—SPLENDID FISH.—A large trout in one of the show windows of R. T. Holman, Ltd., attracted considerable attention Monday. This specimen was landed by Mr Albert E. Woodside, Summerside, and tipped the scales at 3 lbs. 6 1/2 oz. It was caught on the far-famed Dunk River.

—SUDDEN DEATH.—This week Mr. Thos. DesRoches, of Bedeque, was found by his brother, with whom he lived, dead in bed. An inquest was held on the body on Thursday by the coroner, Doctor Jardine, and the jury, of which Mr. John Davidson was the foreman, returned a verdict to the effect that the deceased, who was thirty-eight years of age and unmarried, came to his end from natural causes, death being due to acute dilatation of the stomach, with congestion of the lungs and kidneys. On Thursday morning the deceased called at Mr. Richard Arsenault's and after opening the door fell to the floor. Mrs. Arsenault did what she could for him and when her husband came home about one o'clock he advised the man to go to his brother's about half a mile away. This the deceased started to do, but was found later by the side of the road by Mr. Crossman, who drove him to his destination. There, complaining of pains in his stomach, he went to bed at about 2.30 p.m. About two hours later the brother went up to his room and found him dead.

DOCTORS DID NOT HELP HER

But Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Mrs. Bradley's Health—Her Own Statement.

Winnipeg, Canada.—"Eleven years ago I went to the Victoria Hospital, Montreal, suffering with a growth. The doctors said it was a tumor and could not be removed as it would cause instant death. They found that my organs were affected, and said I could not live more than six months in the condition I was in. "After I came home I saw your advertisement in the paper, and commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it constantly for two years, and still take it at times, and both my husband and myself claim that it was the means of saving my life. I highly recommend it to suffering women."—Mrs. ORILLA BRADLEY, 284 Johnson Ave., Winnipeg, Manitoba, Can.

Why will women take chances or drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound? For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, etc. If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

write another in a day or two, for I think I've exhausted all the subjects and will have to wait, as did Mr Micaber, for something to turn up. Drop me a line and give me all the news, gossip, etc. I do hope this murdering of the best blood of the nations will be over this fall, but all preparations here look like another winter campaign. Lord forbid. A friend lying wounded between the trenches after that fearful night stirring in his pain or lifting an arm to attract his comrades' attention, being sniped by soldiers of a nation that call themselves civilized lurk in the minds of the survivors. Now I tried to tell you, Louson, what I mean when I tell you of those nine months, and ask could there ever be another period like them. Everything past seems to have been forgotten out here. It's the future we think mostly of. What it has in store for us and you at home. Well, I am rather tired, so will close for this time. I hope you find those rambling letters of interest, but you will forgive them when you understand the conditions they are written under. Sincerely yours, A. R. B. DUCK.

CHOICE OF NAME FOR COUNTRY HOME

In selecting a name for the country or suburb home, the chief difficulty seems to be in the wealth of material which there is to choose from. A name gives a charm and individuality to your home and a sense of permanence that you have never felt before says Holland's Magazine.

Names may be divided into several classes—(1) by the house itself (color, style of architecture or building material); (2) by the natural surroundings; and (3) by the names of members of the family. Many prefer to consider the house itself and to choose a characteristic name for it as Gray Gables, Three Towers, Stone Chimney, Grey Stone Cobbleback or Halfway Cottage. Probably more names are chosen by the surroundings than in any other way. If you live near the water, by all means consider this feature in choosing a name. Here are some: Riverside Villa, Lakeside, Meadowbrook, Brooklawn, The Breaker, Springlawn, Shadowbrook, The Ripples, Brookbank, River Bend Farm, Waterook, Brookly Park, Brookside Edgewater, and Hillbrook. Names chosen from nearby trees are pleasing as pointers. The Avonlea, Evergreen, Elmwood, The Orchards, Greenwood, Lone Pine, Woodlands, Elmknoll, Oak Dale, The Maples, Maple Dell, Hickory Farm, Laurel Dell, Four Oaks, Hickory Grove, Big Tree Farm, Cedar Hill, Cedarcrest, The Poplars, The Palms, Fruitlands, Forest Home, Hazel Wood, and Live Oaks.

Any of these names can easily be changed to suite the surroundings of the home. Vines or shrubbery often bring out appropriate names; Lilac Lodge, Fernbank, Briar Cottage, Green Hedge, Ivy Lodge, Green Acres, Hazel Dell, George Ade's country home in Indiana. Cultivated features offer many ideas: Roselaw, Cloverlea, Shady Lawn, Sunnyside Cottage, Fairlea, Clay vernook, Alderlawn, Rosemead, The Blossoms and Garden Villa. The choice is easy if you wish to consider the view of the character of land surrounding your home: Ocean View, The Crest, Gulands, Hill View, Hill Crest, Wayside Cottage, Rosecliff, Hilltop, Knollcrest, The Terrace Ridgecrest, Bay View, Longmeadow, Green Hill.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. MILTON WALSH. Mr. Milton Walsh, of the Department of Marine and Fisheries, will have the deep sympathy of many friends in the sudden death yesterday morning of his beloved wife. The circumstances are of unusual sadness. Mrs. Walsh had been ill over a year ago, but she had completely recovered and for the past three months had enjoyed excellent health being up and about as usual, and in the best of spirits. About one o'clock on Sunday afternoon while walking from the parour towards the kitchen, she was suddenly seized with a paralytic stroke. Medical aid was hastily summoned but she never regained consciousness and passed away at 2.30 yesterday morning. The late Mrs. Walsh, whose maiden name was Annie M. Jenkins, was a most estimable lady, always optimistic, bright and cheerful. She was a daughter of Mrs. Emma Jenkins, who has reached the ripe old age of 89 years and is residing with her daughter, Mrs. Lavers, at Georgetown. The deceased leaves to mourn besides a sorrowing husband, one son, Shelton B. Walsh; also one sister, Mrs. Thomas Lavers, in Georgetown, and five brothers, Richard R. Jenkins, W. W. Jenkins, Georgetown; George G. Govan, Sask.; Edward and Percy Jenkins in the United States. Among other surviving relatives is her niece Mrs. (Dr.) Foss (nee Miss Annie Jenkins) of Peabody, Mass. Mrs. Foss before her marriage resided in Charlottetown with Mrs. Walsh, and was on a visit to her at the time of the latter's death. ADDRESS TO MR. T. ARSENAULT. The following is a translation of the French Address read to Mr. Theophilus Arsenault on the occasion of his visit to his home for the last time before going to Europe. To Mr. Theophilus Arsenault, Dear Mr. Arsenault: At the call of your country which is at present engaged in a struggle without precedent in the world's history, you have responded nobly, to join the braves who are facing the enemy's cannon. And it is befitting that we on this occasion, give testi-

A Remedy For All Pain

"The efficiency of any drug" says Dr. C.P. Roberts "is known to us by the results we obtain from its use. It is we are able to control pain and disease by means of any preparation, we are warranted in its use. One of the principal causes of all diseases is pain, and this is what the patient most often applies to us for, i.e. something to relieve his pain. If we can arrest this promptly, the patient is most liable to trust in us for the other remedies which will effect a permanent cure. One remedy which I have used largely in my practice is Anti-kamnia Tablets. Many and varied are their uses. I have put them to the test on many occasions, and have never been disappointed. I found them especially valuable for headaches of malarial origin, where quinine was being taken. They appear to prevent the bad after-effects of the quinine. Anti-kamnia Tablets are also excellent for the headache of a neuralgic origin; also for headaches of a neuritic origin, and especially for women subject to pains at certain times. Two Anti-kamnia Tablets give prompt relief, and in a short time the patient is able to go about as usual. These tablets may be obtained at all drug stores. Ask for A-K Tablets. They are also unexcelled for headache, neuralgias and all pains.
