Is alcohol a tonic? No!
Does it make the blood pure? No!
Does it strengthen the nerves? No!
Is Ayer's Sarsaparilla a tonic? Yes!
Does it make the blood pure? Yes!
Does it strengthen the nerves? Yes!
Is it entirely free from alcohol? Yes!

Ask your doctor if a family medicine, like Ayer's Sarsaparilla, is not really better without alcohol than with it.

THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown.

The latest news, first of all.

There were no cases before the Police Court in this city yesterday.

Rev John and Mrs Sterling, Cavendish, were in Montreal recently registering at the Queen's Hotel.

Miss Gertrude Davies of Ottawa, and Miss Constance Fitzgerald, of Charlottetown, have gone on a trip to Bermuda.

Rev. Hugh Miller, Cornwall, in writing, the Wesleyan reports progress in all branches of the church work for the past year.

Rev. J. B. Champion, Silver Falls, N. B., formerly of this Province, received seven persons into full membership in his church recently.

Hazard, Gaudet and Hazard are advertising elsewhere in this issue twelve acres of land for sale in practically part of the estate of the late Thomas Handaban.

The City of Ghent left Halifax yesterday on her first trip this season, and, after calling at several ports along the coast, in the Gut of Canso, and also Pictou, will arrive here tomorrow.

The schooner Sir Wilfrid is being loaded with oats by Carvell Bros, City, and will probably leave this morning for Pictou. The Edwin Crozier, loaded by the same firm, sailed on Friday for Pictou with a full cargo of oats.

It is the stores now occupied by Messrs Beer & Goff and Moore & McLeod that form part of the heard property to be sold by auction, and referred to in yesterday's Guardian. Morris & Smith's store is but part of the boundary line.

The following transfers have been made of Methodist ministers known in this Province: Rev. J. L. Batt, from N. S. to N. B. and P. E. I.; Rev. W. F. Gaetz, do; Rev. C. H. Johnson, Nova Scotia, to Alberta; Rev. J. W. McConnell, N. B. and P. E. I., to Nova Scotia.

W. S. Grant, General Manager, E. C. Whitlock, Divisional Superintendent, and M. Forsythe, and George Brady, all of the P. E. Island Telephone Company, City, left yesterday morning for Summerside where they will proceed with the installation of the battery call system, (that now in use in this city) in place of the bell call now used in Summerside.

The death occurred at the home of her mother, Mrs Patrick Morgan, City, on Sunday of Lucy Morgan at the early age of twenty-six years. Miss Morgan was a girl of lovely character, dearly beloved by friends and relatives and her death, the result of a short illness, leaves a blank in the home which never can be filled. Besides a sorrowing mother, five sisters and four brothers are left to cherish her memory.

The following letter of condolence has been forwarded by Mrs. Howard Weeks, N. S. J. Murray and Hilda B. Weeks to Miss F. Jessie Good, Winsloe, on behalf of the members of the Refuge Division, S. O. T., Fredericton: Since you last met with us, the angel of death has again visited you, and deprived you of a kind and loving brother. We on behalf of the members of Refuge Division, No. 201, Sons of Temperance, wish to convey to you our sincere sympathy in this your sad bereavement, having been so lately deprived of a loving father. Your grief is doubly great, and while we humbly bow to dispensation of Providence, we are forcibly reminded that in the midst of life we are in death. We know that our expressions of sympathy can comfort but little, but we would desire to direct you to Him who is able to bind the broken heart and comfort you in time of trouble. May we all so live, that when our Master calls us, that we may be found ready to depart for that Haven of Rest where all tears shall be wiped away and there shall be no more sorrow. Submitted in love, purity and fidelity.

The outward cargo from this port by the Northumberland this morning will consist of three cars mixed freight.

George Small of New York, who has been in Charlottetown for the past three months, leaves today on return to Boston.

James Duncan, painter, Summerside, came to the city yesterday and entered the P. E. Island Hospital for treatment for mercurial poisoning.

Lyman Tremere and George Kitson, of Hanshire, were in the city recently, returning from Pownal and Hazelbrook where they were visiting.

The Northumberland arrived at this port at five thirty last evening with a cargo consisting of four cars mixed freight and a number of passengers.

Mrs. W. C. Matthews, St. John, the well known Sunday School worker, was in Moncton recently in the interests of primary and junior S.S. work.

Rev. Dr. Carmen, general superintendent of the Methodist Church, is to visit the different conferences in the near future, including Prince-Edward Island.

Rev. W. A. Thomson, Tryon, has contributed to last week's Wesleyan a notice on the life of the late Mrs. John Halliday, Augustine Cove, and Mrs. George Nicholson, Sr., Craupid.

An engagement of interest to many Ottawa people has just been announced in Kingston, that of Miss Agnes MacMorine, daughter of the Venerable Archdeacon MacMorine, to Professor McPhail, of Queen's University (a native of Prince Edward Island). The marriage will take place in the early summer.—Etc.

When, as the days pass slowly to their closing, And the sun sets in splendid majesty, When from the darkening heavens, where reposing, The stars peep out in gradual brilliancy; I think of all the events that are before us, And all the many schemes that we possess; It seems to me that with awakened chorus, We should shout loudly, "give us the Kernesse."

COMING EVENTS.
