H. Craswell Treasurer of the Prince Edward Island Orphanage, Mt. Herbert, acknowledges with thanks the sum of $15.00 being donation from Caledonian Club, City.

In the Victoria School, Moncton, Master Charles Dorman, formerly of this city, made excellent marks in Grade II, Victoria School. Charlie's former schoolmates will be pleased to hear this.

The choruses for the League of the Cross social and dance on Wednesday, Feb. 15, will be Mrs. (Judge) Blanchard, Mrs. (Dr.) Conroy and Mrs. Alex. McDonald. Mr. J. F. Trainor will furnish the music.

Mrs. J. A. Harris and family wish to express their sincere thanks to their many friends and others who by their many kindly acts of sympathy did so much towards lessening the great bereavement sustained by them recently in the death of a husband and father.

The market yesterday was well attended and large quantities of haw and pork were being handled. The change in prices from those of former markets were—butter twenty-two to twenty-four cents, eggs ten to twenty-three cents, fowl ten to eleven cents per pound, pork eight to eight and three quarter cents and oats thirty-six cents.

The concert, followed by a pie social, given in the Pownall Hall on Monday night under the auspices of the Pownall Methodist Church, was of superlative excellence. But after reading the names of the artists who were announced to take part every one anticipated nothing but the best and these anticipations were fully realized. The one thing which was regretted was the absence of Prof. Watkins, the regret being on the disappointment of the crowded audience. Percy J. Stanley opened the programme with "Whisper, and I Shall Hear," and later on again delighted the audience with "The Driver." Miss Bertie Stewart's recitation, "The Cremation of Sam McGee" was beautifully rendered and enthusiastically applauded. Ronald S. Kaye contributed two items, viz: "Killfrankie" and "Old Father Thames" which were manifestly appreciated. Parker Hooper did finely in the song, "Three for Jack." Among the ladies Miss Kathalen Moore gave a fine rendering of "Anchor." It is perhaps, needless to say that Miss Hazel Bremner's interpretation of "Mary of Argyle" left nothing to be desired. Miss J. MacDonald did splendidly in "Good night, Beloved, Good night." E. Shaw gave a difficult reading in masterly style, "Wh n Alban sang." The programme was varied by a cornet solo and a trombone solo, both well rendered by N. M. Siller. Mrs. Auston Judson and Miss Hazel Bremner rendered valuable service at the piano. Too much appreciation can not be expressed for the careful planning and untiring energy of Austin Judson, to whom the success of the concert was so largely due. The arrangement of the program and the transportation of the "platform" were both admirably carried out by him. After a hearty clap for the Charlottetown visitors, J. MacDonald mounted the platform to "auction" the baskets. There is no doubt that he understands his business and—well, the people could not help buying and being pleased with their bargain when they got them. When the auction sale was finished the people gave one big yell, meaning "Thank you," for Mr. McDonald. Just before midnight the silence was broken by the notes of a cornet playing "And Lang Syne" which seemed to intimate that visitors and hosts had had a mutually good time.

Our Guaiacol Emulsion is in greater demand this season than ever before. The sales are steadily increasing, and this is the best testimonial we could ask for—you will make no mistake in taking this preparation. It never fails where a chronic cough or any lung trouble is concerned—40c per bottle. E. A. Foster's Central Drugstore Sunnyside.

WHAT CAN I DO FOR MY SKIN-TORTURED BABY?

is the Despairing Cry of Thousands of Mothers. A Scotchwoman Tells How Her Child was Cured.

"What can I do for my skin-tortured baby?" How many worried, worn-out mothers, whose children are suffering with eczema, letter or other torturing, disgusting humors, have asked themselves this question. Through neglect or improper treatment, some minor eruption has developed into a distressing and unsightly affliction. Simple treatments fail, and stronger ones are tried, sometimes so harsh that the suffering is increased rather than allayed. Even professional aid has proven useless, and the feet is ever-present, that the skin disease will become chronic, turning the child's future into a nightmare of physical and mental misery.

Such mothers, who have witnessed their children's suffering and who have undergone the long, sleepless, nights and distracting anxiety which they alone can realize, will understand the grateful tale that prompted this letter from Mrs. John J. Swan, 5, Victoria St., Inverurie, Scotland, and will read it with keenest interest:

"I use Cuticura Soap steadily for my baby's skin. She had the eczema when she was three months old. She was in an awful mess all over her body. We never thought she would get over it. We sat with her night and day for a month, expecting every minute to see her die. The doctor used to come and tell me to rub her with but I did her no good. My mother was home from America and she told me to try Cuticura Ointment and to wash her with Cuticura Soap. There was a great difference when I used the ointment. It seemed to soothe her and she slept. I used three boxes of Cuticura Ointment and she was cured. She has the purest skin and is the fattest baby next to mine. The doctor declares, 'I am glad to tell a miracle story about it.'"

And that the success of the Cuticura Remedies is not confined to the treatment of eczema, is amply proven by Mrs. M. A. Schwin, 674 Springwells Ave., Detroit, Mich., who writes:

"When my little Vivian was about six months old, her papa had a boil on his forehead. At that time the child was covered with prickly heat and I suppose in scratching it her own head became infected, for it broke out in boils, one after another. She had about sixty in all and I used Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment which cured her of them entirely. I do not think any one can praise Cuticura Remedies too highly."

That mother may test the efficacy and economy of the Cuticura Remedies for themselves, the Potter Drug and Chem. Corp., 121 Columbia Ave., Boston, Mass., will send free on application, a generous trial box of Cuticura Ointment, sufficient to afford immediate relief in the most distressing forms of eczema, rashes, itchings and scalings of the skin and scalp. Under the influence of Cuticura Ointment, the itching and burning stop, the child falls into a refreshing sleep, the mother rests, and for the first time, perhaps, in many weeks, the peace falls on a distracted household. The Cuticura Remedies are sold by druggists everywhere.

An Optical Pointer There enters into the sale of every pair of glasses, an element which places the transaction outside the field of ordinary competition. There are numbers of standard articles which can be bought in half a dozen different stores in Ch'town; if any store sells cheaper than the others, that is undoubtedly the most advantageous place to buy. In the optical business however, it is very different, with every pair of glasses, the optician sells, is included his skill in scientifically fitting those glasses, and to the public, the latter should be by far the most important factor in the transaction. Therefore get the best service—cheaply as you can, but—GET THE BEST. G. F. HUTCHESON Expert Optician drmtf
