VICTORIA THE VILLAGE BY THE SEA

Mrs. William M. Inman, Victoria, was a visitor to the City last week.

Miss Mary MacKenzie, North Tryon, was a visitor to Victoria last week, the guest of her friend, Miss Florence Inman.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles MacKenzie and young son, Allan Charles, Westmoreland were recent visitors to Victoria, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Inman.

Miss Annie MacDougall, Bank of Nova Scotia, Victoria, accompanied by her aunt, Mrs. Stewart Inman, Victoria spent very enjoyable visits recently in Tryon and Westmoreland.

Mrs. Percy Delaney, North Tryon was a visitor to Victoria last Tuesday, the welcome guest of her aunt, Mrs. Harry Clark and Mr. Clark.

Miss Laura Lowther, Provincial Sanatorium, Charlottetown, was a week end visitor at the home of her cousin, Mr. Evan Wright and Mrs. Wright, Victoria.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Stewart and young daughter Pasty, Victoria, are spending some time in Amherst, N.S., guests of Mrs. Stewart's parents who reside there.

Mrs. James Littlejohns, Moncton, N.B. is spending this week very happily in Victoria, the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cameron.

The many friends of Mrs. Ab Clark, Victoria, are pleased to learn she is doing as well as can be expected after a delicate operation on her eye last week in the Prince Edward Island Hospital, Charlottetown.

A vessel loaded with coal for the dealers here and at Crapaud arrived in this port early this week and caused some stir and a revival of trade, a reminder of by-gone days in the Village by the Sea.

A poet once wrote words similar to these: No flowers, no leaves, no sun—that's November. In this most wonderful of all months, it does not apply to the first three days of it for many can still go to their gardens and rather surprisingly lovely bouquets and the second growth of many plants is reported and what we hope may be a mild winter, so heres hoping there may not be too many grim and grey November days. However, after all there is a charm about all the seasons of the year.—V.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wood, Somerville, Mass. left Friday enroute for home, stopping over at Traveller's Rest for a few days after spending a most enjoyable summer in Victoria. Mr. and Mrs. Wood are among the successful Islanders abroad and their friends look forward to seeing them return for another season rolls around. Mr. Wood is an ardent lover of the great outdoors and Mrs. Wood is an expert needlewoman, both having travelled considerably. A visit with them proved very entertaining indeed. They expressed themselves as very much pleased with their length of vacation here, enjoying the quiet life of this country village and the many other pleasant opportunities available in the way of fishing, wild fruits etc., and many other pleasant outdoor pastimes of which our lovely summer climate presents not a few.

The newly organized Y.P.U. met in the Institute Room on Friday evening, October 31st for their first regular meeting since organization. There was a good attendance and a lively interest was manifested. The president, Miss Freda Howatt was in charge of the meeting. Quite a number paid their fee and became members. Mr. John Knox, assistant secretary was in charge of the minute book and other secretarial duties in the absence of Miss Annie MacKenzie. The secretary, Douglas Readings from Scripture, was given by Mr. Evan Wright and Mr. and Mrs. Allison Lea, after which Rev. Mr. Head took over the meeting dealing largely in his discourse with the asking of questions on the great leader, Moses. Hymns sung were "He Leadeth Me", "Jesus Saves" and "Take My Life". Meeting closed with prayer and benediction by Mr. Head.

A number from Victoria attended the hot chicken supper at Hampton Hall on Wednesday evening, October 29th put on by the ladies of the Hampton and DeSable United Churches and which was largely attended. The tables presented a very pleasing appearance with their decorations of lovely late autumn flowers and were laden with an abundance of beautiful cakes, tasty relishes and other delicacies, to say nothing of the appetizing plates of chicken and all that goes with it served by a number of expert waitresses who certainly "knew how". While waiting their turn at the tables the joyable time spent in social chat by the many who had gathered, some coming long distances to attend this affair, for when it comes to putting on a chicken supper the ladies of the Hampton and DeSable churches just can't be beaten "that's all".

McAssey, Sumner, P.E.I., and Mr. Irving is the son of Mrs. Molly Irving and late A. D. Irving of Moncton, N.B. They will reside in Sherbrooke.—S.

Burlington

The spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Bowness at Norboro was pleasantly crowded on Thursday evening, October 30th, 1947, when neighbors and friends gathered to wish them good fortune, as they go take up residence in their new home at Kensington. When Mr. and Mrs. Bowness had been seated with their family Aubrey and Joan, Mr. James Lawless in the capacity of chairman spoke regretfully of the departure from Norboro of the Bownesses, but pointed out the consoling fact that their new home was not far distant. An address read by Mr. Ian Webster left no doubt, as to the high esteem in which they are held in the district, an esteem won by their ever ready willingness to assist in all community endeavours and neighborhood needs. The gift of a tri-light floor lamp and a smoker's set was made by Mr. Elmer Stewart, on behalf of neighbors and friends.

The school children remembered Joan with an address, read by Master Lloyd Lawless, and a handsome birthstone ring was presented to her by Georgina Glover.

Readings from Scripture were given by Mr. Evan Wright and Mr. and Mrs. Allison Lea, after which Rev. Mr. Head took over the meeting dealing largely in his discourse with the asking of questions on the great leader, Moses. Hymns sung were "He Leadeth Me", "Jesus Saves" and "Take My Life". Meeting closed with prayer and benediction by Mr. Head.

Albion

Don Messer's orchestra played for the dance in the Albion Parish Hall the night of the 28th instant. There was an unusually large number in attendance.

At the Anglican Church, Killdare Capes, on October 28th, the marriage took place of Miss Betty Travers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Travers, Killdare Capes, to Mr. Wesley Hardy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hardy of Albion. The Reverend J. W. Nowe was officiating clergyman. They were attended by Miss Elizabeth Hardy and Mr. Reginald Travers.

Hallowe'en passed by very quietly. The children had a lot of fun, and enjoyed their usual non-destructive pranks.

A very enjoyable Hallowe'en Party sponsored by the Community Club was held at Union (Dock) School on Monday night. The chief feature of the program consisted of games, magic surprises, and etc. Refreshments were served by a committee of the school, who gratefully thank all those who so kindly helped to make their party a successful one. Proceeds were in aid of the Hot Lunch project.

SOIL-FILLED CUP GIFT FOR PRINCESS

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 4 — An engraved silver loving cup, filled with soil from Independence Square, will be sent to Princess Elizabeth as a wedding gift from the Philadelphia Jewish Community.

Philip Klein, publisher of the Philadelphia Jewish Times, which arranged the gift, said the reason for sending the cup full of soil "is to dramatize to the future ruler of Britain the present Palestine crisis."

"We hope that next year, on the occasion of Her Highness' first wedding anniversary, we can send her a cupful of free Palestinian soil."

"Sorry, Precious—but I just couldn't let them have the honey-golden, delicious Grape-Nuts Flakes!"

"Was it me—to think I'll never get home to a tamping bowlful of those malty-rich, nut-sweet Post's Grape-Nuts Flakes!"

"Forgive me, Dear! But I'd never be able to carry on myself, without Grape-Nuts Flakes' carbohydrates for energy; proteins for muscle; phosphorus for teeth and bones; iron for the blood and other food essentials!"

"Farwell, then, Hubert—and be sure to make the children some Grape-Nuts Flakes cookies from the recipe on the package!"

"I will, My Sweet! And I'll make them as skillfully as Grape-Nuts Flakes are blended, baked and loaded from wheat and malted barley. What's more—they'll be as easy to digest!"
