"Doggone, they got me playin' Cupid now!"

If Uncle Snazzy could see me playin' cupid for this pair of fighting love birds, he'd say, 'Robin you're softer'n a ripe tomato.' But what you gonna do when a couple of kids like these sniggle up to you and ask for help?"

"Hopalong" Rides Again At Capitol

"Hopalong Cassidy" comes riding to the aid of despairing ranchers who are trying to build a railroad spur which will make it unnecessary for them to pay tolls for their cattle to cross the property of a greedy land baron on the way to market in the new action romance, "Range War," which opened yesterday at the Capitol Theatre with William Boyd cast again as the famed range hero. Called in by the banker who is backing the ranchers, "Hopalong" goes to work to find out who stole the payroll needed so badly to keep the construction crews at work. By means of a clever ruse, "Hopalong" pretends to be an outlaw, joins up with the gang engaged by the outlaw to prevent the construction of the spur. "Hopalong's" daring moves lead to a climax which tops anything ever seen in a "Hopalong" film for action and thrills. Russell Hayden is seen again as "Lucky," "Hopalong's" saddlemate, Betty Moran provides romantic interest opposite Hayden, and Britt "Speedy" Wood, droll harmonica-playing Clarence E. Mulford character, joins "Hopalong" and "Lucky" for the first time in this picture "Range War."

INTEGRITY AND HONESTY OF MR. R. H. JENKINS IS STRESSED

(Calgary Exchange, No. 8, 1939)

Few men had gained such confidence and esteem from Calgary citizens in as short a time as Robert H. Jenkins in his nine years in this city, Dr. George W. Kerby said when he assisted at funeral services for the former Prince Edward Island M. P. Wednesday afternoon.

The presence of friends who filled First Baptist Church for the service testified to the place Mr. Jenkins held in this community, Dr. A. C. Archibald, who officiated at the services, said. More than 600 attended the rites.

Members of the Calgary Rotary Club and of Zetland Lodge A. F. and A. M. occupied reserved sections of the church. Mr. Jenkins was a member of both organizations.

Prayers were led by Rev. E. Melville Aitken, minister of Central United Church, who had known Mr. Jenkins both in Charlottetown and in Calgary.

Pallbearers were Charles Butcher, William Graham, Maurice Brown, Blair McMillan, Louis Petrie and Dr. W. G. Carpenter.

"I HAVE NO FEAR"

Tribute to Mr. Jenkins' Christian life and to his long record of community service was paid by Dr. Archibald. He had been an alderman and later mayor of Charlottetown, and had been member of parliament for Queens County, P. E. I.

Dr. Archibald emphasized that this should be a "white funeral," without a note of gloom or defeat.

Just as Mr. Jenkins died, he whispered to Dr. Archibald, "I have no fear," the minister said.

The family into which he was born 66 years ago in P. E. I. was one widely known for integrity and honesty.

"For the monument to Harold Jenkins, look about you in this church," said Dr. Archibald. "This gathering of his church brethren, friends and business associates are a tribute to the character of his life."

Mr. Jenkins was chiefly known for his friendliness and for his integrity, the pastor said. "You could not be with him for five minutes without sensing his warm heart and his tenderness."

He had been dominated by his Christian faith and was deeply religious, though he seldom talked of religion. He was a member of the evangelistic band of First Baptist church and frequently made personal calls in this work.

TRULY LOYAL CITIZEN

Dr. Kerby characterized Mr. Jenkins as a man of generous impulses and kindly sympathy. He was a truly loyal citizen of Canada. "The influence of such a good life is never lost: when a good man dies, he leaves a light behind," he said.

During his Calgary residence Mr. Jenkins was a director of Jenkins Groceteria, Ltd. He is a brother of H. M. Jenkins, president of the groceteria firm.

More than 100 floral tributes, including many from his former city of Charlottetown, made the front of the church a bower of flowers.

WILL FOLLOW COLUMBUS

PORT OF SPAIN, Trinidad, Dec. 19—The yacht Capitana, owned by Samuel Morrison, a Harvard history professor, will leave Trinidad Thursday to continue in the centuries-old wake of Christopher Columbus.

The party which includes Mrs. Morrison will spend Christmas in the Dutch West Indies colony at Mouth Lake, Maracaibo, before sailing for Cartagena and Panama. Morrison is retracing Columbus' voyages.

Ch'Town Royalty And Vicinity

At the close of the morning service in York United Church on Sunday last, Mr. Harold Vessey, who has since gone to Ottawa, was presented with an address and generous purse, in appreciation of his services to the community. The address was read by Rev. J.A. Nicholson. Mr. Vessey has spent his life so far in this neighbourhood and has always taken a responsible part in public affairs. His place will be hard to fill.

Miss Minnie McCormack, Stanhope, who has been in Charlottetown for some time past, has returned home. Before leaving she spent some days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard McCabe, St. Avards.

Private Tennis Gallant, Kensington Road, of the Prince Edward Island Highlanders and Private John McInnis, St. Avards, of the R.C.O.S. who have been home on sick leave, have returned to their respective units on the mainland.

Many friends of Mr. Percy Gay, Mt. Edward Road, proprietor of the Sunshine Island Dairy, St. Avards are glad to see him out again after an operation in the Prince Edward Island Hospital.

The general store at the juncture of Union Road, Kings County and the Georgetown Road, lately occupied by Mr. Sterling MacLeod of Cardigan Head, has again changed hands and is now the property of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Day, late of Hermitage. This is probably the oldest business stand in this part of the province. The ground was purchased from the late Mr. Peter Campbell, New Perth, some eighty years ago by the late Mr. Edward Lane of Mt. Mellick who erected a commodious dwelling store and warehouse. In 1884 Mr. Lane sold to Mr. Caleb H. McNeil of New Perth, now of Georgetown, who operated a successful business until five years ago. Mr. McLeod again opened the stand for business about three years ago. Mr. Day moved in recently.
