(Canadian Press)
SAINT JOHN, N. B., March 17—The talents of Moncton Hawks took a final and decisive clutch on the senior hockey championship of the Maritime Provinces tonight, defeating Saint John Beavers 4-2. Moncton took the round by a total one-sided count of 12-2, and as a result will meet the champions of Quebec in the Allan Cup playdowns at Moncton next Monday and Wednesday.

coming, and they cried out to the king "If that fire be not extinguished it will never be extinguished in the land of Erin." It never has been extinguished. Persecution has tried to quench it, but in vain. Enemies from within and without have tried to hide it, but it has blazed anew, for it was lighted by a great bishop by a great apostle, by a great saint, whose faith and prayer and self sacrifice won for his spiritual children this priceless heritage of an undying Catholic faith.

St. Patrick did not create Irish culture though he added to it much he had brought from the continent and from Rome, but he did something better. He infused into it a new spirit. He Christianized it, because he himself was filled with the spirit of Jesus Christ.

Listen to his song as he advances on that Easter morning of 433 to meet the angry defenders of a threatened paganism:
"Christ within me, Christ without me,
Christ behind me, Christ before me,
Christ above me, Christ in the heart of every man that speaks to me."

There was the secret of Patrick's power—the indwelling presence of Jesus Christ—the truth of Jesus Christ that he was teaching, the authority of Jesus Christ that he was exercising, the zeal of Jesus Christ, that would not let him rest till he had conquered Erin for his Lord; and this was the spirit that in its dark and sorrowful days, and he bequeathed to his children, a spirit that has kept Ireland alive, a spirit that has made Ireland famous for its countless missionaries, its numberless priests and nuns, and its generosity in the cause of Christ.

Last summer when a million visitors from every quarter of the globe gathered in Phoenix Park to worship that Eucharistic Christ, there rang out over the assembled multitude the notes of St. Patrick's own bell. Like a living echo from a long distant past it spake of the unity of Catholic tradition for 1500 years, and it called to Irish men in every corner of the globe to take up St. Patrick's fight against paganism and sin in all their forms, to be apostles of the faith of the ancient Church, and to transcend all personal and lesser differences of opinion in the one supreme charity of Christ.

In a recent league playoff between juvenile teams at Kitchener, Ont., the goalies of both teams were injured in practise before the game started, being struck in the face by flying pucks. Rather than held up the game the two teams played without goal keepers, using three forwards and two defence men only. A total of ten goals were scored.

Dog racing is popular in England and the dogs travel very fast. The fastest dog is a greyhound known as Beef Cutlet, winner of the Daily Mail British Greyhound championship cup. His record for 500 yards is 28.41 seconds. This is about the speed of the fastest thoroughbred and is considerably faster than the fastest harness horse, trotter or pacer.

The New York Rangers have purchased from Western Canada professional league, Gene Pusie, said to be a star of the brightest hue. He is said to hold down any position in the game with equal effect and is the leading goal getter, also heads the assist column in western professional hockey. He is 22 years old and weighs 207 pounds.

He sprouts color, also whiskers, and never appears on the ice with less than a three days growth of beard. His style of stopping attacking players is to jump in the air and come down fast on the blades before he meets them. It is predicted that he will take New York by storm.

The Montreal Royals who will meet Moncton Hawks in playoff games on Monday and Wednesday of next week, have had several casualties within the last few weeks and are said to have only nine men fit and ready for the fray. There is a possibility that two of these on the injured list will be back in the lineup at Moncton.

ROYALS WILL MEET HAWKS

(Canadian Press)
QUEBEC, March 17—Montreal Royals won the right to meet the Maritime Hockey Champions in the Allan Cup playdowns when they defeated the Quebec Granites 3-2 here tonight in the second game of the series, taking the round by a total score of 8 to 4.

but at the age of sixteen he had been brought to Ireland as a captive. Both the Scotch and the Irish belonged to the Celtic race, and if the Scotch had done a good thing for the Irish, the latter had reciprocated, and in the sixth century had sent St. Columba over to Scotland to Christianize the country. The fact that the Benevolent Irish Society had existed for more than one hundred years was a great testimony to the perpetuation of racial feelings, for though all were Canadians, it was necessary to remember ones race at certain seasons.

Rev. Charles J. McCarthy expressed pleasure on being present and congratulated the Society on the demonstration, and the officers on their wonderful activity through out the year. He commended them for their work in connection with the feast, the co-operation existing among the members and for the wonderful charity, which would bring Heaven's blessing.

Speeches were also made by Mr. John Callaghan, the treasurer, Mr. John Hogan, the youngest vice-president, Mr. Arthur Gormley, Mr. Roy MacGillivray, Mr. Russel Bell the Chief Marshall.
A vote of thanks to Mayor Stewart and Father McCarthy, was moved by Mr. John Cronin, seconded by Mr. John Callaghan, and rendered by the president, Mr. James McKenna.
During the year the society had lost two valuable members in the passing of Mr. Edward Ready, Chief Marshall and Mr. Wm. Devine, the president stated. Reference was also made to a number of the members of the Society who were sick. It was hoped that the organization would be able to build its own hall in 1935. This year there had been twenty more on parade than there had been on those of the past two years. During the year $500 had been spent in charity.

The good wishes of all hockey fans in the Maritimes will be with the Moncton Hawks in their battles Monday and Wednesday, also in their future journeys in quest of the Allan Cup. We all hope they will be successful and will bring back for the first time to the Maritimes that cup, emblematic of the world's amateur hockey championship.

Halifax Wolverines have not yet disbanded and are contemplating games with St. John, also possibly a tour of the U. S. A. with games at Boston and other points.

Fredericton, N. B., are not satisfied with the result of their hockey season and are making more ambitious plans for 1933-34. It is understood that they intend to strengthen their team considerably, having in mind a team similar to that which cut such a wide swath in Maritime hockey a year ago.

There has been agitation among golfers to increase the size of the cup hole to six inches. Many of the world's leading golfers who have been playing in Florida recently expressed sentiments that generally were against the larger putt receptacle.

At Berlin, Germany, Tuesday night, Toronto Nationals hockey team defeated the Massachusetts Rangers 2-1 in a fast exhibition hockey match. In a previous game the two teams ended in a free for all fight with the score two all.

P. E. Islanders will be interested to hear that the entire sport palace applauded when Kenny Kane, National forward, and Crosey, Ranger goalie, who started the fight, shook hands before the start of Tuesday night's game. Kenny is a brother of Jackie Kane.

THE MARITIME SMOKE

DOWN THE BACK STRETCH

John E. Kelly of Bangor, Maine, is offering for sale Phil D. 208 3-4 and Lillian 210 3-4 raced here last exhibition by Red Hanifan.

One of the handsomest drivers seen about Charlottetown is Baby Set, trial 2.19 trotting, by Longest 2.06 1-4, dam Bonnie Fernwood by Fernwood. This mare is the property of Mr. Matt Mahar, well-known horseman who buys a trotter or pacer nearly every year and makes a vast improvement in their gait, manners and general appearance. Mr. Mahar has handled some good ones in the past, notably Mac Aubrey 2.08 1-2, that he at one time owned and sold to Well McNeill.

A Frenchman betting on the trotting races at Vincennes, France, recently had a most extraordinary stroke of luck by doubling up his bets. His first bet, about three dollars, was placed through the parlour of the trotter Hermine Royal. This horse won and the winnings, roughly $75.00 were put on Gabardine in the following race. He also won. The money, which had swollen to $2,500 was then placed on Gagnant 2. The heavy bet brought the price of the horse down but when it trotted home first it procured the lucky winner the sum of $7,500. He was lucky, but he also had nerve!

Ben White, the world's greatest colt trainer, who year after year trains at Longwood track, Florida, has what is considered one of the best stables of colt trotters he has ever trained. Up to date of March 8th Ben had beaten 220 with six two year olds.

Says the American Sportsman: "Trainers were on the track of Lexington, Ky., on February 24th, which is indeed unusual and causes one to hope that spring at least is just around that mythical corner which President Hoover daily referred to."

One of the staunchest supporters of light harness racing died at Orlando, Florida, March 7th, due to injuries received in an automobile accident. We refer to Thomas J. McKinney of Buffalo, N. Y., who was the owner of the ill-fated Fire Glow 2.04, one of the greatest futurity colts the world has ever known. Last year Raider (3) 2.02 1-2, the leading money winning three year old pacer was campaigned in his interests.

President Franklin D. Roosevelt comes from a family who were horse lovers back for many generations. President Roosevelt himself is very fond of horse racing.

The Royal Commission of England which has to do with the control of betting in the British Isles, is considering the suppression of all betting except on horse racing tracks and where confined to the use of the totalisator, or as we call it the pari-mutual. The idea is to kill off dog racing which the people have gone betting crazy about.

firms of Vienna, Austria, have discontinued their automobile delivery service and have replaced same with horses and wagons. High taxes on gas and motor vehicles and the expense of the equipment are given as the cause.

The ruling made in the state of Oregon that only pneumatic tires be used on motor trucks has caused many trucking firms to turn back to teams and wagons.

The death is reported at the age of 73 years of "Professor" Albert E. Richardson at Flint, Michigan. The "Professor" made it a business of "ringing" horses and was quite successful with the horses Professor Sphinx, Jack London and others.

What do you think of this for a two year old pacer? Will Hughes owner of the two year old roan gelding Counterwin, drove him a mile at Orlando, Florida, March 4th, the first quarter in 32.1-2 seconds and the last quarter in 30.1-4 seconds, the mile in 2.24 1-2. The colt thus paced a half in this mile in 1.02 3-4. The week previous he had paced a full mile in 2.18 3-4. Counterwin is sired by Counterpart 2.02 1-4 and out of Miss Belwin 2.03 1-4.

The fastest half trotted in Florida this winter was on March 4th when Ella Brewer, two year old filly by Peter the Brewer in the Ben White stable, trotted the last half of a mile in 2.16 3-4 in 1.04 1-2, the last quarter in 31.3-4

Spurgeon Gammon of New Glasgow, N. S., one of the best authorities on the harness horse in the Maritimes was present at the 20th annual dinner of the New England horsemen at Hartford, Conn., Feb. 28th. Mr. Gammon had the distinction of having travelled the greatest distance to attend that banquet, his journey being over 1000 miles. When requested to give an expression from his country he stated that the younger generation might be motor minded, but that horse racing was the chief sport for entertainment at fairs and its discontinuance would be disastrous indeed."

Twenty years ago last Tuesday one of the most strenuously fought out ice races that ever took place in Charlottetown was raced on the Harbor ice near railway wharf with Devilish Dorothy 2.15 1-2, Frank I. 2.19 1-4, The Rexall Girl 2.22 1-4, Frenchie and Parker T. as starters. The purse was $100, donated by Frank R. Hertz, Esq. The ice was in very bad condition, great holes being in the tracks in many places, making starting and judging at finish quite difficult. Number one or pole position was the one fairly good position, so it was decided that the horse that won a heat would have to take one of the other lanes the next heat. The result was that the contest went to seven heats, Frank I. owned by C. H. Chandler winning two heats, The Rexall Girl owned by the MacKinnon Drug Co,

CAPITOL SISTERS 3—O'LEARY 0

The Capitol Sisters of Summerside journeyed to O'Leary on Tuesday for a friendly game of hockey with the O'Leary sisters. This was the first time the Summerside girls had played with any team and they did very well making three goals and so effectively did their goal's stop rubber that the O'Leary girls although putting up a good fight could not get past the net to notch up even one goal.

The brand of hockey handed out was fast with plenty of spills and a few thrills. The Capitol sisters made a goal near the close of the game but it was disputed by their opponents so they let it go at three. The visiting ladies were entertained by Mrs. Vernon Matthew to supper.—S.

two heats and Devilish Dorothy winning the race with the necessary three heats. After the race The Rexall Girl was sold to John McDonald north of Southport and was campaigned by him through that summer and fall, winning a race from the dam of Bill Sharen at Halifax.

We have before us a score card of races at Halifax, Wednesday, Sept. 16th 1903, over thirty years ago. We are particularly interested in the Royal Hotel purse of $300, for 230 trotters, which had as starters Rosemont owned by Dr. F. S. McDonald, Souris, Daisy DeWitt owned by J. R. DeWitt, Bridgetown, Kremont, owned by A. L. Slip, Sydney, Parklow owned by Owen Trainor, Charlottetown, Carnot owned by W. Wilson, Halifax and Red Light driven by Frank Boutilier, Halifax. Daisy DeWitt captured the first heat in 2.24 1-4, but Rosemont who was second that heat, won the next three and race in 2.23 1-4, 2.22 1-2, 2.26 1-2. Rosemont was a beautiful grey gelding by Almont Wilkes and wherever he raced was extremely popular with the spectators. The writer remembers well seeing him race at Charlottetown that fall and also remembers the very strong impression he made by his beauty and smooth trotting action.

At the same meeting a few days earlier, Ada Mac by Parkside won the 230 trot and pace in straight heats, best time 2.22. If we remember rightly she was campaigned that year by Dannie Steele who

P. W. C. 2 S' SIDE 1

The Summerside High School Macs defeated the P. W. C. Co-eds by a lone tally which Linkletter realized in the second frame on a solo run. The game was fast with many exciting moments around the nets.

In the game between the Summerside High School boys team and the P. W. C. team, the latter won on a 2 to 1 score. FitzGerald scored both goals for P. W. C. and McInnis for Summerside. The Summerside boys had the edge on the play throughout but were unable to score on Baker who did some brilliant net minding.
