THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block--Charlott town.

The latest news, first of all.

Among the outward passengers from this City yesterday were Joseph Dorsey for Montreal; R. E. Johnson for Boston, James McQuillan and Miss Ethel Hardy for Boston.

The heat in Charlottetown yesterday was decidedly noticeable. In the evening it grew pleasantly cool. On the Northumberland crossing the Straits a shower was encountered--Charlottetown was evidently outside its scope.

Do not send communications to individual members of staff. Everything should be addressed "The Charlottetown Guardian, Charlottetown, P. E. I." and on the left hand corner at the bottom of the envelope should be "Advertising," "Subscription," "Editorial," or "News" according to the contents.

The outward passengers by the Halifax yesterday were-- E. F. and J. A. Reddin, E. E. Prior, J. McQuillan, W. E. Phillips, W. H. Brown, Mrs. J. W. Buelen, J. E. and Mrs. Haines, J. J. Young, L. E. Hatfield, Mrs. Hatfield, J. B. and Mrs. Stinson, J. V. and Mrs. O'Brien, Mrs. E. Lemon, D. Lath, D. A. and J. J. McLeod, E. Johnson, G. H. Cunningham, and wife, A. J. McCarthy and son, C. J. Corcoran, B. Lee, W. L. Wallace, Miss A. Stewart, Miss J. Ray, Miss Bolter, G. B. Silver, Mrs. Silver, E. E. Allan, Mrs. Allan, Miss Daly.

The marriage took place recently at the Methodist parsonage, 9 Temple Street, Boston, by the Rev. Fred B. Fisher of Miss Eva M. Ferguson to William Oliver. The bride was assisted by her sister Mrs. W. J. Roth. The bride was handsomely attired in an Empire gown with white net over white satin and carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid was attired in white batiste and carried lilies of the valley. The bride was one of Wellington's most popular young ladies and looked charming in her wedding attire. The hosts of friends in this Province wish the happy couple a prosperous journey through life. The groom's gift to the bride was a sum of money in gold and to the bridesmaid a gold signet ring. Mr. and Mrs. Oliver will reside in Boston.

On May 1st, 1909, the death occurred at his home, Elliott Hills, Bonshaw, of William Talmond at the age of eighty six years. He was well known and highly respected, a man whose word was as good as his bond, he was one of the old pioneers of the place. The late Mr. Talmond was the son of Capt John Talmond who died in Charlottetown thirty years ago, but formerly came from England and nephew of Sir Robert Talmond. His cousin Sir Newell Talmond is the youngest admiral at present in the British Navy; his only brother Thomas went back to England when twelve a young man, and his two sisters Tulse a young man, and his two sisters years ago. The deceased was buried on May 3rd in Argyle Square Cemetery, Rev. D. McLean officiated at the home, assisted by Rev. Mr. Field of McLeod of Hammonds, Rev. George James Boyce, Richard Carson, George Sherron, and Hugh McFadyen. Besides a widow he leaves to mourn two sons, Wellington and Neil K., and one daughter Miss Tena, all at home, also one niece Mrs. Alexander Cameron of Sackville, N. B., who with her son John E. Cameron of the P. E. I. Railway staff were present at the funeral. (English papers please copy.)

The Canadian Magazine for August is composed mostly of short stories and entertaining travel articles. Victoria the Aristocrat is the title of a pleasing appreciation of the capital of Vancouver Island, and in the Land of Windmills, by the late E. M. Yeoman, is full of quaint observations on Holland and the Dutch people. The Witchery of the Alps, by Hedley P. Somner is a well illustrated description of the mountain scenery and its effect on the spectator. The century of the birth of Alfred Tennyson and Oliver Wendell Holmes takes place this August, and therefore the number contains appreciative articles on the works and characters of these two celebrated authors--Tennyson by Rev. W. T. Allison, with portrait by A. J. Clark, and Holmes by Grace McLeod Rogers. The fiction contributions are particularly strong, with short stories by Anna B. Fries, E. S. Kirkpatrick, Fred Jarman, Lillian Vaux Mackinnon, Marjorie I. C. Pickthall and Helen Guthrie. The chief poem is a patriotic one by Wilfred Campbell and entitled The Sea Queen. There are poems also by Virna Sheard, H. O. N. Belford and others.

If the lead around the packages of "SALADA" were weighed in with the tea it would show profit to the Company of over half a million a year, but this is not done. Absolutely full weight of tea is given inside the "SALADA" packet.
