One Dose

Often a single dose of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral at bedtime will completely control the night coughs of children. It is a strong medicine, a doctor's medicine, entirely free from alcohol. Made only for diseases of the throat, bronchial tubes, and lungs. Full formula on each label.

Ask your doctor to tell you, honestly and frankly, just what he thinks of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Then do as he says.

A recent issue of the Montreal Herald contains a lengthy illustrated Peace River. An earlier issue of the article on exploringthe canyon of the Herald had contained the statement that the canyon had not been exploring, which brought an old friend of many rearders of the Guardian Fred deC. Davies, fomerly of this City to the front. It appears that Mr. Davies with a psrty of surveyors in the year 1903, thoroughly exploreded the canyon of the Peace River and he describes the trip in an plored the cayon of the Peace River, and he describes the trip in an article which may shortly be reproduced in these colums.

At the annual meeting of Worth's Band held during this week, the secretary's report showed that the past year was the best in the history of the band. The instruments are all in good condition and the new uniforms all paid for out of the band earnings during the past year. Major Galbraith has been secured for instruttor for the ensuing year, and he is well known as a good instructor. The officers are Bandmaster, Lemuel Worth: President, Thomas Riggs: Sec'y and TreasurerH. M. Seller. It may be metioned that this band played during the summer for the public concerts in Queen Square.

A pretty wedding took place at Moncton, Dec. 27, when Winnifred, daughter of Thomas Williams, late treasurer I. C. R. and at one time on the P. E. I. R. in this city, was united in marriage with T. Remsen Crawford, of Georgia. The officiating clergyman was Rev. J. Eastburn,ei Brown, rector of St.Paul's Church. The house had been prettily decorated for the occasion in holly and fir with carnations and crysanthemums After the ceremony a dainty luncheon was partaken of by the family and the invited guests, and the young couple left on the C. P. R. for New York and Savannah en route for Oak Hall, near Appling, Ga., a plantation bequeathed to the groom by an aunt recently deceased, where they will reside. the groom has been engaged in journalistic work for the New York Herald and World and has also been a frequent contributor to the magazines. The best wishes of a host of friends follow the bride to the new home.— The bride is well known in this city having visited here many times.

At Charlottetown, the officers of St. John's and Victoria Lodges were installed by M. W. P. G. M. S. W. Crabbe, assisted by P. M., G. W. Wakeford, and M. W. P. G. M., T. A. Cossman of Halifax.

The Guardian has received from the Canada Paper Co, Ltd., Montreal, one of their desk calendars for 1908. The tablets contain a space for each day of the year, together with other useful informaton.

The many friends of Webb Stanley City, will regret to hear that he yesterday entered the Prince Edward Island Hospital, suffering from an attack of appendicitis. Last night Mr. Stanley was resting easily.

The offisers of Mount Zion, at Kensington, were installed by the M. W. P. G. M., D, Darrach. After installation the brethren attended public worship in the Episcopal Church, where an able sermon was preached.

At Alberton the members of Zetland held a public dinner after their installation, Grand Chaplain Fullerton being present. At Summerside and in most of the other lodges the brethren haf a dinner after the installation.

Hon. Mathew Smith, of Hampton, was in the City yesterday.

A very prettily designed calendar with a novel background, on which is mounted a most artistic landscape entitled Spring in the Berkshires, comes to The Guardian from A. P. Thorne, agent in this province for Francis Drake, New Glasgow, N. S., manufacturer of carbonated beverages.

James Kerr MacNaughton, of CharlottetoRn, was groomsman Tuesday last at the wedding of his brother, Dr. Geo. Kerr MacNaughron of Cumberland, Vancouver, to Miss Mary Darling Longhead, of Montreal. A. Burnet McKinnon, of Chatham, cousin of the groom was one of the ushers. The wedding took place at 6.30 in St. Gabriel's Presbyterian church, Montreal.

The Nickel put on five elegant pictures to crowded houses last night and ser[i]ion of which appeared in yesterday morning's paper. The illustrated song by Mr Murley and the song at intermission by A. Buchanan were heartily received. On Monday night A. Buchanan will sing "Neath the Old Acorn Tree Sweet Estelle" and H. Murley will sing "When the evening breeze is signing 'Home Sweet Home,'" during the intermission. There will be an entirechange of program.

The January term of the Supreme Court of Queen's County, opens in this City on Tuesday, the 14th inst.

The Local Legislature will be called for the despatch of business next month, probably between the fifth and fifteenth of the month.

The death occurred at his home, Grafton Street, suddenly last night, of John McSwain, a well known citizen, formerly a resident of West River.

Ice is becoming strong in the City docks and extending outwards to the channel. If the temperature takes a dip towards zero it will close the gap in the harbor,

The Stanley will take away from this port to Pictou this morning, 2 cars smelts, 2 cars oats. 1 car hogs, 1 car hides, 1 car way freight and two horses. This cargo fills the steamer up, two cars of hay being left behind.

Sergeant Archibald Watkins of Captain Mellish's company and Corp. Crockett of Capt. Hardy's company, City, left yesterday by the Minto to take three months course of instruction in the military school at Halifax.

Arthur Worth, Lawrence Kelly, Harry Wonacott. Arthur Vinnicombe City, were passengers yesterday morning from Summerside. On New Year's evening they held a very enjoyable dance at George Clayton's, Summerside.

It is very probable that before the lapse of many days telephone communication with Summerside will be conducted over a metallic circuit, which will entirely overcome the unpleasant buzzing now so apparent when using the line after the shades of evening fall.

The coldest temperture registered in Charlottetown on Thursday night was 8 above zero; the warmest registered yesterday was 16 above, and at 8 o'clock last night it was 13 above zero. The Guardian is indebted for its temperature readings each day, to Arthur Newbury, the Dominion meteorologist in this City.

The I. O. G. T. of this City held an enjoyable At Home in Castle hall last evening. A pleasing program with inspiring addresses by Revs. Mr. Marshall, Mr. Thomas and Mr. McLean, was followed by delightful refreshments partaken of amid a great deal of mirth, after which a number of games were taken part in before the enjoyable evening was brought to a close.

An enjoyable Christmas concert was given by the children of St. Paul's Sunday School last evening. The goodly number present were delighted with the choruses, drills, songs and instrumental music furnished by the little ones. The old-fashioned album was a pleasing event, and was most interesting while the drills and choruses showed the excellent training they had received. Rev. Mr. Woodroofe presided.

The new program of motion pictures at Wonderland last night met with a cordial reception—the comfortable Hall containing most responsive and happy audiences who were thoroughly pleased with what they saw. The pictures gave good variety, though the comic element predominated, but the result was satisfying and conducive to good humor. The illustrated songs were splendid and the music first class as is everything in connection with Wonderland.

The health of Premier Peters has been causing his friends some concern of late. Mr. Peters has been confined to his home for about a fortnight and has been so ill that he has had to keep his bed for nearly all of that period. The Guardian is glad to announce that yesterday he showed a decided improvement, and his rapid recovery is confidently expected. The Premier contracted a bad cold and being somewhat run down it resulted in a rather severe attack.

Those who attended Fairyland last night certainly had reason to feel satisfied with the generous bill of fare provided. The pictures were leaders in their class, and produced more fun than the usual run. Some very clever work in motion pictures was placed before the spectators. Mr Maddison's song was most enjoyable and the piano, played by Mrs J F Trainor. furnished its share of the evening's pleasure.

The last issued monthly issue of Rod and Gun in Canada has a very complimentary reference to the trip undertaken by Trooper Seller of the Royal North West Mounted Police to the north of Hudson Bay last winter. Leslie Seller is a Charlottetown boy, well known here, and a brother of Mrs. W. B. Prowse. His trip was described, shortly after it took place, in the Magazine Guardian. The press in general throughout Canada consider his achievement a notable instance of bravery and devotion to duty.
