It will be no easy task to win this coveted trophy and for that reason both No. 2 and No. 3 Batteries should attract the very pick of our young men.

Montreal Furrier Brutally Murdered As Crowds Pass

(Special to The Guardian)

MONTREAL, May 15.—George J. Jobin, 32 years of age, wholesale furrier at 297 Amherst Street, this city, was brutally murdered and robbed in his store in broad daylight at 7:15 Saturday evening. The victim was battered about the head by a hammer which was later found by the police, and was slashed about the face, neck and head with a pair of tailors' scissors. The murderer, after robbing Jobin, washed his hands in the sink in the rear of the store and walked out. No arrests have so far been made.

The murder occurred in one of the most crowded sections of the city, the store being a short distance from St. Catherine Street, a main thoroughfare of Montreal. Hundreds were passing the store at the time, but so far no material witnesses have been secured. The body was discovered by Miss L. Lussier, who entered the store and receiving no answer to calls called in a man from the street, W. Lepierre, who found Jobin's body in the rear of the store. Examination by the police showed that the victim had been robbed. His watch and chain had been taken and his brother-in-law stated that he was in the habit of carrying large sums of money with him usually about $2,000 on Saturday nights. The total of sales during the week there was evidence that there had been a fight and that the victim had offered some resistance.

Sandy MacGregor Noted Scotch Comedian Here

(Special to The Guardian)

WITH HIS COMPANY OF ENTERTAINERS RECEIVED A HEARTY WELCOME BY THE CALEDONIAN PIPE BAND AND HUNDREDS OF CITIZENS. A large and enthusiastic number of citizens assembled last evening at the railway station to welcome to Charlottetown the genial "Sandy" MacGregor—famous over the dominion for his Scottish songs and character sketches—and his company of entertainers and whose arrival has been looked forward to with pleasure by the many lovers of Scottish music and comedy in this city.

Headed by the local Caledonian Club Pipe Band the Scottish entertainers, clad in their Scottish costumes, were conducted along Weymouth Street, up Kent to Graytown where the parade halted at the Prince Edward Theatre. Here "Sandy" delivered a brief speech thanking the Caledonian Club and the citizens in general for their warm welcome.

Mr. MacGregor is on his first visit to this province, though he has already declared his intention of making it by no means his last. His tour throughout the Maritime Provinces has been inspired by the worthy ambition of alleviating the lot of crippled and consumptive returned soldiers who after two and three and four years of suffering are still lying in hospital beds in our big cities. Mr. MacGregor is himself a returned soldier and has been through the hospital mill.

His ambitions now is to give these wounded boys in hospitals at Montreal free concerts. To do this he has started out on his maritime tour, in order to gather sufficient proceeds to allow him to do his free circuits there.

Mr. MacGregor started his tour last February from Sydney, coming through the various towns and cities drawing enthusiastic crowds as he drew his Glasgow, Truro, Halifax, Kentville, St. John and Fredericton. He visits at every opportunity the boys in hospitals, cheering them up with his songs and stories. Previous to his maritime trip he has sung all over Canada and parts of the States. In Pittsburg, Penn., he sang 76 times a day from a magnificent sum of $308,000. All along the line he has been collecting souvenirs of his visits—and when he gets back to Montreal, his headquarters, he will regale the wounded lads there with new stories of his adventures.

Miss Jean Thomson, who accompanies Mr. MacGregor, is a celebrated singer of Scottish and Irish reels, still in her "teens" is the proud possessor of thirty-two Caledonian medals. A unique talent possessed by this young lady is the ability to play the pipes.

Mr. MacGregor and Miss Thomson are on their first visit to Prince Edward Island. They expect to remain about a fortnight during which time they will endeavor to tour this province thoroughly. The show they put on will be as clean and wholesome one. It will be a delight to all lovers of music, wit and dancing—and especially to all Caledonians. Over and above all this the laudable object which these entertainers have in view is deserving of every encouragement. They will appear at the Prince Edward Theatre on Wednesday and Thursday nights.

Irish Peace Prospects Bright

DUBLIN, May 16.—Sir Hamar Greenwood, Chief Secretary for Ireland, expressed himself today as extremely hopeful that the present peace negotiations will bear fruit.

"The trouble in Ireland arises through century-long dissension among Irishmen," he said. "As soon as they get together and stay together on a common all-Ireland policy, the Irish question will be settled. Up to the present Irishmen have been fighting each other."

The Chief Secretary's attention was drawn to a statement handed to the correspondent at Dublin Castle today, which says: "Since Sinn Fein propagandists in the belief that Ireland is on the brink of famine, Sinn Feiners in Ireland appear to have been doing their utmost to produce such a state of affairs by wantonly destroying large quantities of foodstuffs and agricultural produce. The wholesale destruction of agricultural seeds by Sinn Feiners is one of the greatest disasters of the campaign of destruction affecting the country's chief industry."

Sir Hamar criticized the reports and advertisements emanating from the Irish Committee of Relief, and added:

"As a matter of fact, Ireland was never more prosperous than she is today."

FRENCH PRESS SEVERELY CRITICISES LLOYD-GEORGE

Express Amazement at His Speech in Reference to Upper Silesia London Papers Maintain a Conservative Attitude.

(Special to The Guardian)

PARIS, May 16.—The French newspapers today assail Premier Lloyd-George's speech on the Upper Silesian situation and uphold Premier Briand's statements made in his interview with the foreign correspondents here on Saturday. Former Premier Clemenceau's newspaper "L'Homme Libre," says: "Premier Lloyd-George's cynicism passes all measure. It is an invitation for France to massacre the Poles for the greater glory and profit of Germany."

L'Humanite, the Socialist organ interprets the address of Premier Lloyd-George, a meaning that the French capitalists occupy the Ruhr and that "Poland, the vassal of Quai Dorsay, will receive the Silesian basin." "Behold Germany all but deprived of all its industries, behold France assured of first place in Europe," it says. "This was the real significance of Premier Lloyd-George's discourse."

The words of Mr. Lloyd-George are described by the Eclair as "brutality against France and intended to encourage German troops immediately to cross the frontier." The Journal remarks: "The least that can be drawn from the English Premier's speech is that it is dangerous, as it misleads Germany into believing she will get what she desires, which certainly she will not."

The Petit Parisien declared Mr. Lloyd-George was "playing the game of Germany, and denied the truth of the assertion that the indigenous population of Upper Silesia was German. "No one," it adds, "has the right, either in England or in France to disregard the rules of common sense and coolness."

"France does not permit her hand to be forced," declared the Echo de Paris, "and will not permit the industrial district which has come to her eastern ally to be taken away from her."

The majority of the newspapers were inclined to think that the words of Mr. Lloyd-George exceeded his "thoughts," and the Journal asked itself if the British Prime Minister "did not try to take revenge for his check on the question of reparations."

INDIGNANT REMARKS OF FRENCH PRESS INCITE BUT SMALL ATTENTION

LONDON, May 16.—Indignant comment of the French press regarding Lloyd-George's speech on Poland before the House of Commons attracted but little attention from London newspapers today. For the most part they were depreciated and regretted. The Daily Telegraph declared that the British nation is solid behind the premier in this matter, pointing out that Mr. Lloyd-George was misinterpreted by French commentators who reported him as urging authorization of the occupation of Upper Silesia by German troops.

Confidence that the differences between the premiers can be bridged, was expressed by the Chronicle, but it pointed out that the difficulty of finding such a bridge can be reduced only by the people keeping their heads. The explosion of wrath in a large part of the French press is very ill adapted to the end.

The Daily News contended that when the Supreme Council meets, "as it must promptly meet to discuss Silesia, the problem will be made much simpler by the Briand cabinet being under no delusions regarding the problem knowing the views of the British cabinet."

The Daily Express said: "The attacks of Paris newspapers upon Mr. Lloyd-George naturally represented by the public but rude newspaper articles do not constitute a break."

Y. M. C. A. GETS AWAY TO A FINE START

A fine start was made on the Maritime Y. M. C. A. secretary's meeting came to a close yesterday as is shown in the list below. Only a few contributors were seen and in no case did the canvassers meet with anything but the best of success. Our citizens are showing by the splendid response that they are making that they believe in the work being done for the boys and young men by the "Y". At 6:30 last night the canvassers met at the Y. M. C. A. where a splendid supper was provided by the absence of Mr. W. S. Louson the president, Mr. J. A. Clark, Vice Pres. presided. After supper Mr. Clark told the object of the meeting and called on Mr. R. H. Jenkins, chairman of the finance committee to give a report. Mr. Jenkins explained the reasons why the "Y" is out for $6,000, and among his other remarks said that the large contributions given by our subscribers enabled the Board of Directors to give the boys and young men the privilege of the institution for a merely nominal fee, which would have to be greatly increased were it not for the splendid support of the contributors. The canvassers were then given their lists and after a short but very interesting and optimistic address by Mr. L. A. Buckley, $1380.00.

(Special to The Guardian)

MONTREAL, May 15.—Special services this morning in the parish church of St. Mary's Craig Street east, marked the twenty-fifth anniversary of the ordination to the priesthood of Father John F. Johnston assistant to the pastor, Father Brady.

Father Johnston is a native of Charlottetown, P. E. I., having been born in that city in 1855, and a graduate of St. Dunstan's University of the same city. He is the eldest of four brothers. Of these one is at present Attorney-General of Prince Edward Island.

NOTED SPANISH NOVELIST DEAD

MADRID, May 16.—Countess Emilia Pardo-Bazan, the most noted Spanish novelist of the past century is dead, death coming at the end of a long illness attack. Her sons had been summoned from Paris. King Alfonso sent various suburbs of London and altho the countess had been in the west of London.

Several of the suburban towns were visited by armed men whose primary object appears to have been arson but, who, when interrupted resorted to shooting. Three people were wounded, one of them probably fatally. A man and his wife in St. Albans were shot.

In a majority of cases the houses set on fire were occupied by persons connected with the Royal Irish Constabulary. The police assert that for some days there have been rumors in Dublin that raiders were planning a campaign in London.

A band of raiders who set fire to the house of one member of the Royal Irish Constabulary also shot and critically wounded a tenant of another member of the constabulary. At Totting raiders set fire to the residence of the father of a member of the constabulary. Similar acts of incendiarism were carried out in West Kensington. In one place the raiders evidently made a visit to the wrong place, but in a scuffle with the occupants of the house they shot and wounded a man and his wife. Attempts at arson were made at East Greenwich and Battersea, but were frustrated.

Mr. McIsaac, M.P., and The Fielding Amendment

(Special to The Guardian)

OTTAWA, May 16.—The first Saturday night sitting of the House of Commons was of a pathetic nature. The small gathering of members, which dwindled at one stage until there were but seventeen in the chamber, listened to a number of speeches which followed along the lines of those already delivered on the Budget debate.

From the Government side James McIsaac (Kings, P.E.I.) and Samuel Charters (Peel) defended the Government policy. It was a source of satisfaction to all Canadians that in comparison with other countries of the world, Canada was in an enviable financial condition, Mr. McIsaac said. The projected taxation would meet all the needs and would leave a substantial difference between ordinary revenue and ordinary expenditure. One feature was that those who wanted to drink liquor would have to pay a heavy tax on it. This was just, Mr. McIsaac said, and must be paid for by those who indulged themselves. There are many reasons why the time is not opportune for a change in the tariff of the chief of these, pending revision of the United States tariff. It is better to make haste slowly. If Liberals were free traders they should have practiced it when they were in power.

Hon. Mr. Fielding, Finance Minister, always brought down a protectionist budget, and the present tariff is lower than the Liberal tariff. The action of the ex-Finance Minister has given this country a black eye and Mr. D. McKenzie, who is supporting the free trade move was a protectionist as far as the coal mines of Cape Breton were concerned.

Mr. McIsaac started to read the Fielding amendment but the Liberal members called upon him to "dispende."

"Your ashamed of it," he called across the floor. Mr. McIsaac went on to remark that the amendment was "the most marvellous hodge-podge, which means nothing and is intended to mean nothing."

TWELVE PERSONS KILLED AND FIFTY INJURED

Two Express Trains From Paris Jumped the Track Within a Few Miles of Each Other—The Government Has Ordered An Investigation.

(Special to The Guardian)

TOULOUSE, France, May 16.—Twelve persons were killed and fifty injured when two express trains bound to this city from Paris jumped the track last night within a few miles of each other. The fact that in each case ten or eight coaches were derailed and the locomotive and their tenders remained on the track caused Minister of Public Works le Troquer to order an investigation. In each instance the coupling between the tender and the first coach snapped. M. Delmas, a member of the Chamber of Deputies who was on board one of the trains informed M. le Troquer today that he would bring up the matter in the Chamber of Deputies. The first train left Paris at 10:52 o'clock Saturday morning and jumped the rails near Uzerche, 31 miles south-east of Limoges. Five persons were killed in this wreck and 20 wounded. Owing to the wreckage the express train leaving Paris at 7:25 p. m. was diverted to another road at Perigueux Junction. It went into the ditch a few miles beyond that place.

CAMPAIGN OF ARSON STARTED NEAR LONDON

Police Homes are Scenes of Assaults. Part of Widespread Campaign of Murder and Arson by Sinn Fein is Belief.

(Special to The Guardian) LONDON, May 15.—Violence, involving bloodshed, which the police attribute to a Sinn Fein campaign to terrorize London commenced at midnight Saturday in various suburbs of London and altho the countess had been in the west of London.

Several of the suburban towns were visited by armed men whose primary object appears to have been arson but, who, when interrupted resorted to shooting. Three people were wounded, one of them probably fatally. A man and his wife in St. Albans were shot. In a majority of cases the houses set on fire were occupied by persons connected with the Royal Irish Constabulary. A Golf Record In Calgary

(Special to The Guardian)

CALGARY, May 16.—Using only a putter Fred C. Lewes of Calgary went around the tough nine holes of the Calgary country clubs course in 40. He was matched against B. B. Wright, of New York, and beat both. He used the putter for every stroke even the drives on which he averaged about 200 yards, a good part of which was made up in the roll of the ball. The feature has never been approximated locally.

KIRKLAND LAKE, Ont., May 16.—An upturned canoe, a pair of mitts and a paddle tell the tale of an early Sunday morning tragedy. Mike Masuk who recently lived in Toronto is missing.
