ABUSE

Have you ever thought of it? THE VALUE of your eyes. What would you do without them? Probably you would not part with them at any price.

What you may not understand is that abuse and neglect wear the eyes down. Experience shows neglected eyes fall early.

The Public Examinations were held in the New Glasgow School room on Wednesday afternoon, June 30th and was attended by quite a number of parents and visitors. The pupils were examined in the various subjects by their teacher, Miss Mildred Brown and by their quick answers gave evidence of good training. The pupils of Grades I, II and III dramatised two lessons which were greatly enjoyed. The first prize for perfect attendance was won by Master Arnold Dickieson. Prizes were also awarded to Herbert McCoubrey, Charles Dickieson and George Brown. The teacher gave a prize of money to the pupil who could remain the longest in a spelling match. Two pupils on the same side, were left, Masters Creelman Dickieson and Sterling Howatt and the prize money was divided between the two boys. A treat of icecream was passed by the teacher and presented the National Anthem was sung. Miss Brown has been re-engaged as teacher for next year - G.
