Miss Irene V. Currie, teacher of Fair View School, who leaves shortly for the West, was, on Thursday, the last day of the school year, agreeably surprised by her pupils when at the hour of closing they presented her with a handsome dressing case and the following address:—"It is with great regret that we learn of your departure from our midst. We are all very sorry, indeed, to see you leave Fair View School, where you have been looked upon with great love and respect by your pupils during the four short years you have been with us. We have all excused you too by at times, by our little acts of misdeemeanor, but hope to make amends for it by presenting you with this little present as a token of our esteem for you. We know you will value this little gift, not because of its cost, but to remind you of your pupils, who will ever think of your kindness. Wishing you success in all your undertakings, we remain, yours truly, Signed in behalf of the pupils of Fair View School," Miss Currie in appropriate words thanked them for the gift, which, she assured them, would always be treasured by her in loving memory of the pupils who by their willingness and many acts of kindness had made the years spent with them very pleasant.

A party of young people of Summerside started out one night recently for a drive around the outskirts of their town. Roads were in excellent condition and the evening was bright. The suggestion was offered by a member of the party that the trip to Charlottetown be made. This was acted on and the team arrived in this city at midnight. The following day the entire party were entertained at Restview, and in the afternoon they took in the inspection in progress at Victoria Park. They left on return to their homes yesterday thoroughly pleased with their unmediated excursion, from which they derived no small amount of pleasure.

Ladies' Linen Driving Coats

To anyone in this country, who drives, a linen dust coat is a necessity—not a luxury.

On account of the condition of our roads good clothes are constantly being ruined with the dust and dirt. This is unnecessary and can readily be avoided by using a linen dust coat.
