

Woman's Realm - Social and Personal - Fashions - Literature

Happenings of The Week

The King and Queen had a fashionable party at the Buckingham Palace. It has been revealed that the emergency apartment was on the fourth floor of Curzon Street House, used by the War Department as its prison office. Very few of the 1,600 men and women working in the building throughout the war knew the secret of the fourth floor. The existence of the apartment was disclosed when it was learned that Dowager Queen Mary would use the flat when she returns from her country home in another week or so if her own Marlborough House is not ready for her. The King and Queen never used their emergency palace, but the Duke and Duchess of Gloucester and the Princess Alice did a reception in the apartment during the worst of the London blitz.

Lt.-Col. Barn Tweedsmuir, 38, the former John Norman Stuart Buchanan, a son of the late Governor-General of Canada, has been gazetted as awarded the Order of the British Empire in recognition of gallant and distinguished services with Canadian Infantry in Italy. He was wounded in 1943 in North Africa.

Invitations have been issued by the Governor General and the Princess Alice for a reception to be held at Government House on Friday, June 15.

An appointment of interest to home friends is that of Mr. Albert W. Truman of Saint John, N.B., who is President of the University of Minnesota at Winnipeg. Mr. Truman is married to Miss Jean Taylor of Charlottetown. She is a graduate of Mount Allison Ladies' College, where she studied in the department of education. Mr. Truman is a talented etcher and a woman of great personal charm. They have two children, Peter, age 10, and Sally, age six.

Miss Constance MacFarlane is to succeed Mrs. Constance I. Young as principal of the Mount Allison School for Girls at Sackville on re-opening.

Rev. J. T. and Mrs. Abbott spent the week pleasantly among their friends in Halifax where Mr. Abbott was attending the Seventeenth Session of the Diocesan Synod of the Anglican Church.

Annual visitors who are always cordially greeted are Mr. and Mrs. Richard S. Lea of Montreal who are at the Charlottetown for the summer months. A former Islander, Mr. Lea, and Mrs. Lea, take an active interest in the welfare of the Garden Province.

Mrs. Harry Winkler of Toronto arrived last Saturday to spend the summer with her mother Mrs. James Stewart, Cumberland St.

Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Calder have arrived home from Montreal where they attended the Convocation Exercises at McGill where their son, Ralph, medical student, received his science degree.

Mrs. Robert Davies of New York who has been visiting in Charlottetown for several years, a globe-trotting feature writer for the New York Sun, arrived last Saturday to spend the summer at the Charlottetown. An annual visitor Mrs. Davies has a host of friends to welcome her.

Mrs. H. R. Hillson, The Birches, has returned home from a month's visit with her friends, Mr. and Mrs. Boston in Boston, who will arrive later in the season on a holiday.

The engagement of Miss Adele Sybil Gordon, daughter of Mr. H. F. Gordon, Deputy Minister of National Defence for Air and Mrs. Gordon, and Cecil Charles Hyndman son of the Hon. J. D. Hyndman and Mrs. Hyndman of Rockcliffe, was announced in Ottawa this week. The wedding will take place late this month.

Mrs. W. L. Owen and little son of St. John's, Nfld., are spending some time in Amherst with her sister, Mrs. A. M. Cameron and will also visit her parents in Cape Tormentine and Mr. Owen's family in Charlottetown, before returning.

Mrs. MacMillan, wife of Dr. J. Cyrus MacMillan, arrived from Montreal, Monday to join her husband.

After a delightful winter in Florida Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Gordon are being welcomed home.

Mrs. A. W. Hodggets of Toronto arrived Thursday to spend the summer at The Charlottetown.

Mrs. A. H. Mould has returned home from a visit to members of her family in Chicago and Malone, N.Y.

Miss Joan Winchester, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Winchester, left Thursday for Kentville, N.S., where her marriage is taking place today in the English Church chapel to Major De Meel Hodson, son of Brigadier General and Mrs. Hodson of Grimsby, Ontario.

Leading speakers at the first annual conference of the Vancouver and district branch of the Canadian Restaurant Association, which opened in Hotel Vancouver Monday afternoon included Miss Alberta MacFarlane, Educational Director of the National Restaurant Association, Chicago, formerly of Summerside who has a wide friendship here.

Mrs. W. L. Owen and little son of St. John's, Nfld., are spending some time in Amherst with her sister, Mrs. A. M. Cameron and will also visit her parents in Cape Tormentine and Mr. Owen's family in Charlottetown, before returning.

Mrs. MacMillan, wife of Dr. J. Cyrus MacMillan, arrived from Montreal, Monday to join her husband.

After a delightful winter in Florida Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Gordon are being welcomed home.

Mrs. A. W. Hodggets of Toronto arrived Thursday to spend the summer at The Charlottetown.

Mrs. A. H. Mould has returned home from a visit to members of her family in Chicago and Malone, N.Y.

Miss Joan Winchester, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Winchester, left Thursday for Kentville, N.S., where her marriage is taking place today in the English Church chapel to Major De Meel Hodson, son of Brigadier General and Mrs. Hodson of Grimsby, Ontario.

Leading speakers at the first annual conference of the Vancouver and district branch of the Canadian Restaurant Association, which opened in Hotel Vancouver Monday afternoon included Miss Alberta MacFarlane, Educational Director of the National Restaurant Association, Chicago, formerly of Summerside who has a wide friendship here.

Mrs. Worthy, wife of Capt. Wendel H. Worthy, has returned home from Halifax where she has been residing.

A private dance for the graduate nurses at Falconwood Hospital, held in the Auditorium on Thursday night was a most enjoyable affair. The auditorium was very artistically decorated with snapshots and bouquets. The program was a lovely background for the pretty dresses of the guests. Mrs. J. M. MacMillan and Mrs. (Dr.) A. J. Murchison, chairperson, presided over the affair.

Princess Juliana, the heir apparent to the throne of the House of Orange who has now returned to her children, has returned home from a visit to her friends in Montreal. She was just "Juliana" at the time she was in Montreal, according to a recent story written by Morris McDougall. She was an active voluntary worker at the Superfluous Shop which is run by ladies of Ottawa for the benefit of the Red Cross. She was just "Juliana" at the time she was in Montreal, according to a recent story written by Morris McDougall. She was an active voluntary worker at the Superfluous Shop which is run by ladies of Ottawa for the benefit of the Red Cross. She was just "Juliana" at the time she was in Montreal, according to a recent story written by Morris McDougall.

Steaming is an easy home treatment to brighten the future prospects of those scuffed-looking dragon slippers. Brush the shoes thoroughly to remove all the dust, and then steam over the tea kettle for a few minutes. An efficient face-lifter.

Q. How can I prevent hot brown bread from crumbling when cutting it?
A. Try using a silk or linen thread, instead of a knife, when cutting hot brown bread, and it will not crumble.

Q. How can I set the color when washing silk?
A. A little salt placed in the water when washing silk will usually set the color.

Q. How can I avoid watering of the eyes when peeling onions?
A. This will not happen if the onions are peeled under the running cold water faucet. When grinding, place a wet cloth over the top of the grinder and work underneath.

Q. How can I prevent hot brown bread from crumbling when cutting it?
A. Try using a silk or linen thread, instead of a knife, when cutting hot brown bread, and it will not crumble.

Q. How can I set the color when washing silk?
A. A little salt placed in the water when washing silk will usually set the color.

Q. How can I avoid watering of the eyes when peeling onions?
A. This will not happen if the onions are peeled under the running cold water faucet. When grinding, place a wet cloth over the top of the grinder and work underneath.

Q. How can I prevent hot brown bread from crumbling when cutting it?
A. Try using a silk or linen thread, instead of a knife, when cutting hot brown bread, and it will not crumble.

Q. How can I set the color when washing silk?
A. A little salt placed in the water when washing silk will usually set the color.

Q. How can I avoid watering of the eyes when peeling onions?
A. This will not happen if the onions are peeled under the running cold water faucet. When grinding, place a wet cloth over the top of the grinder and work underneath.

Q. How can I prevent hot brown bread from crumbling when cutting it?
A. Try using a silk or linen thread, instead of a knife, when cutting hot brown bread, and it will not crumble.

Mrs. Bracken, wife of Hon. John Bracken, Progressive Conservative Leader.

COOK'S CORNER

RUBARB PINWHEELS

1 1/2 cups flour
2 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
3/4 teaspoon shortening
1/2 to 2/3 cup milk
1 cup sugar
1 cup water

Method: Sift the flour, baking powder and salt together. Add the sugar and water and mix together enough milk to make a soft dough. Turn out onto a lightly floured oblong shape. Sprinkle with heavy cream, and roll up as for jelly roll. Cut in slices about 1/2 inches thick.

Place slices out side down in a greased baking pan. Combine the sugar and water and cook together for 10 minutes, stirring to dissolve the sugar. Pour this syrup over the pinwheels in the baking pan. Dot with butter and bake in a hot oven (450 deg. F.) for 20 minutes. Serve these with cream.

RUBARB MERINGUE TARTS

2 cups rhubarb
1/2 cup sugar
2 tablespoons flour
Pastry

Method: Wash and cut the rhubarb in 1/2-inch lengths. Place in a colander and pour boiling water through it and drain. Separate the eggs and beat the yolks. Sift the sugar and flour and add to the egg yolks. Turn this mixture into the rhubarb and stir until well mixed. Pour into pastry-lined tart pans and bake in a moderate oven (350 deg. F.) until the filling is firm, about 45 minutes. When cooled, cover with a meringue made by beating the 2 egg whites until frothy, adding 1/2 teaspoon baking powder and beating until stiff, then folding in 4 tablespoons sugar. Place in a moderately slow oven (375 deg. F.) and bake for from 15 to 20 minutes, until delicately browned.

BETTER ENGLISH

D. C. Williams

1. What is wrong with this sentence: "They have bought a great big house."
2. What is the correct pronunciation of "orient"?
3. Which one of these words is misspelled? Civil, civility, civis.
4. What does the word "pretence" mean?
5. What is a word beginning with "pre" that means "a ferretur"?

ANSWERS

1. Say, "They have bought a large house."
2. Pronounce "orient" as in "no not as in or," i.e. in its accent first syllable. "Civis" is a word which is pretence.
3. "Civis" is a word which is pretence.
4. "Pretence" means "a ferretur."
5. "Pretence."

HOW CAN I!

By Anne Ashley

Q. How can I avoid watering of the eyes when peeling onions?
A. This will not happen if the onions are peeled under the running cold water faucet. When grinding, place a wet cloth over the top of the grinder and work underneath.

Q. How can I prevent hot brown bread from crumbling when cutting it?
A. Try using a silk or linen thread, instead of a knife, when cutting hot brown bread, and it will not crumble.

Q. How can I set the color when washing silk?
A. A little salt placed in the water when washing silk will usually set the color.

Q. How can I avoid watering of the eyes when peeling onions?
A. This will not happen if the onions are peeled under the running cold water faucet. When grinding, place a wet cloth over the top of the grinder and work underneath.

Q. How can I prevent hot brown bread from crumbling when cutting it?
A. Try using a silk or linen thread, instead of a knife, when cutting hot brown bread, and it will not crumble.

Q. How can I set the color when washing silk?
A. A little salt placed in the water when washing silk will usually set the color.

Q. How can I avoid watering of the eyes when peeling onions?
A. This will not happen if the onions are peeled under the running cold water faucet. When grinding, place a wet cloth over the top of the grinder and work underneath.

Q. How can I prevent hot brown bread from crumbling when cutting it?
A. Try using a silk or linen thread, instead of a knife, when cutting hot brown bread, and it will not crumble.

Q. How can I set the color when washing silk?
A. A little salt placed in the water when washing silk will usually set the color.

Q. How can I avoid watering of the eyes when peeling onions?
A. This will not happen if the onions are peeled under the running cold water faucet. When grinding, place a wet cloth over the top of the grinder and work underneath.

Q. How can I prevent hot brown bread from crumbling when cutting it?
A. Try using a silk or linen thread, instead of a knife, when cutting hot brown bread, and it will not crumble.

Q. How can I set the color when washing silk?
A. A little salt placed in the water when washing silk will usually set the color.

CHEERS for the CHEER in KING COLE

"I stand up for King Cole Coffee."
Explained a housewife clever
"Because its flavor stands up too."
Fresh, fragrant, fine as ever!

REGULAR GRIND
KING COLE COFFEE

TRY IT - TO-DAY!

Dorothy Dix Says—

STILL BRIDES AT HEART

Women Continue To Expect Romance Even From Aging Husbands

One of the pitiful things about women is that they stay brides at heart even after they have celebrated their golden weddings. They crave romance at 70 just as much as they did at 17. They are not satisfied with husbands who feed them on caviar and filet mignon, when what they hunger for is soft talk. They don't think how lucky they are to be married to men who are good, kind and faithful. Their eternal wall is: "My husband doesn't love me the way he used to."

There is no consolation that you can offer these trouble-borrowers because, of course, it is true that no man loves his wife after marriage the way he loved her before marriage. He either loves her more or he loves her less, according to the way she has developed as a wife. He doesn't love her a la Hollywood thriller but that is the way Friend Wife wants to be loved.

WANTS COMFORT

He doesn't spend his time in a mad pursuit of her because he has caught his car and he wants to sit down in comfort and be at ease for the balance of the matrimonial journey. He doesn't thrill at the approach of her footsteps because he can't get hot and cold at a sound he hears every day of his life. He can't spend his time holding her hands because he has to use his own in making the money that keeps her and the children comfortable. And, anyway, he feels that it is just as unnecessary for a man who spends his life slaving for a wife to go around perpetually telling her that he is an honest man.

But the average wife doesn't feel that way about it. She hungers and thirsts for romance and isn't satisfied unless she gets it. She wants to be wooed; to be told how beautiful and wonderful she is. If her husband falls in lip service, she cries out that her marriage is a failure, that she is starving for affection and that John takes her for granted, which in a wife's eyes is the crowning sin that her husband can commit against her.

Doublets the nature and habits of wives can never be changed, and it is at ease for the balance of the matrimonial journey. He doesn't thrill at the approach of her footsteps because he can't get hot and cold at a sound he hears every day of his life. He can't spend his time holding her hands because he has to use his own in making the money that keeps her and the children comfortable. And, anyway, he feels that it is just as unnecessary for a man who spends his life slaving for a wife to go around perpetually telling her that he is an honest man.

But the average wife doesn't feel that way about it. She hungers and thirsts for romance and isn't satisfied unless she gets it. She wants to be wooed; to be told how beautiful and wonderful she is. If her husband falls in lip service, she cries out that her marriage is a failure, that she is starving for affection and that John takes her for granted, which in a wife's eyes is the crowning sin that her husband can commit against her.

Doublets the nature and habits of wives can never be changed, and it is at ease for the balance of the matrimonial journey. He doesn't thrill at the approach of her footsteps because he can't get hot and cold at a sound he hears every day of his life. He can't spend his time holding her hands because he has to use his own in making the money that keeps her and the children comfortable. And, anyway, he feels that it is just as unnecessary for a man who spends his life slaving for a wife to go around perpetually telling her that he is an honest man.

Doublets the nature and habits of wives can never be changed, and it is at ease for the balance of the matrimonial journey. He doesn't thrill at the approach of her footsteps because he can't get hot and cold at a sound he hears every day of his life. He can't spend his time holding her hands because he has to use his own in making the money that keeps her and the children comfortable. And, anyway, he feels that it is just as unnecessary for a man who spends his life slaving for a wife to go around perpetually telling her that he is an honest man.

Doublets the nature and habits of wives can never be changed, and it is at ease for the balance of the matrimonial journey. He doesn't thrill at the approach of her footsteps because he can't get hot and cold at a sound he hears every day of his life. He can't spend his time holding her hands because he has to use his own in making the money that keeps her and the children comfortable. And, anyway, he feels that it is just as unnecessary for a man who spends his life slaving for a wife to go around perpetually telling her that he is an honest man.

Doublets the nature and habits of wives can never be changed, and it is at ease for the balance of the matrimonial journey. He doesn't thrill at the approach of her footsteps because he can't get hot and cold at a sound he hears every day of his life. He can't spend his time holding her hands because he has to use his own in making the money that keeps her and the children comfortable. And, anyway, he feels that it is just as unnecessary for a man who spends his life slaving for a wife to go around perpetually telling her that he is an honest man.

Doublets the nature and habits of wives can never be changed, and it is at ease for the balance of the matrimonial journey. He doesn't thrill at the approach of her footsteps because he can't get hot and cold at a sound he hears every day of his life. He can't spend his time holding her hands because he has to use his own in making the money that keeps her and the children comfortable. And, anyway, he feels that it is just as unnecessary for a man who spends his life slaving for a wife to go around perpetually telling her that he is an honest man.

Doublets the nature and habits of wives can never be changed, and it is at ease for the balance of the matrimonial journey. He doesn't thrill at the approach of her footsteps because he can't get hot and cold at a sound he hears every day of his life. He can't spend his time holding her hands because he has to use his own in making the money that keeps her and the children comfortable. And, anyway, he feels that it is just as unnecessary for a man who spends his life slaving for a wife to go around perpetually telling her that he is an honest man.

Doublets the nature and habits of wives can never be changed, and it is at ease for the balance of the matrimonial journey. He doesn't thrill at the approach of her footsteps because he can't get hot and cold at a sound he hears every day of his life. He can't spend his time holding her hands because he has to use his own in making the money that keeps her and the children comfortable. And, anyway, he feels that it is just as unnecessary for a man who spends his life slaving for a wife to go around perpetually telling her that he is an honest man.

Doublets the nature and habits of wives can never be changed, and it is at ease for the balance of the matrimonial journey. He doesn't thrill at the approach of her footsteps because he can't get hot and cold at a sound he hears every day of his life. He can't spend his time holding her hands because he has to use his own in making the money that keeps her and the children comfortable. And, anyway, he feels that it is just as unnecessary for a man who spends his life slaving for a wife to go around perpetually telling her that he is an honest man.

Doublets the nature and habits of wives can never be changed, and it is at ease for the balance of the matrimonial journey. He doesn't thrill at the approach of her footsteps because he can't get hot and cold at a sound he hears every day of his life. He can't spend his time holding her hands because he has to use his own in making the money that keeps her and the children comfortable. And, anyway, he feels that it is just as unnecessary for a man who spends his life slaving for a wife to go around perpetually telling her that he is an honest man.

Doublets the nature and habits of wives can never be changed, and it is at ease for the balance of the matrimonial journey. He doesn't thrill at the approach of her footsteps because he can't get hot and cold at a sound he hears every day of his life. He can't spend his time holding her hands because he has to use his own in making the money that keeps her and the children comfortable. And, anyway, he feels that it is just as unnecessary for a man who spends his life slaving for a wife to go around perpetually telling her that he is an honest man.

Doublets the nature and habits of wives can never be changed, and it is at ease for the balance of the matrimonial journey. He doesn't thrill at the approach of her footsteps because he can't get hot and cold at a sound he hears every day of his life. He can't spend his time holding her hands because he has to use his own in making the money that keeps her and the children comfortable. And, anyway, he feels that it is just as unnecessary for a man who spends his life slaving for a wife to go around perpetually telling her that he is an honest man.

Doublets the nature and habits of wives can never be changed, and it is at ease for the balance of the matrimonial journey. He doesn't thrill at the approach of her footsteps because he can't get hot and cold at a sound he hears every day of his life. He can't spend his time holding her hands because he has to use his own in making the money that keeps her and the children comfortable. And, anyway, he feels that it is just as unnecessary for a man who spends his life slaving for a wife to go around perpetually telling her that he is an honest man.

Doublets the nature and habits of wives can never be changed, and it is at ease for the balance of the matrimonial journey. He doesn't thrill at the approach of her footsteps because he can't get hot and cold at a sound he hears every day of his life. He can't spend his time holding her hands because he has to use his own in making the money that keeps her and the children comfortable. And, anyway, he feels that it is just as unnecessary for a man who spends his life slaving for a wife to go around perpetually telling her that he is an honest man.

Doublets the nature and habits of wives can never be changed, and it is at ease for the balance of the matrimonial journey. He doesn't thrill at the approach of her footsteps because he can't get hot and cold at a sound he hears every day of his life. He can't spend his time holding her hands because he has to use his own in making the money that keeps her and the children comfortable. And, anyway, he feels that it is just as unnecessary for a man who spends his life slaving for a wife to go around perpetually telling her that he is an honest man.

Doublets the nature and habits of wives can never be changed, and it is at ease for the balance of the matrimonial journey. He doesn't thrill at the approach of her footsteps because he can't get hot and cold at a sound he hears every day of his life. He can't spend his time holding her hands because he has to use his own in making the money that keeps her and the children comfortable. And, anyway, he feels that it is just as unnecessary for a man who spends his life slaving for a wife to go around perpetually telling her that he is an honest man.

Doublets the nature and habits of wives can never be changed, and it is at ease for the balance of the matrimonial journey. He doesn't thrill at the approach of her footsteps because he can't get hot and cold at a sound he hears every day of his life. He can't spend his time holding her hands because he has to use his own in making the money that keeps her and the children comfortable. And, anyway, he feels that it is just as unnecessary for a man who spends his life slaving for a wife to go around perpetually telling her that he is an honest man.

Doublets the nature and habits of wives can never be changed, and it is at ease for the balance of the matrimonial journey. He doesn't thrill at the approach of her footsteps because he can't get hot and cold at a sound he hears every day of his life. He can't spend his time holding her hands because he has to use his own in making the money that keeps her and the children comfortable. And, anyway, he feels that it is just as unnecessary for a man who spends his life slaving for a wife to go around perpetually telling her that he is an honest man.

Doublets the nature and habits of wives can never be changed, and it is at ease for the balance of the matrimonial journey. He doesn't thrill at the approach of her footsteps because he can't get hot and cold at a sound he hears every day of his life. He can't spend his time holding her hands because he has to use his own in making the money that keeps her and the children comfortable. And, anyway, he feels that it is just as unnecessary for a man who spends his life slaving for a wife to go around perpetually telling her that he is an honest man.

Doublets the nature and habits of wives can never be changed, and it is at ease for the balance of the matrimonial journey. He doesn't thrill at the approach of her footsteps because he can't get hot and cold at a sound he hears every day of his life. He can't spend his time holding her hands because he has to use his own in making the money that keeps her and the children comfortable. And, anyway, he feels that it is just as unnecessary for a man who spends his life slaving for a wife to go around perpetually telling her that he is an honest man.

Doublets the nature and habits of wives can never be changed, and it is at ease for the balance of the matrimonial journey. He doesn't thrill at the approach of her footsteps because he can't get hot and cold at a sound he hears every day of his life. He can't spend his time holding her hands because he has to use his own in making the money that keeps her and the children comfortable. And, anyway, he feels that it is just as unnecessary for a man who spends his life slaving for a wife to go around perpetually telling her that he is an honest man.

Doublets the nature and habits of wives can never be changed, and it is at ease for the balance of the matrimonial journey. He doesn't thrill at the approach of her footsteps because he can't get hot and cold at a sound he hears every day of his life. He can't spend his time holding her hands because he has to use his own in making the money that keeps her and the children comfortable. And, anyway, he feels that it is just as unnecessary for a man who spends his life slaving for a wife to go around perpetually telling her that he is an honest man.

ELLEN'S DIARY

By An Island Farmer's Wife

The concert held last night in the community hall was a complete success. At least that is what Judge said, standing primly above the foot of our bed in the room above the kitchen, she recounted the number by number, and willfully refused to let our late conversation through the open window. He barked so loudly and continuously that certain of our neighbors' slumbers would be rudely interrupted and a small one of crepeers near an eave flew off her nest with a startled chirp. "There now," I said to Judy, when she finally came almost breathless to a good stopping place after sleep had been taken from our eyes. "I heard some of us won't be so funny in the morning. James was not so interested in the recital of the entertainment-donings as in the little croaking news. "And did you hear any of the farmers say, 'I heard him ask 'if there is much showing to be done yet?'"

This was "wan" busy day at All Saints. Judy when she had brought certain necessary supplies from the corner-store baked away to her heart's content, and at this evening I felt a start of pain in the place from whence the greenness of evensome, it was so rarely a flash and ent misery. This was when James had come and we sat around the table and all the food there spread before us. Judy had been at the streams in the evening and then came up to visit with us were then for Judy. "That I said to her when later we washed the dishes 'should put you in a good frame of mind for the Sabbath, rain or no rain.' But her mind was on other things. 'What did you think of the sunset?' she asked me. 'The sun and the stars promise only the best of weather for Judy's tomorrow.'

Everyone was busy. Jeanie polished and dusted, where there was little dust to be seen. Then went a while to the garden. Judy did cream rining as well as baking. I took care of some cherished articles, and then I went to the barn yard for a while. The men completed the manure-heap in the air, these remain wrapped in a towel 'till the first of the week. The men completed the manure-heap in the air, these remain wrapped in a towel 'till the first of the week. The men completed the manure-heap in the air, these remain wrapped in a towel 'till the first of the week.

To keep a new clothesline from absorbing soil and sand and to prevent manure on clothing rub the line with white wax.

HINTS ON ETIQUETTE

If you son is overseas and his wife and baby live with you, don't insist upon giving her advice on bringing up baby unless she asks for it. Methods of taking care of infants have changed (for the better) since you brought your son-in-law. thought your "modern" ideas were wrong when sonny was an infant?

TO SOFTEN HANDS

This often said a woman's hands reveal her age more accurately than her face. But here's a simple trick that helps keep the hardest working hands soft and lovely. Using a mild complexion soap only work up a good whipped cream lather. Then add a few drops of olive oil directly to the lather and rub in thoroughly. Rinse in luke warm water. You will find that and let Judy and the rest fetch and carry for me—and on the whole enjoyed it. This week I helped James again at the milking and was well rewarded when an entire simple appeared only flickering briefly like a burst of sunlight between showers. House-cleaning, cut indoors and out, and the old slum sailer laid and holds it forever from his ain folk—a hostage of war. Until Monday — Diary — Good-night.

HINTS ON ETIQUETTE

It is a good idea to learn a little about a lot of things and a good deal about some things, so you will have subjects to talk in society.

BRRR—COLD SPOT

It is believed that the coldest spot in North America is at or near Fort Good Hope, on the Mackenzie River, about 30 miles south of the Arctic circle, with

Living & Leisure THE WOMAN'S REALM

SMELLS THAT MAUNT A HOUSE

The lovely smells that haunt a house are part of memory's golden page. The little pantry dark and cool—Bunches of mint and dill and sage. Fall pickles cooking on the stove. The rich exotic scent of clove. A whiff of cookies as you lift. The heavy cover off a crock. Where little disks of goodness lie. As fragrant as a hollyhock. The smell of scones and griddle cakes. The home-made mind that mother makes.

A plain old fashioned pot of soup, a big bowl of light as down. A stew of beef with vegetables. Simmering in gravy hot and brown. The rich aroma of spiced meats. Warm in the little halls and stairs.

The smell of sun-dried clothes brought in. Scented geraniums in a pot. All these in lovely fragrance caught. And blended into one... that

DAMP-PROOF FLOOR

To make a concrete floor damp-proof it should be filled in with several inches of stone or gravel when a two-inch layer of 1, 2, 3 concrete. This should be swabbed than hot asphalt then a layer of roll roofing should be laid, and with the joints cemented, then another two-inch layer of 1, 2, 3 concrete. In making concrete a better waterproof quality is obtained by using a mixture of one-sixth as many pounds of hydrated lime as of cement will help greatly.

TO WHITEN GARMENTS

Clothes that have become discolored or yellow from keeping will resume their whiteness if soaked overnight in warm water with a dessertspoon of cream of tartar.

FAMOUS QUEEN

The name Esther comes from the Hebrew name Ish