of ceremonies. Mr. Leigh Dingwell rendered very delightful vocal solos with Lt.-Col. P. S. Fielding as accompanist. Other comrades contributed stories and all entered heartily into a sing song.

The opening session of the 16th annual diocesan convention of the Catholic Women's League was held last night in St. Dunstan's University Hall. The playing of O Canada by Miss Kathleen Hornby's Orchestra was followed by opening remarks by Mrs. Frank Murray, Charlottetown, president of the local sub-division of the organization, who presided at last night's meeting.

Welcome to delegates and visitors was extended by Rev. J. A. Murphy, D. D., Rector of St. Dunstan's University.

GARDEN PARTY—The Executive of the Women's Liberal Club entertained in honor of Mrs. Dunning, wife of Hon. Charles A. Dunning, Federal Minister of Finance, at a garden party at the home of the President, Mrs. Reuben MacDonald on Tuesday. A large number of guests from Charlottetown, Summerside and other parts of the province were present. They were welcomed by the President and introduced to the guest of honour. Mrs. J. J. Larabee and Mrs. J. Lester Douglas poured tea. Mrs. Mark R. MacGuigan, Mrs. D. J. Riley, Mrs. J. C. Stewart, Mrs. Neil Matheson, Mrs. Arthur Roper, Misses Helen Lawson, Alfreda Pickard, Margaret Prowse, Jean MacDonald and Doris MacDonald assisted in serving. There was ideal weather for the enjoyable function.

A pretty wedding was solemnized yesterday morning with Nuptial Mass in St. Dunstan's Basilica, when Catherine Bernadette MacMillan became the wife of Charles St. Clair Trainor.

The bride is the daughter of Hon. Dr. W. J. P. MacMillan, a former Premier of Prince Edward Island, and Mrs. MacMillan, while the groom, barrister-at-law, and a member of the Provincial Legislature, is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Francis Trainor, of Albany, P. E. I.

The ceremony was performed and Nuptial Mass celebrated by Rev. R. J. MacDonald, of St. Columba Church, East Point, cousin of the bride. The following clergymen were in the sanctuary: Rev. Dr. J. A. Murphy, Rector of St. Dunstan's University; Rev. F. L. Mullally, Sturgeon; Rev. Basil Croken, St. Teresa's, Rev. Frederick Cass, St. Dunstan's University; Rev. Louis Dougan and Rev. P. MacMahon, D. D., of the Basilica staff. The acolytes serving the Mass were Harold Wood and Albert Steele.

—BIRTHDAY PARTY—A number of friends and relatives gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Brenton Waugh, Wilmot Valley, recently to wish Mrs. Waugh's father, Mr. Gordon Huestis many happy returns of his 79th birthday. Mr. Huestis came of Empire Loyalists stock as did so many of the old families round Wilmot. This fact was noted by Mr. Herbert Huestis, O'Leary, who was chairman on this auspicious occasion. Impromptu speeches were made in which the many fine qualities of Mr. Huestis and his family were expressed in eloquent terms. Wendell Huestis and Gordon Huestis, Jr., made presentations on behalf of the family and besides these gifts there were several individual gifts from friends. A general sing song, and solos by Mrs. A. N. Simpson who sang a very pleasing original number, made the time pass pleasantly. Refreshments were served by the hostesses assisted by members of the family. Among the guests were Mrs. Herbert Huestis and Mrs. Arnold Lefurgey, Tryon. S.

Mr. F. J. Holman, president of the Charlottetown Y's Men's Club accompanied by Messrs. Claude Smith Ernest V. Bell and Dr. McLaughlan, all members of the local club have returned from Toronto where they attended the international Y's Men's Convention last week. The party travelled by motor.

At the annual meeting Mr. Smith presented the Public Affairs Trophy to a club from Milwaukee. Mr. Smith with a Y's Man from California was on a committee which conducted the contest. The award went to the club which presented the best account of its work in public affairs for three months.

New Regional Director for eastern Canada was Mr. A. Fitzsimmons of Sherbrooke, it was announced.

The Charlottetown club largest representation of any of the Maritime Clubs at the convention which was the 16th international. Next year's meeting will be at Chicago. Included in the Maritime delegation was district governor Burton Davies of Moncton. Delegates attended from all the states of the American Union, the Provinces of Canada, Mexico, Honolulu and Australia, about 300 in all.

MRS. T. J. HARRIS

The death occurred in Parrsboro, N. S., yesterday forenoon of Jessie Henrietta Harris, widow of the late Mr. T. J. Harris, at one time proprietor of the London House of Charlottetown.

Mrs. Harris who had been residing with her son, Mr. James E. Harris of this city, left about three weeks ago on a visit to her other son, Rev. Charles R. Harris, rector of the Anglican Church at Parrsboro. Although 81 years of age, she was apparently in good health when she left Charlottetown, and the news of her sudden death comes as a great shock to relatives and friends.

Mrs. Harris was a daughter of the late Mr. James Douglas Haszard, formerly King's Printer of this province. She was a most estimable Christian woman, a devoted member of St. Peter's Cathedral in this city and took an active part in the work of the Women's Auxiliary Society.

She leaves to mourn two sons, Rev. Charles R. Harris and James E. Harris.

Mr. Louis A. Haszard of Charlottetown, and his brother, Harry in the United States are nephews.

She was the last surviving member of her family, a sister, Mrs. C. H. Robinson of Charlottetown, passing away a year ago.
