Have only one doctor—just one

No sense in running from one doctor to another! Select the best one, then stand by him. No sense in trying this thing, that thing, for your cough. Carefully, deliberately select the best cough medicine, then take it. Stick to it. Ask your doctor about Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for throat and lung troubles.

The entertainment at the Opera House Saturday night was splendid. The moving pictures were good and clear and Jack Marsa as the Hobo Juggler quite captured the house. The singing by the Berinis was welcomed, as usual with eagerness and applause by the audience, who enjoyed this part of the program immensely.

The subject of the sermon given by Rev. J. F. Floyd in Central Christian Church, last evening, was "The Mount of Olives, Bethany, and the Ascension of Jesus." The sermon was the closing one of the series on Our Tour Through Bible Lands, which Mr. Floyd has been giving during the winter, and was a great effort.

The death of Helen McInnis occurred at the Charlottetown Convent on Saturday the 17th inst after a brief illness of nine days. The deceased, who was the youngest daughter of the late Roderick McInnis, of Eganville, was a very bright, intelligent girl and was beloved by all who knew her. Much sympathy is felt for her young brothers and sisters in their great and sudden bereavement.

John Greenlees of Glasgow, Scotland referred to in Saturday's Guardian was registered at the Queen Hotel and left Saturday for Summerside en route to the Pacific Coast. A serious accident nearly took place on Grafton Street—Saturday afternoon when a little boy who was standing on the rear of a truck wagon, was thrown off, landing in a mud puddle. He appeared to be slightly stunned, but picking himself up managed to get out of the way just in time to save himself being run over by the team which was backing into the side walk.

The Northumberland left Pictou at seven o'clock yesterday morning, reaching Charlottetown at 10.40 a.m. and considering the high wind her run was an exceptionally good one. There were about twelve passengers aboard including several knights of the grip, and she carried a full freight. The remains of the late Hugh MacDonald, who died in Sydney and will be buried in Montague, and of the late Capt. MacLeod who was drowned in Sorel, were brought over by the steamer.

Saturday evening a meeting for the formation of the Junior Baseball League was held in one of L. B. Miller's rooms. Representatives from the following teams were heard from:—Tanners, Orlebars, Mic Macs and Teddy Bears. The Mic Macs and Teddy Bears, being dissatisfied at the way things are being managed this year, left the room in a body, saying they would form a League of their own. Later these teams held a meeting in the Y. M. C. A. and it was decided to form a League in which there will be three teams namely Mic Macs, Teddy Bears and likely the Y. M. C. A. team. These three teams as will be seen are of a good class and some of the senior sports of this town would do well to get together and put up a cup suitable for the Junior Championship of this City.

A TRIUMPH For The Millinery Department

The greatest crowd, the greatest business, the greatest enthusiasm in the history of the millinery department. We never heard such enthusiastic comments, praise and compliments.

The general comment seems to be that the showing of the new hats at Stanley Bros has scored a notable triumph not only because of the beauty variety and smartness of the display, but of the sensible becomingness, of the hats.
