What might have been a very serious accident occurred on Wednesday night shortly after nine when Mrs. Hooper Horn and party were returning from the New Ann on a new leaving the road to allow other cars to pass. His car struck a rut and turned over into the ditch. Mr. Bousfield, one of the occupants, became pinned under the car and was somewhat severely hurt. The other occupants were unhurt. Dr. Bousfield's injuries are not considered serious as the full weight of the car was lightened by the hood which fortunately was up.

VALUABLE ANIMAL.—Mr.
Keith Boswell of Victoria, who some two years ago purchased the foal of Mr. John Lee, Victoria, recently imported from Mr. P. R.
Fairweather, Roxbury, N. B., a handsome dual purpose Shorthorn bull calf, nine months old. The youngster is registered under the name of "Armistice" having been dropped on the anniversary of that day, November 11, 1919. The animal is a splendid specimen of the breed and has been very much admired, and will no doubt prove a valuable acquisition, not only to his own herd, but to the whole community.

the purpose of the meeting, and called upon D. A. McLeod, clerk of the session, who read the following address:

Dear Pastor—We are met here on the solemn day of departure for another sphere of labour, to convey to you our deep sense of the loss we sustain by your retirement from the pastorate of this congregation.
Though our disappointment was great, when you resigned, this we sincerely hope that your health may continue to improve, and that you may long be spared to carry on in the Gospel ministry.
We trust that the principles of honour, integrity and godliness which you have inculcated may live when the mere transitory cares of the present shall have passed into oblivion.
We will remember with gratitude your zeal for our spiritual welfare

FAREWELL RECEPTION and your unselfish application to every good cause. In the home, in the Bible class and in the church you draw us with cords of love.
Few could mingle in our joys and sorrows as you have done.
"With such memories filled, Like the vase in which roses have once been distilled,
You may break, you may shatter the rose if you will,
But the sweet scent of the roses will hang round you still."
Convey to Mrs. Sweet your amiable partner in life our best wishes for her health and happiness.
With unassuming modesty and cheerfulness, Mrs. Sweet has left us an example of urbanity and patience in the duties of home and society, that should be to us a source of encouragement and inspiration.
Be assured that wherever your lot may be cast, we will watch your future with sympathetic interest, glad to learn of any success you may achieve.
And now, Dear Pastor, we bid you farewell and ask you in parting to accept this gift as a small but tangible token of our esteem and goodwill.
Then Mr. McNeil, on behalf of the congregation, presented Rev.
W. H. Sweet with a purse containing $100.
Mrs. D. A. Horton, on behalf of the ladies of the congregation, presented Mrs. Sweet with a purse
