It is with profound sorrow that the Guardian records the death of Miss Sarah Caroline Green of Summerside, who passed away quite suddenly on Saturday evening while she was about her duties arranging the flowers in St. Mary's Church.

Miss Green was born in Summerside and was the daughter of the late Harry C. Green and Caroline Ellis Green his wife. During her whole life she had devoted herself to her church. From her girlhood she had taught in the Sunday School and only gave up teaching a class a year or two ago, but retained her membership on the teaching staff.

Fifty lobster fishing boats, gathered together on the placid waters of the Gulf of St. Lawrence, were blessed by Rev. Father Douglas MacNeill, parish priest, at an impressive ceremony yesterday at North Rustico. Rev. Father Louis Dougan of Charlottetown assisted. Present also was Rev. Father Alfred Gallant of Rustico.

Appropriate hymns were rendered by the Stella Maris Church choir assisted by the Boys' Choir and the Children of Mary.

Hundreds of people, young and old, men, women, children and babies lining the shore or filling boats saw the ceremony.

The small fishing craft were grouped around a boat flying the Union Jack for the ceremony.

The dwelling house of Mr. George McLellan of Alexandra was completely destroyed by fire yesterday. The blaze was discovered in a wood house at the rear shortly before noon and rapidly spread to the main dwelling adjoining.

Volunteer fire fighters quickly gathered but the flames, starting from the north side of the house and fanned by a light north east wind, were soon enveloping the building from end to end. Only a small part of the furniture was saved. Mrs. McLellan received burns to her arm when she was aiding neighbors in removing furniture.

An accurate estimate of the loss could not be obtained last night but it was believed to have been at least $2000. Loss is said to have been partly covered by insurance. Origin of the fire was unknown.

ANNIVERSARY OF REV. JOHN GEDDIE, D. D.—Last Sunday marked the 100th Anniversary of the entrance into the ministry of that missionary of world wide fame the Rev. John Geddie, D. D. Born in Banff, Scotland he came as a young lad to Pictou and later studied under the Rev. Thomas McCulloch, D. D., and was licensed to preach at a meeting of Pictou Presbytery at East River on May 2, 1837. After seven years work on Prince Edward Island, he sailed with his wife to the island of Anietyum. When he died 37 years later this was inscribed on the pulpit of the church in Anietyum "When he landed in 1848 there were no Christians here and when he left in 1872, there were no heathen." To stimulate the missionary movement and to do honor to Dr. Geddie's memory, on Sunday special sermons were preached in the Presbyterian Churches.

—SILVER WEDDING ANNIVERSARY—A large number of friends and neighbours gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Heber MacQuarrie, Wilmot, on Friday evening to celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary. After the guests had all congratulated the bride and groom, Mr. John Lefurgey read an appropriate address in which was expressed the very high esteem in which the couple were held and how their twenty five years of congenial married life midst ups and downs had been an example to the community, concluding with the wish that they would be spared to enjoy another 25 years of happy married life together. The address was accompanied by a well filled purse. Mr. MacQuarrie replied in his usual happy manner on behalf of himself and Mrs. MacQuarrie. Miss Helen Olheim, mezzo-soprano of the Metropolitan Opera Association, was heard last evening in perhaps the finest program of vocal music which the Community Concert Association has so far brought to Charlottetown. A native of Buffalo, N. Y., Miss Olheim made her debut at the Metropolitan Opera last season, and has been acclaimed by competent critics as "one of the exceptional voices of the day". Certainly her performance last evening at the Prince of Wales College hall left little to be desired, either in tonal quality or interpretative ability.

The residence of Michael Conway at Searletown was burned to the ground early yesterday morning. The fire appeared to have started in the attic and spread rapidly until the whole of the upper storey was in flames. Mr. and Mrs. Conway were attending service at Seven Mile Bay Church. Mr. Conway's uncle, Edward Conway, and four children were in the house and with the help of neighbors removed most of the furniture from the ground floor. The family lost most of their clothing. There was a small insurance on the property, which was known as the old Will MacNeill house. Mr. Conway had moved into it from Carleton last fall. Friends will recall that a year ago last March the Conway's lost a little girl of seven years who was burned to death when her clothing caught fire as she reached up to the warming closet. Kind neighbors are assisting in their present trouble.—S.

Object of a search by Royal Canadian Mounted Police since last November, a 200-pound safe stolen from the office of the Irving Oil Company at St. Avards, P. E. I., was discovered in the bush near Mermaid, P. E. I., Sunday by Reuben Higgins and Basil Slavin.

On arrival of the police officers it was discovered $182 and some cheques in the safe when stolen were missing but record books were still intact and in good condition.

The safe was one of three stolen in a series of breaks on the Island last fall. The other two were located three months ago by divers at the bottom of North River.

Higgins and Slavin were walking along the winter road enroute to Lake Verde about one mile from Mermaid when a ledger protruding from the safe in the bush attracted their attention. The door had been torn off.

Rev. George Cameron, Toronto, was a city visitor yesterday, en route to Souris.

Seen by The Guardian, Mr. Cameron, who has been absent from his native province for some seven years, expressed his pleasure on again being in the city of his birth.

"Perhaps", he said, "what more especially impresses an Island visitor is the fact that the Island has comparatively been but slightly affected by what is called the depression.

"The contrast in this respect with other Canadian provinces, more especially the western provinces, and large centres such as Toronto and Montreal, is very striking.

"Life more abundant", commented Mr. Cameron, is an Island characteristic, and the prize for which in his own way everybody is seeking. Because of that the world today is in the crucible, and a new social and economic order, in which humanity, truth and brotherhood will reign, is on the way.

"Human life should be for all a rich and joyous thing, but, unfortunately, today, for the mass of mankind it is a tragedy.

"Our attainments in the material world are dazzling, but our inner spiritual and moral world is much like a neglected garden—largely untilled and overrun with noxious weeds".

PRE-NUPTIAL SHOWER — A pre-nuptial shower was held at the home of Mrs. Raymond Cordeau on Monday evening in honor of her niece, Miss Myrtle Hillier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Hillier, City, whose marriage to Ruthven MacDonald, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas MacDonald of Toronto, is to take place the latter part of this week. A large number of gifts were opened by Mrs. J. Hillier, and Miss Mary Clinton read the verses. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Jack Foote, Mrs. Angus Beaton and Mrs. Alex. Ford.

The sympathy of their neighbors and many friends is extended to the widow and family of the late Mr. John Fraser, well known and highly respected citizen of Queens County, who died at his home at Avondale on March 18th last. Mr. Fraser was a gentleman of sterling character and more than ordinary ability. He took an active and intelligent interest in all that pertains to the welfare of his native province and country, and always strove to improve conditions in the community in which he grew up and spent his long life of over 80 years.

—ENTERTAINED AUXILIARY —Mrs. Harry Cannon entertained the Evening Auxiliary at their regular meeting this week at her pretty home in St. Eleanors. The program for the evening was an appropriate one for two major coming events, Mothers' Day and Coronation Day. The president, Miss Zilpha MacQuarrie, presided. A pleasing number on the program was a solo by Mrs. Dewar. Mrs. L. E. G. Davies conducted the study hour and Miss Mabel Linkletter read a paper on temperance. After refreshments had been served by the hostess and a vote of thanks tendered to Mrs. Cannon, the meeting closed with Our Blessed Dominions and the National Anthem.—S.
