CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. Wallace Stead and family wish to thank their many friends for their kindness during their sad bereavement also for floral tributes.

A slight fall from a cherry tree which was not thought serious at the time but was followed by more serious complications was the cause of his death.

The funeral was held in the Presbyterian church at Hampton of which he was a consistent member.

The service was conducted by the Rev. John Sterling of Bradshaw and the Rev. Mr. Fitzpatrick of Truro.

The pallbearers were W. H. Inman, W. B. Trowsdale, Joseph Ferguson, Allan Ferguson and David Holm.

He leaves to mourn his widow, who was a daughter of the late Hon. W. S. McNeill, of North Rustico, and three sons and two daughters, viz. O. L. Myers, of Bakolety, Wash. W. S. Myers of Tacobia, John H. Myers, of Hampton, Mrs. S. Beaton Bonshaw and Mrs. Alex. Grieve of Colby Wash.

To all of whom their many friends extend sympathy in the loss of a kind husband and father.

"Cooking in general is much the better if Borden's St. Charles or Jersey milk with the cream left in" is used. Pure, rich and convenient.

SEED FAIR

KELLY'S CROSS SCHOOL FAIR.

In spite of the inclement weather or any fair could be held, the Kelly's Cross School Fair on Thursday, Sept. 22, resulted in a complete success. As the list below shows, all classes were very well filled. The schools taking part were: Kelly's Cross, South Melville and Maplewood, whose teachers were respectively: Misses Frances Bradley and Lizzie McGuigan, Mr. Cecil Devereaux and Miss Frances McManus. The Judges, School Inspector Doyle, Mr. Vickerson and Miss McFarlane, gave general satisfaction by their awards, though, of course, some were disappointed, like the aspirants for political honors at the various conventions. Below is the prize list:—
