TO THE ELECTORS OF WARD FIVE

Having been a number of terms at the Council board, I am again offering myself for election.

I believe in economy, but not to the extent of having our public properties, particularly our streets, deteriorate, so as to be valueless, and at some further date require an enormous amount of money to put them in proper condition again.

I am a firm believer in boosting our city to the outside world, particularly so when we have every reason.

I am in favor of giving relief where needed, but the city should receive work from those men who are able to perform same — work such as beautifying our City.

In reference to arrears in taxes, it is appreciated that at the present time some citizens find it difficult to pay these, particularly so those out of employment.

I firmly believe, however, that those who are able to pay should pay, and not take advantage of present conditions as a screen for themselves.

This is the only way the city budget can be balanced, and all citizens undoubtedly believe in a balanced budget.

At the present time I am of the opinion that the citizens are paying all they can in the way of taxation, and therefore pledge myself, if elected, not to sanction any increase.

It is generally recognized that the depressing period of the last three years is fading away, and we are gradually hitting the upgrade for brighter and better times.

As my time is limited, I don't contemplate making a personal canvas.

I thank the electors for their support in the past, and you have my record on these occasions.

I cannot make a personal canvas, but this opportunity is taken, however, to solicit your support at the forthcoming civic election the fourteenth instant.

J. E. BLANCHARD.

PLANT TREES TO CURTAIL ACREAGE

(Canadian Press)

REGINA, Feb. 9—Planting of trees both east and west and north and south through the centre of every section of land on the prairie would result in the desired curtailment of wheat acreage, according to Hon J. F. Bryant, Saskatchewan minister of public works.

In addition, his plan would result in retention of moisture and prevent drying out of land by hot winds; help to keep roads open in winter: furnish a wood supply for every farm; shelter birds which would assist in keeping down insect pests; help materially to bring back rainfall to drought- stricken areas and add to the beauty of the landscape, he declared.

The minister declared the government should make contracts with farmers in dried-out areas to summerfallow a strip 10 rods wide through the centre of the section and cultivate trees for ten years after planting. In consideration of this the government could furnish the trees.

PRESBYTERIAL MEETING IN HEARTZ HALL

The following is the report of the annual convention of the P. E. I. Presbyterial which met in Heartz Memorial Hall, Charlottetown, Jan. 23rd and 24th. The first meeting opened at 2 o'clock with the president, Mrs. Hammond Toombs, in charge of the devotional exercises which opened with the singing of hymn 138, "Thy Kingdom Come in Every Land," followed by prayer by Mrs. John Profit.

The president based her remarks on the Scripture reading which was taken from St. John's gospel, chapter fifteen. Her message was that every member be so consecrated to Christ that the work in His service would bear "fruit, more fruit and much fruit."

The prayer hymn, "O Jesus I Have Promised," was followed by the roll call of societies by Mrs. L. R. Allen. Thirty-nine societies answered.

The following committees were appointed:

Press: Mrs. T. M. Linkletter, Summerside; Miss Laura Crosby, Cornwall.

Nominating: Mrs. Hasen Howard, Cornwall; Mrs. John D. MacFarlane, Crapaud; Miss Elma Inman, Carleton; Mrs. W. E. Aitken, St. Peters; Mrs. Wallis, Breadalbane.

Resolutions and Courtesy: Mrs. Neil Darrach, East Royalty; Miss Mae MacGregor, Clifton; Miss Alice Dollar, Princetown; Mrs. John Easter, North Wiltshire.

Mrs. W. A. Thompson then gave the address of welcome to the visiting delegates in her pleasing and capable manner and in closing recited a poem of welcome composed by Mr. Thompson. Mrs. Pringle of Montague fittingly responded.

Greetings from P. E. I. Presbytery were conveyed by Rev. J. M MacLeod, who spoke of the W. M. S. as being the right hand of the church and commended them for the masterly manner in which they carried out the marching orders of Christ—Go ye.

The president's address followed. She took as her subject "The Universal Need."

Stock taking — toward what ideal are we striving? The years are doing something of permanent value to us all. What have these years brought to us? They have been economically hard and sometimes impossible, retrenchment, workers withdrawn. On the other hand workers who have carried on against heavy odds and in the face of great personal sacrifice but the great forces of the world are the unseen forces—the power of prayer, truth, justice and brotherhood. These shall be the great values of life.

Facing the year through the different branches of W. M. S. work. We must set our faces against the advance of the liquor traffic and set before the youth of our land the example of St. Paul, "they that are true, honest, just, lovely and of good report." The professed followers of Jesus must be such that people will take knowledge of them. We must seek guidance from God in quiet meditation with Him then bring His message to our societies.

The hymn of consecration, "I am Thine O Lord," was followed by reports of secretaries.

Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. L. R. Allen, reported seventy-nine auxiliaries, an increase of two over last year. Three evening auxiliaries. Total membership 1,859. Two societies only reported 100% attendance.

Mission and Baby Bands reported by Mrs. E. R. Woodside. Forty-nine bands, one new, one re-organized. Total membership 1,021 including 85 life members. Subscribers to World Friends 327. Total raised by Mission Bands $1,-351.50. Baby Bands $14.85.

In the absence of Mrs. D. M. Sinclair the report of Mission Circle Secretary was read by Mrs. Pringle. There are only five such societies with a total membership of eighty-four. The $331.61 raised was mostly free-will offerings.

Associate Helpers Secretary, Mrs. Harold Newson, reported 142 members. Nineteen take Missionary Monthly.

Stranger's Secretary, Mrs. L. H. Douglas, reported 1,790 calls made by secretaries of local societies, clothing, coal and baskets of food taken, 61 homes furnished with magazines.

The report of the Temperance Secretary, Mrs. Horace Wright, was read by Mrs. Hasen Howard. Of the eighty-eight letters sent out only forty were returned. Thirteen of these reported one whole meeting devoted to temperance. One debate on temperance was held. Others reported reading extracts from temperance magazines at each meeting. A continuance of the study of temperance in schools was urged.

Miss Elma Inman, Supply Secretary, reported parcels sent to the three mission stations of Newfoundland and Labrador, Maritime Missions and Trinidad. Total value approximately $500.00.

Missionary Monthly and World Friends Secretary, Mrs. John Andrew, reported a decrease in the number of subscribers to Missionary Monthly and urged every member of the W. M. S. to read this worthy magazine. She also reported 397 subscribers to World Friends.

Literature Secretary, Mrs. John Sterling, reported by Mrs. Matheson. Suggestive program leaflets are more in use than the study book. Catalogue of literature may be obtained from Mrs. A. M. Phillips, Wesley Buildings, Toronto, also certain editions no longer printed may be had by paying for cost of sending.

Christian Stewardship Secretary, Mrs. G. H. Mutch, reported by Mrs. Tait. Only eight auxiliaries sent word that amount allocated was too much. Forty-three percent use envelope system. Where used ninety percent raised allocation.

Treasurer, Mrs. F. E. Boothroyd, reported total amount raised by auxiliaries $9,446.80; Mission Bands $1,359.56, Evening Auxiliaries $743.04, Expense Fund $117.87, Bequest of late Mrs. Boundy, South Winsloe, $100.00.

The Treasurer's report was followed by a prayer of dedication by Mrs. Lockhart, President of Trinity W. M. S.

A quiet half hour of devotion led by Miss Elma Inman concluded the afternoon session.

The evening session, a public meeting held in Trinity Church, was opened by a group of the Trinity C. G. I. T., who led the devotions. Then followed a duet by Mrs. Roy Cudmore and Mr. George Johnston. Solo, Mrs. Jenkins. The address of the evening was delivered by Rev. Dr. Ramsay, who stressed the missionary need of today. "Only one third of world's population is touched by Christianity. We must go forth to heal as well as to teach." The fields are ready to harvest. Except for Russia every nation welcomes the missionary. In closing the speaker threw out the challenge, Christ or chaos! By our brotherly conduct let us prove that there is peace in the world.

Violin solo, Miss Thelma Teed
Closing hymn, No. 389.

The morning session opened at 9.30 with a very beautiful memorial service led by Rev. Mrs. Wallis of Breadalbane.
