MRS. DANIEL RILEY PASSES AWAY AT HIGH RIVER; IS WIDELY KNOWN AND FORMER P. E. I. LADY

HIGH RIVER, June 23.—Mrs. Riley, wife of Senator Daniel Riley and one of the most widely known pioneer women of Alberta died here Saturday evening after an illness which lasted two months.

Prominent in Alberta Red Cross circles, the late Mrs. Riley had been a resident in Alberta for almost 40 years, having come west from her home in Prince Edward Island. She is survived by her husband five sons, Claude, resident at Olds; Neil, Willow Creek and George, Kenneth, and Daniel, all living in High River.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 2 p. m. from the family residence.

A woman of outstanding personality and ability was the late Mrs. Riley. She was a leading woman not only in her community, but throughout the province as well as having been a hostess of more than ordinary graciousness, when attending the parliamentary sessions at Ottawa with her husband. While essentially interested in her home, she was of a very liberal mind and held many interests outside her domestic interests.

All through the war years she worked faithfully for the Red Cross and was president of the local society. The Daughters of the Empire, too, claimed her as a worthy and capable member and she gave particular thought to the educational work of the order. She was for some years a provincial officer of the I. O. D. E.

In all branches of the church she took much interest and was a leader of women's work in the Presbyterian church for many years.

A sterling type of woman, broad-minded and interested in the finest phases of work Mrs. Riley has been an inspiration to her community at High River and she leaves behind her an indelible impression.

Mrs. D. E. Riley

On Tuesday afternoon, the funeral of Mrs. D. E. Riley was held from the family residence, with Rev. Morrison of Chalmers' Presbyterian Church, as the officiating clergyman.

The business places of the town were closed, and hundreds of friends from far and near and from every walk of life, were gathered to pay honor to one who had so often welcomed them to her home. Many old timers were present, who had shared with Mr. and Mrs. Riley in the experiences of pioneer days and who had learned to value to the full, her gift of quick kindness and friendship. Old and young and little children attended the service to pay their final tribute of affection and esteem.

Through the years, in spite of the limitations of pioneer life, Mrs. Riley held high her standards of refinement and intellectual aspirations. Her interests outside of her home were largely of a religious and philanthropic nature, and she was instant in response to the cry of the broken and suffering. Her accomplishments in Red Cross and patriotic lines, during war years and after, were far beyond her strength, and she has befriended many in their needy hours.

The funeral services were of a simple and beautiful nature, and at the last her five sons and her nephew George Thomson, laid her to rest. Great sheafs of flowers from numerous organizations and from individuals, were a tribute to her personality and a message of sympathy to Senator Riley and the family.

Mrs. Riley's death which occurred on Saturday evening had not been unexpected. She had been seriously ill as a result of a fall sustained in Ottawa, two months ago. Mr. Riley wired at once for Mrs. Neil Riley who left for Ottawa, assisted in bringing Mrs. Riley senior home, and has since scarcely left her bedside. She has been a most devoted daughter.

Besides her husband and five sons, Claude of Olds; Neil of Willow Creek; George, Kenneth and Dan at home, she leaves a sister, Mrs. Ramsay of P. E. I., and four brothers of Los Angeles, Ben of Vancouver, William of P. E. I., and Fulton

MALPEQUE

Fanning School examination brought to a close a very successful year's work on Friday afternoon. Upwards of forty attended the closing exercises. The principal's report which is as follows, will be of interest to many: Date, June 27th, 1934.

Fanning School was opened on the morning of Aug. 27th, with an attendance of forty-two pupils. Later fourteen more enrolled making a total of fifty-six classified as follows: forty-eight of school age in the district, three outside the age limits and five from surrounding district. Of the fifty-six, twenty-five were enrolled in the advanced department and thirty-one in the primary department. In October, two pupils removed from the district so that at the present time there are fifty-four pupils enrolled. Classified according to grades they are as follows: Grade 10, three; grade 9, five; grade 8, three; grade 7, four; grade 6, eight; grade 4, four; grade 3, five; grade 2, three; grade 1, ten.

The average attendance for the year is 39.3. The pupils have not only attended regularly but have also been diligent in their work. The result is that with very few exceptions they have passed their grading examinations and are being promoted today. Three pupils have done the work of two grades during the year one grades I and II, one grades II and III and the third grades VII and VIII.

Besides doing the regular work as outlined by the course of studies, the following activities were carried on: A school fair was held in Darnley, but was not a very great success, although the pupils of Fanning School won a fair share of the prizes. The same interest does not seem to be taken in school fairs now as in former years. I would like to say just here, that Mr. Murphy has informed me that all exhibits winning first prizes at the rural school fairs are to be exhibited at a great central fair to be held in Charlottetown this fall. No doubt this will arouse more interest and keener competition among pupils and scholars. I hope Fanning will lead the best.

A club called the "Jolly Workers" formed by the pupils of the advanced department with Louise Burns as president, held regular meetings on Friday afternoons throughout the term. In the primary dept., a health club called "Happy Members" with Dugald MacNutt as president, also held regular Friday afternoon meetings. These meetings in both departments proved very entertaining and highly instructive.

In December, a school concert and Xmas tree was held in Malpeque Hall, from which the sum of $28.60 was realized. This sum was spent on gifts for the children entertainment, supplies, books etc. There is still $7 on hand.

The portfolio and project maps which have been prepared by the pupils are on display today. There is also a literature lesson "The Lark at the Diggins" portrayed on the sand table.

Before proceeding with the examination I wish to take this opportunity of expressing my deep gratitude to the pupils, parents and others of the community, for their kindness to me during my sojourn here. I have spent a most enjoyable two years as teacher in Fanning School. I wish to thank the trustees, particularly for their ready assistance and hearty co-operation with us in our work. We will now proceed with the examination.

EXHIBITION TO BE HELD AGAIN

LUNenburg, July 5.—That the Fisheries Exhibition, first of its kind to be held in Canada and inaugurated successfully here last September, will become an annual event, is indicated by the decision of the executive to hold a second exhibition on a more comprehensive scale during the coming autumn. At the formal opening last year, W. A. Found, Deputy Minister of Fisheries, predicted that "the fisheries exhibition will develop into an institution that will be recognized over the entire Dominion of Canada." The provincial and Dominion governments have appropriated grants of one and two thousand dollars respectively to assist in defraying the cost.

In order to give the entire fishing fleet an opportunity to participate, the exhibition will begin on September 30, lasting a week. Last year it was held in the middle of September.

The fishing schooner race to be called off Lunenburg harbor as a part of the programme is again expected to be a big drawing card. News that the champion racer Blue-noose has gone aground on the coast of Newfoundland, spread gloom over the town, where plans for the only slightly damaged canoe as a race were being made, and word was being passed.
