THE Y. M. C. A. basket ball committee met last evening and readjusted the schedule of the games. The teachers decided to withdraw from the League and the Prince Edward Athletic Club team was admitted. There will be no games tonight. The first game will be played next Thursday night.

POST OFFICE INSPECTOR WHEAR very thoughtfully anticipated the failure of the Express to cross from Point du Cheny yesterday afternoon and had ordered the C. P. R. mails from the west to come by way of Picou for yesterday. In consequence of this prudent action these mails were received and distributed at the Post Office last night.

JOHN JARDINE, Bangor, had a narrow escape from drowning on Tuesday last, while sailing on Merrill River. Mr. Jardine was encouraged by excellent catches became excited and ventured too near the channel where the ice had been working in the current. Mr. Jardine was precipitated into the water and was rescued by James Murphy and William Dunphy. If it had not been for the presence of mind of these men, Mr. Jardine might have met a watery grave.

THE death took place at Park Corner, December 1, after a severe illness of five weeks, of Annie R. McKay, only daughter of the late Daniel McKay. Deceased will be sadly missed both at home and in the Presbyterian Church at Long River, where she was a member of the choir and an ardent Sunday school worker. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. A. D. Steilling, who paid a fitting tribute to the worth of the departed. Interment took place in Mapleque Cemetery, beside her father and brother.

AT the Police Court yesterday the prohibition case against Ellen E. Gray resulted in a conviction for second offence and fine of $200 or four months imprisonment. In the case against Thomas Hughes, G. McKinnon was the only witness heard. He testified to frequent purchases of liquor from the defendant at $1 to $1.25 per bottle. E. O. Brown for the defendant on the plea of illness in his family, asked for a adjournment which was granted till Thursday. The case against James Callaghan was adjourned one week for judgment.

THE Ellis Stock Company had last evening the drawback of very stormy weather, and just as the curtain went up the lights went out. But some lamps were procured and the Company luckily went on with the play. "Hello Hill," a really amusing comedy, as it proved, though pre-empted under no small difficulties. Miss Longfellow and Mr. Trevor in their song specialties were heartily enjoyed. Tonight the play will be "Wife in Name Only," an engaging society drama which promises a good entertainment.

The Guardian's correspondent at Morell writes: The mild weather of the past few weeks was brought to a sudden termination last Sunday when one of the worst of island snowstorms set in. The wind blew a hurricane and it is understood that much damage was done along the northern shores. Among other buildings, H. D. McEwen's large lobster cannery was swept away by the wind and high tides. The smelt fishers are doing a lucrative business; some of them making excellent catches with bag nets. The debate which was to take place in Morell Hall on Wednesday the 12th inst. has been postponed. An interesting discussion is expected to take place as the society now numbers among its members some strong speakers.

FURNITURE. As announced last week, extraordinary values in brass beds and couches. Brothers—We hold every record for value giving and extraordinary low pricing in the history of brass-bed selling. We have sold more brass beds in a given period of time than many two houses and we are increasing our business by leaps and bounds. It is a leading feature of the most complete stock of furniture shown anywhere hereabouts. A store does not continually do more than it deserves. There must be a good reason why we do so much more business than other stores in brass beds. We will show you some of the reasons when you call Special showing of Christmas goods. Jan. Pat. & Co. 12-7d3f
