WHY BE HOPEFUL.

We should be hopeful because of the boundless possibilities of life, the realization of which is limited chiefly by our faith and hope, made real in honest endeavor. History is bright with the record of men and women who, though bound down by the discouragement of weakness, disease, opposition and restricted opportunities, have kept ever before them the light of hope and have accomplished great things while others far more favored have failed.

How many of us are making the most of our opportunities? How many are stopping to think how great and how many are the opportunities of life that we may enter into? Will we? Name the men and women whose lives and achievements excite your greatest admiration, and then consider how much of what they are doing it would be possible for you to do if you really set about it.

The trouble with most of us is that we do not make our hopes high enough, that we fail to feel as we ought to feel that God calls us to use the utmost talents He has committed to us, and that not only in material things and the achievements of a work-a-day life, but in the realization of spiritual power. In experiencing the presence of the Holy Spirit there are glorious possibilities for us.

LATEST FROM THE THEATRE

PROCTOR'S THEATRE.

For the early April days, Proctor's 5th Avenue Theatre has prepared a bill of Springtime tendencies well calculated to bring joy to the jaded appetites of the most persistent theatre-goer. Now is the time of the year when production houses are thinking of closing for the season, but the two-day houses are just starting their animal "new blood" policy of securing attractions fresh to this style of entertainment. On the 5th Avenue programme, stellar honors will go to Carter, The Mysterious, an illusionist, magician and prestidigitateur of such weird ability that he has been hailed as "greater than Herman". Second will come those perennial favorites, James and Bonnie Thornton, with all of their old ability freshened by new and original material. In the "new blood" division will come Louise La Gai and her Company in a daring Terpsichorean novelty, including the sensational Tigris dance and Arthur Dunn, the giant comedian and Catherine Hayes, the little Soubrette. Others on the long programme are Al and Fanny Stedman in their newest conceit, "Piano Capers"; Empire Comedy Four; Deiro, accordion virtuoso; Mardie Grae, musical comedy soprano; Brothers Bradshaw, comedy contortionists; The Kratons, marvelous hoop rollers; Kaufman Brothers, Dixie dandies and Edison's Kinetophone.

BUNIONS O JOKE

Not to the man who has to move about, put a slight application of "Putnam's" softens the thickest tissue and cures the bunion quickly. Just as good for warts, lumps, and callouses is Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor. Use no other, 25c., at all dealers.
