Chariot, plus the other four. There isn't a ray of doubt of the fact that this is a truly super-special that ought to make you "look away" toward the Prince Edward Theatre for your share of the fun and romance.

King Of The Cowboys Is At His Best In "Silver Spurs"

Roy Rogers, Republic's dashing "King of the Cowboys" is seen at his best in his newest picture "Silver Spurs" now showing at the Capitol Theatre for a three day run.

The story hinges round an oil project which is being financed with the hard earned money of small farmers and the like and the success or failure of the undertaking is subject to their being able to obtain a right of way through the swank ranch belonging to a play-boy by name of Jerry Johnson, who is being influenced against signing by Lucky Miller, a crooked gambler who has plans to get the oil rights for himself, plus Johnson's ranch.

Daring Man-Hunt Provides Action In 'The Falcon's Brother'

An exciting man-hunt through New York City and a Long Island coastal town for a mystery killer who is clicking off his victims with deadly regularity offers the plot background for "The Falcon's Brother" latest of the RKO Radio mystery drama now playing at the Empire Theatre.

As in former Falcon offerings, George Sanders portrays the resourceful, poised, amateur sleuth whose keen insight into the operations of the criminal mind enables him to untangle the most baffling mysteries. Cast as his associate and screen brother, is Tom Conway, Sanders' real life brother, who makes his first appearance in the detective film series. Jane Randolph plays a courageous girl reporter who uncovers valuable clues that eventually lead to the head of the Nazi terror ring.

FOR THE PROTECTION OF THE NATION

Just as the navy helps protect Canada's coastline, so does Scott's Emulsion, the great family tonic, help protect the health of the nation. This world-known preparation is highly recommended because it contains vital elements everyone needs to build up resistance to colds and common winter ills. Taken regularly, Scott's Emulsion tones up the system, improves appetite and general well-being.
This pleasant-tasting tonic is especially valuable as a food supplement for people who begin to slow down, tire quickly or are recovering from illness. Rich in natural Vitamins A and D, Scott's Emulsion is 4 times easier to digest than plain cod liver oil. This year-round tonic will help protect the health of every member of the family. Buy a large, economical bottle today - at all drug stores.

ARMY HAS FORMER GRID STAR

This is Sgt. Murray Griffin, a team-roller of Ottawa and Toronto football teams and now a Canadian Army sports sergeant stationed at Camp Borden. Griffin's specialty was tearing holes in opposing front lines, and the husky sergeant could really tote that leather. He made one appearance in the "L to L" game this season when Toronto's R. C. A. F. Hurricanes defeated him from the Army for an O. R. F. U. game (Canadian Army Photo)
