

When in Bed Put some Vapo-Cresolene in the vaporizer, light the lamp and place it near the head of the bed. Then all the time the baby sleeps it will breathe in the healing, soothing vapor. The hard, tight cough loosens; the fever gradually goes down, the breathing becomes natural, and pneumonia is avoided. Every part of the throat and bronchial tubes are touched by the medicine. For the hard colds and coughs of children nothing equals Vapo-Cresolene.

THE MORNING GUARDIAN THURSDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1901. THE KING'S BIRTHDAY We agree with the Summerside Journal that it is a mistake on the part of the Federal Government to fix the date of Thanksgiving so late as 28th November. This appears to have been done in order that the Canadian thanksgiving should take place at the same time as that of the United States. But the end of November is too late for our northern climate, and is a rather cheerless time of year in the transition between autumn and winter.

The Journal incidentally mentions that the King's Birthday, which falls on November 9 "is a new holiday which may or may not be generally kept." We confess to some surprise at this expression of doubt. We are led to inquire when it was in the memory of British subjects now living that the Sovereign's birthday was not loyally honored in P. E. Island and Canada? Our people are not less patriotic, less attached to the monarchical system than they formerly were. His Majesty the King is personally popular and in every way acceptable to his millions of subjects. It would therefore be most surprising that the first anniversary of his birthday occurring after his accession should be passed over without observance. We confidently expect, on the contrary, that the 9th of November will be generally and heartily honored.

We do not think that many readers of the recent issues of the Patriot will commend it for ability, logic, fairness, dignity or wit. But all will agree that it is very, very Naasty. A whipped gander makes it his first business when the castigation is over to boast of his victory (!) to the geese. So the Patriot geese are now being told of how it has chastised THE GUARDIAN!

One column of last evening's Patriot is mainly filled with quotations from THE GUARDIAN, the object being to show that we have opposed Mr. Farquharson's promotion. On the contrary we were the first to recommend him for the Premiership of the Province. In his wobbling course since that time we have without hesitation endorsed his action when we thought it right and condemned it when we found it wrong. We trust the Patriot will continue to quote (and not garble). Its usually dull columns may be made quite interesting in that way.
