THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block--Charlottetown

The latest news first of all.

John A. Steel, station agent at Vernon River, was in the City yesterday.

James Cushing, the well known hockey player, has returned to Moncton after a visit to this city.

The S. S. Stanley came into port yesterday looking none the worse for her recent reported wreck.

No Guardian reader should miss the special announcement of New Wonderland on page four today.

Robert Ellis and daughter Miss Jessie Ellis, of O'Leary, were passengers from this city west yesterday afternoon.

Norman and Mrs. Macpherson of West Hill Street, Jamaica Plain, had as guests over Thanksgiving Mrs. J. T. Harper and daughter of Somerville and A. Bruce of Brockton.

The person who picked up a parcel on the street last week addressed to Canada Newspaper Syndicate, Ltd., Montreal, and bearing The Guardian stamp will confer a favor by leaving same at this office.

Among the outward passengers from this city yesterday were H. H. Cox, Moral to Montreal; Mrs. Norman Campbell, city, to Kensington; D. D. Campbell, Toronto, en route to Montreal; Rev. H. E. Thomas to Westmoreland, N. B.

At the annual meeting of Division No. 1 A. O. H. Sunday afternoon, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:—Honorary President—Michael Curran, President—Hugh F. Connors, Vice President—Frank Hennessey, Financial Secretary—Robert Crooks, Recording Secretary—James Coyle, Treasurer—Victor Coyle, Chief Marshal—Frank Murray.

The Guardian yesterday had a pleasant call from Malcolm McDonald of San Francisco, Calif., who has been absent from this Province for the past eight years. Mr. McDonald is a son of John McDonald of Caledonia, and came home in answer to a telegram stating the regrettable illness of his brother Norman.

At the Fruit Growers meeting yesterday A. A. Moore of Pownal had an excellent showing of apples. He exhibited eight varieties including the Ben Davis, King, Baxter, Wealthy, Alexandra, Bishop Pippin, Northern Spy and Pewaukee besides a basket and box of large Baxters. They are an excellent showing and show that this Province can grow first-class apples.

Friends in this City will learn with pleasure that B. Bayfield Williams, barrister formerly of Charlottetown, and now of Edmonton, is rapidly forging ahead in the West. Mr. Williams for a time was in the office of Short, Cross & Biggar, at Edmonton, but recently went into business for himself opening an office in the Patten & McDougall block.

Rev. Thomas Marshall, formerly of St. John and now superintendent of maritime missions for the Methodist church, was in the city last Sunday. In the morning he preached in Fairville Methodist church and in the evening in Queen's square church. The graphic Mr. Marshall was pastor of Grace Methodist church in this city before going to Sackville to live.

The purchaser of goods' furnishings will view with much interest the exceptionally fine display of requisites in Mr. Trainor & Co's show window on Queen Street. Everything needed to make the outfit complete and stylish is there displayed and the average customer will help have the air of fashion and quiet elegance, so select are the goods shown. The ladies are not forgotten for in the other list of window are displayed samples of the superior lines of ladies' and children's coats, while the daintiest creations in silk and wool scarves are there in tempting array.

"Our Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites enriches and strengthens the blood tones up the nerves and restores general health in every way. If weak and run down give it a trial and you will soon be convinced of its merits. Sold at 75c a bottle—A. W. Reddin, Phem B.

The steamer Inverness is still on the beach at Grand River. A diver from the tug James Reid is making a survey of the steamer and the condition of her bottom, and the prospects of floating her will be known when he reports.

Among the arrivals registered at the Victoria Hotel, City, yesterday, were T. A. McDonald, Cardigan; J. W. Andrews, St. John; J. C. Ferguson, Bourke; J. A. Melrose, St. John; P. M. Arsenault, St. Chrysostom; D. R. McDonald, Bedouque, Dr. R. H. McDonald, Bedouque.

The Guardian had a pleasant call from L. H. D. Foster, Marshfield, yesterday who has just returned from the Amherst Winter Fair. Mr. Foster exhibited Plymouth Rocks poultry. Out of his four entries he won three first and a second prize. This speaks well for his Buff Rocks.

From a Charlottetown Print Shop comes to The Guardian some superior samples of job printing the work of Archibald Irwin, 18 Richmond Street. The different lines of work appeal instantly to the experienced eye as the papers used are of the latest texture while the different colored inks are set off to artistic advantage in the clear and well defined type used in the display and body portions of pamphlets, cards, etc.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Hillborough Boating Club Friday night, several changes in the bye-laws were approved of and adopted. The committees are working faithfully and next year will have several changes and improvements at the boating house which will tend to make boating more popular than ever in Charlottetown. The executive hope to be able to place at the disposal of the members next season at least a dozen new pleasure boats, which with those already in use, will supply the demands.—Pat.
