PREMIER SCOTT IN POOR HEALTH

WINNIPEG, March 20.—The Free Press publishes the following despatch from Regina.

Advices reaching this city from the Bahamas indicate that the state of Premier Walter Scott's health is anything but reassuring, and a cabinet minister remarked today: "I am sorry to say Walter Scott is a long way from recovery."

The bride was given away by her father, entered the church to the strains of "Oh Perfect Love" rendered by a limited choir and looked charming in a travelling suit of blue serge with pink hat and carried a bouquet of cream roses. The church was tastefully decorated with flags and winter decorations and the happy couple were married by the groom's father, Rev. F. A. Wightman assisted by Rev. R. Brodie, pastor of the church. Lieutenant Goodwin ushered while Miss Garda Tingley, sister of the bride, presided at the organ and rendered Mendelssohn's wedding march as the pair left the church. The bride was the recipient of many useful and valuable presents, the groom's present to the bride being a necklace set with pearls. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Among the out-of-town guests present were Rev. F. A. Wightman, of Bathurst, (N. B.), and Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Stevens, of Amherst. The "All Dorchester" platoon of the 145th Westmoreland Battalion was present at the ceremony and acted as a guard of
