THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Office in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown.

The latest news, first of all.

The tide will be high this afternoon at 2.10 and tomorrow afternoon at 3.05.

A. Flynn, driver on the P. E. I. Railway and Mrs Flynn are taking their vacation east.

Mrs. Foley, Boston, is at present visiting friends at Peake's Station. She will return home next Saturday.

Miss Rhoda Wood, Mt Allison and Miss Hilda Myers, Hazelbrook, are spending their vacation in Central Royalty.

There will be services tomorrow in the Presbyterian Church in Rustico at 11 a. m., in Stanley Bridge at 3 p. m., and New Glasgow at 7.30 p. m.

Miss Margaret Furness, Vernon River, was in the City yesterday.

The steamer Harland goes up West River today at three o'clock. Return fare twenty cents.

The S.S. Trinidad sailed yesterday morning at seven. She had on board a large number of passengers.

Miss Ethel J. Taper, Winsloe, left yesterday for Boeton on a month's visit to friends and relatives.

Lemuel P. Sims, of French River, New London, is visiting in Sydney the guest of E. C. and Mrs Scott, High Street.

Acting under a warrant the Police yesterday made a search of the premises of Allan McDonald, King St. but nothing was found.

Miss Laura E. West, York, left yesterday on an extended visit to Chatham, N. B. and will be the guest of Rev G. F. and Mrs Dawson.

Miss Caroline Connor, deaconess, for the First Methodist church has arrived in this City from Ottawa and is a guest at the parsonage.

Rev H. H. McNeill, of Annapolis, is having a three weeks' vacation. His pulpits are being supplied by Rev Joseph Gaetz—Wesleyan. Both gentlemen are known in this Province.

At the St John Financial district meetings, held recently, addresses were given by Rev Thos Marshall, Sackville, and Rev. R. M. Campbell, both of whom formerly resided in this City.

Rev J. F. Floyd will preach in the Central Christian Church Sunday evening on "How to Estimate Christianity." This will begin a special campaign for Declaration Day which will be observed on Sunday, Sept. 26.

Miss Margaret McPherson who has been visiting friends at Belle View leaves today on return to Boston. Miss McPherson is stenographer with the Quincy Mutual Insurance Company. She is another successful graduate to the Union Commercial College.

Rev S. F. and Mrs Huestis are visiting at Chatham, N. B., and will proceed west, returning after the meeting of the General Missionary Board which assembles this year at Ottawa—Wesleyan. Mr and Mrs Huestis have many friends in this Province.

Among the outward passengers from this City yesterday were A. A. Bartlett, C. D. Rankin, to Toronto; Miss Louise McCready to St John, Miss Mamie Ross to Summerside; Miss Pio Campbell to Kensington, W. H. McKee to New Glasgow, Charles Fisher to Montreal and Briare Smith to Gaspe.

An effort is being made by some parties in this City to obtain an order for the release of Mary Jane McMillan. Mrs. McMillan is now serving a sentence for an infraction of the Prohibition Act and those responsible for the movement claim that her health is becoming impaired. The Guardian, however, has learned from good authority that this is not the case. Mrs. McMillan's health, if not better than usual, is as good as it ever was.

The Sherbrook Record says: One of the most attractive and up-to-date business signs in the city is that of the R. W. Hogg Co., house furnishers, in the Metropole Block. It is an electrical sign, at the top of the building, and there are no less than five hundred and twenty globes in use. They are arranged on a sign board twenty nine feet long and fourteen feet high. Around the border is placed red lights and these are so fitted that it gives the impression as if it was making a continuous circuit. In the centre is the firm name. This goes out ever so often and each line comes in separately.—Mr Hogg is a son of Robt Hogg of the Customs, Charlottetown.

The new reels at New Wonder-land to-night are: A Strange Resemblance and The Faithful Old Horse.

—Anyone wishing a portrait painted should write to A. Alex McLeary, Eldon, Belfast, at once. He is now offering high class paintings to Islanders at just one half the regular rates, or one hundred dollar life size portraits in oil for fifty dollars, fifty dollar pastels, same size for twenty-five dollars, and same size in free hand crayon for ten dollars. Those who do not know what they want will learn of something of interest by writing him at once 7-15rdt.

The daily average circulation of The Guardian for week ending August 28th, was 7,368 copies a day. The circulation of The Guardian is greater than that of all the other Daily newspapers on Prince Edward Island combined. Attention is called to the statement in another column.

Do not send communications to individual members of staff. Everything should be addressed "The Charlottetown Guardian, Charlottetown, P. E. I." and on the left hand corner at the bottom of the envelope should be "Advertising," "Subscription," "Editorial," or "News" according to the contents.

Amherst Head says—Last week we received a note from Rev Harry Burgess, the pastor, telling of the splendid work done on this circuit by Consul General Wilber and A. M. Bell, of Halifax, in the addresses delivered by them on the 22nd ult. As a result some of the best subscribers on the circuit have very largely increased their givings.—The above gentlemen are well known in this Province.
