

GUIDE'S BODY IS FOUND

(Continued From Page 1.) discovered the body of the guide. His shout quickly brought the other members of the searching band to the spot and a dramatic scene followed, relatives and friends of the dead man showing their delight in the fact that they were in possession of the body, which they feared would become prey to wild animals should there be a delay in finding it.

First Fatality of Season.

The fatality is the first that has occurred in this State since opening of the hunting season on Oct. 1. There is a law that makes the killing of a person by mistake for a deer punishable, but so far as known no one has ever been convicted under it. A light lost his life, according to a statement made by Dr. Brooks, because of his failure to observe a pre-arranged signal—a whistle—when either of them saw a deer. While hunting through the woods Dr. Brooks saw a dark object in the bushes and gave the signal. Getting no response he discharged his rifle and felled the object, when he reached the spot he saw, to his great sorrow, that instead of being the possessor of a deer he had killed his guide and only companion in the hunt.

Immediately he did everything within the knowledge of surgery to save the man's life, but his efforts were unavailing. When Hight's life was extinct Dr. Brooks returned to the camp to summons aid to carry the body to town. In his excitement he had not taken much note of the place where he left the corpse, and the first party that set out failed to find it. It was not until a larger party had scoured the woods for hours that the body was finally located and then seemingly by accident.

Advices from Tripoli says that groups of Turkish soldiers are coming in at various times to surrender. The Arabs, armed at the last moment by the garrison with Mauser rifles, handed by the steamer Derna, are gradually returning to Tripoli, and offering their submission. Their only condition is that the Italian commander purchase their rifles for a few francs, which seems to show that not only are the Arabs, those at least in the vicinity of Tripoli, not ready to fight for Turkey, but also that a condition of starvation prevails among the natives. More than 20,000 of these, it is reported, will be forced by hunger to return to the town.

It is not known how the Turkish soldiers comprising the garrison are off for supplies, but it is believed they are already short. It is possible, however, that they may proceed into the interior for the purpose of arousing the Senousi tribes and have them proclaim a holy war against the invaders. The attitude of the Turkish government with regard to the Italians in the Ottoman empire, is viewed with some concern. The order of expulsion and the abolition of the capitulations, if carried into effect, may be the cause of serious complications. It is expected that Germany, which now has the Italians in Turkey under her protection, would raise an objection to such an action. Various reports are being received of anti-Italian riots, particularly in Salonika, where the Italian consul is said to have been threatened with LONDON, Oct. 9.—It is understood that Turkey's appeal to the Powers is an endeavor to ascertain the terms upon which Italy is willing to conclude peace; and that pending the outcome of these parleys, the decree of expulsion will be withheld. It is stated from Constantinople that Payer Bey is not going to Tripoli as was supposed, to organize an attack upon the Italians, but that he will return to his post in Berlin where he is military attache to the Turkish Embassy. This indicates that the Government is desirous of peace, but there is little hope that any practical basis for the negotiations can be found, as the Porte insists upon the maintenance of the Suzerainty in Tripoli.

In the event of failure of the negotiations, according to a Saloniki despatch Turkey will expel the Italians and impose a general tariff of one hundred per cent on all Italian goods. If these threats are put into execution, Italy will probably carry the war into European and Adriatic Turkey. The report comes from Constantinople that Russia is concentrating troops at Kas and Tiflis, Trans Caucasia.

A despatch received here from American Consulate at Tripoli, John Q. Wood, dated Oct. 9, says:

"I watched the bombardment from the terrace until driven to cover by pieces of falling shells. I am the only American here. The City is quiet." The Chronicle correspondent sends the following: "It is stated that the Government insists on confiscating Russian grain believing that it is destined for the Italians. Many vessels have been shipwrecked in the Smrna Gulf, and elsewhere, thru the extinction of marine light. The German ship Hispania has foundered.

Unless all signs go astray the trial will occupy many weeks. The defence alone will subpoena 350 witnesses. These will come from all parts of the United States, about 150 of them from San Francisco and vicinity. District Attorney Fredericks estimates that the prosecution will summon a similar number, bringing the total up to 700. The cost of service on these witnesses and the expense of bringing them to Los Angeles, probably will make the trial the most expensive that the country has ever known. Mr. Darrow estimates the probable expense of the defence at $480,000, while it is believed it will cost the prosecution not less than $500,000.

The twenty mile bicycle race for the Dunlop trophy will be held on the morning of Thanksgiving Day, October 30, under the auspices of the Every Day Club. The start and finish will be at the Every Day Club's hall in Union street and the races will be to Rothesay and back. The names of the officials and other arrangements for the race will be announced in a few days. Owing to the fact that the Herald and Mail ten mile road race will be run at Halifax on Thanksgiving Day the Every Day Club has decided to abandon their own annual road race in order that their men may compete in the sister city—St. John. NUNS SAVE 250 GIRLS DURING FIRE

WHEELING, W. Va., Oct. 8.—Fire early today destroyed the Home of the Good Shepherd, at Edgington Lake, two miles east of this city, and drove 250 scantily clad girls and nuns into the streets. The blaze is supposed to have been caused by a spark of incense used in benediction in the chapel last evening. The loss will exceed $50,000, and is covered by insurance. The nuns performed many feats of heroism and daring in rushing thru the flames, arousing the girls, and in many instances, carrying and dragging the young ones to safety. Two of the nuns were seriously ill today from the nervous excitement of their work in rescuing their charges.

HAVEN FOR GIRLS

The home is a haven for girls ranging in age from five years upwards. The structure owes of wood and the flames spread with almost incredible rapidity so that the children, when aroused from their sleep, had barely time to escape.

When the fire was discovered, all the girls were asleep in the dormitories. The only ones awake were the watchman and the nuns in charge of the dormitories. As soon as the fire was seen, the signal for the fire drill was given. Under the nuns in charge, the girls in each dormitory formed in line. High on the hill, the building was swept by a strong wind from the west, and it was seen in a few minutes that the structure was doomed.

GOVERNOR GENERAL NOW EN ROUTE

MONTREAL, October 9.—The Montreal Star today publishes the following wireless dispatch:

ON BOARD THE S. S. EMPRESS OF IRELAND, via Main Head, October 9.—Fine weather continues to attend the Duke of Connaught's trip across the Atlantic. The Duke said across the Atlantic. The Duke and his party are proving themselves the best of sailors and are enjoying every minute of the time aboard ship.

The Star's correspondent was granted an informal chat with His Royal Highness yesterday. He found the duke to be most affable and eager to discuss conditions and affairs. His Highness is apparently losing no opportunity to acquaint himself with conditions in the Dominion.

"No; I could not give you an official statement of any kind, as that would be contrary to etiquette, Earl Grey being still in Canada. Official messages can only come from Ottawa. But everybody knows that I am most glad to return to Canada, whose acquaintance I first made forty-two years ago and renewed in the nineties, while on my way to India. I shall be delighted to be in the Dominion once again."

I am officially informed that the winter program of their Royal Highness will include visits to the important cities in eastern Canada. The dates are at present unfixed. I have also been requested to state that the duke is not going up to Montreal on his arrival at Quebec, because he feels that he could not do a visit to that city in the present circumstances of his divided establishment. He will, however, make an official and formal visit to Montreal at the earliest opportunity.

The duke is most popular with the passengers and the staff aboard ship. There is no attempt to isolate him from the other passengers and he is a familiar figure on the promenade deck. PROVINCIAL BLECTION REGARDED AS CERTAIN ST. JOHN, Oct. 9.—Flemming or Hon. W. C. H. Grimmer succeed Hon. J. D. Hazen as provincial premier is a question now much debated. It is pretty generally understood that the members of Hon. Mr. Hazen's cabinet, Hon. Mr. Grimmer included, were all in favor of Hon. Mr. Fleming but that he was not particularly anxious to take up the burdens of the office. If he persists in that view Hon. Mr. Grimmer will be the choice.

It is expected that Hon. Mr. Hazen will return from Ottawa in a few days and that a meeting of the local executive will then be called at Fredericton for a conference with His Honor the Lieutenant Governor. Mr. Hazen will formally tender his resignation and will suggest the name of his successor. The lieutenant-governor is not bound to act on the advice given him by the retiring premier but that is the constitutional course and there is no reason to assume that it will be departed from in this instance.

Whether Mr. Hazen advises Mr. Fleming or Mr. Grimmer depends, as is believed on what Mr. Fleming decides. If he is willing to take up the duties of the premiership he will continue to act as provincial secretary in the cabinet of the new leader. Other changes in the cabinet are the subject of much speculation. It will not be surprising if the new premier decides on an immediate appeal to the electors and the outlook to-day is that before December is over the people of New Brunswick will not only have a new provincial premier but a new provincial legislature as well.
