HOMEWARD TO TREE

Far away places have called men to roam.

Away from their birthplace—their parents and home;

Out over the ocean—the prairie and plain—

With hearts of adventure—war duties and pain.

They traveled the highways—city ways and rails.

The asphalt and red clay—and blue muddied trails.

On islands and mainlands—in the East and the West—

In Europe and Asia—and under the crest.

Of the globe that curves over—the rounded out whole;

Thru the land of Unista—and up to the pole—

As far away places have called men away.

From the hearths of their home fires—some ever to stay.

In calm silent slumber—on land or in sea—

In their giving and dying—for man's liberty.

Now their heart beat is muffled—but their soul is set free

And they wind their way on ward—and homeward to Thee.

—Peter A. Reilly.

The bride looked very pretty in a tailored suit of navy, a becoming hat of the face black hat, and other black accessories.

She was attended by Miss Jean Egan, who wore a suit of aqua, black hat and accessories. Mr. Gordon Brown capably supported the groom.

After the ceremony the wedding party and immediate relatives were tendered a supper at the home of the bride's parents. The young couple will reside at Pownal, where the best wishes for their future happiness go with them.

LIBBY - JUDSON WEDDING

A pretty wedding was solemnized in the United Church, Milltown, N.B., at 3 o'clock, Christmas afternoon, when Kathryn Louise, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. Judson of Elm Park, formerly of Charlottetown, was united in marriage to Chase Melvin, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. Libby of Clais, Maine. The church was prettily decorated in keeping with the Christmas season.

The double-ring ceremony was performed in the presence of relatives and friends by Rev. A. R. MacIver, pastor of the church.

As the bridal party entered the church Darrell MacPherson sang "On Perfect Love" and during the signing of the register, "D'fough the Years".

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a dress of rose moire with black and gold accessories and wore a corsage of red roses.

She was attended by her sister, Shirley, who wore a dress of royal blue crepe with black and white accessories. Her corsage was pink roses. The bridegroom was attended by Sidney Holmes of St. Stephen.

Mrs. Judson, the bride's mother, wore a dress of aqua blue crepe with black accessories and a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Libby, the bridegroom's mother, wore a dress of cinnamon brown with brown accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. They will reside at 59 Germaine St., Clais, Maine. The groom is employed by the New England Telephone and Telegraph Co. Craswell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Craswell. He had been seriously ill for several months and despite the best medical skill and tender nursing he gradually weakened, until his spirit entered "that rest that remaineth for the people of God". Left to mourn their irreparable loss, are his wife the former Lena Roberts of Winsloe; three sons, Ira, Athol and Roy, an only brother William of Ferryvale, Alberta; also his aged father and mother who deeply mourn the loss of a much loved son. The funeral took place from his late residence on the afternoon of December 21st, Rev. A. E. Piercey and the Rev. Mr. Barbour officiating. Pallbearers were Victor Buntain, Paige Nunn, Cyril Toombs, James Gallant, Charlie Craswell and Gerald Stevenson. Burial was in St. Mark's Cemetery, Rustico. Beautiful floral offerings bore silent testimony of regard for a loved one gone. Mrs. Wesley Craswell and Family wish to thank kind neighbours and friends for kindness shown them during their recent sad bereavement. Also those who sent flowers, letters and cards of sympathy.
