J. J. HUGHES M.P. ON THE BUDGET

(From Hansard.)
Well, Sir, the Conservatives were successful in 1891, but that did not save them from the disclosures and from the consequence of their misconduct for so many years. Early in the session of 1891 the Liberals promulgated their charges and I will tell you how they proceeded. They were not content with insinuations and innuendos. On the 11th of May 1891, Mr. Tarte, then member for Montserrat, from his place in the House made this formal charge against the then sitting member for Quebec West, the Hon. Thomas McGreevy, and the then Minister of Public Works, Sir Hector Langevin, and this is the opening paragraph of the charge:
That J. Israel Tarte, Esq., a member representing the electoral district of Montserrat in this House having declared from his seat in the House that he is credibly informed and that he believes he is able to establish by satisfactory evidence, that &c.
And he charged the member for Quebec West and the Minister of Public Works of that date with misappropriation of the public funds to a colossal extent, with the connivance of the officials of the Public Works Department, the chief engineer of that department, and he asked a committee of the House to make an investigation, and the matter was referred to the Privileges and Elections Committee. And what was the result? The Hon. Thomas McGreevy was driven out of parliament, Sir Hector Langevin retired from public life, and officials of the department had to be dismissed because every allegation and statement charged by Mr. Tarte was abundantly proven before the committee. Then the Conservative government came to take alarm. They feared that if this was allowed to go on something would happen. I find that charges were made against other members in a similar way. On the 23rd of September, 1891, Mr. Lister rose in his place and made this charge against the then Postmaster General, Mr. Haggart:
In accordance with the notice I gave yesterday I beg to move that James Frederick Lister, Esq., member representing the electoral district of West Lambton in this House having declared from his seat in this House that he is credibly informed and that he believes he is able to establish by satisfactory evidence, that &c.
Mr. Lister then refers to a contract with certain gentlemen for certain railway construction and his charge continues:
The said contract and the works in connection therewith were completed by the said contractors, to whom they were a source of great profit.
During the whole period covered by the said contract, the Hon. John G. Haggart, now Postmaster General and a member of Her Majesty's Privy Council for Canada, was a member of the House of Commons for the south riding of Lanark, and still is such member.
That the said Hon. John G. Haggart became and was beneficially interested in the profits of said contract which accrued to the share thereof standing in the name of the said Peter McLaren, and has received large sums out of the said profits.

Something New For Spring

This is the cry we hear about this time of the year, and it is only right. When nature is renewing itself, why should not man renew his apparel. If he wants to succeed in his line of business, (no matter what it may be) he must, look the part, because a man is judged by his appearance, if his attire is correct he will command the respect of his fellow man, and (women also).

Think the matter over and when you have decided come to us and see what we can do for you in the line of clothing, you will be more than repaid for your trouble, for we have the goods, and have a knack of putting them up that make their wearers look prosperous, and up to date.
