

Silver of Quality

Rely upon your own judgment as to the beauty, finish and style of a silverware pattern, but in making your purchases remember that is the name stamped on silver plate of proved quality.

There is a wide variety of handsome patterns from which to choose, but do not confuse other "Rogers" with the genuine 1847 ROGERS BROS.

—THE MORNING DAILY Guardian can be obtained at Lafferty's Tonsorial Parlors, Summerside.

—WANTED—Two class A options. Give breeding, price and terms. Box 224 Summerside. 6139-10-21-m11

—MR. E. P. FOLEY, Guardian representative in Alberton will gladly receive subscriptions and advertising matter.

—MR. W. K. MCGOUGAN, Secretary of the Globe Fox Exchange, P.O. Box 10, is the Guardian Agent in Summerside.

—SUBSCRIBERS should renew a week or two before the time they have paid for has expired and thus not miss an issue, as all papers are discontinued promptly on expiry date.

—TRYON PERSONALS.—Mr. Vince McInnis, Carleton, spent Sunday in Tryon.—Mr. Harry Donley, Albany, spent Sunday in Tryon.—Mr. Hal Crockett and Mr. Roy Huestis, Summerside, spent the weekend visiting friends in North Tryon.—S.

—ALBERTON—Quite an improvement is in progress on the sidewalk on Church street. The work so badly needed is being done by Messrs. Arsenault and Graves. Business during the past week was very brisk, a harbinger of the busy fall which is not unusual for the town of Alberton. The streets of Alberton are now all wired and it is hoped it will not long before Mr. Von Tilburg will say, "Let there be light," and there will be light.—A.

—DARNLEY.—Mr. John Harding, V.S., of Norobo passed through Malpeque, Darnley and Spring Valley recently in the interest of his Profession.

—Mr. Charles Champion of Darnley Bridge has about completed a new barber shop at Malpeque Corner. Mr. M. S. Woodside has returned home having visited friends at Stanley Bridge, Clinton and Margate.—Messrs W. J. and Marvy McNutt attended the McGougan-Simpson wedding at Malpeque Wednesday morning.—Mr. Peter McNutt and Son, Malpeque are painting the outside of their store, Joseph Conick, Painter, has the contract.—Mrs. J. W. Pickering and two sons of Sea View left on a four weeks visit to her former home at Andover, N. B.—Mr. John Casley of Spring Valley bought of Joseph Morrison his herd of Holsteins consisting of one bull and two females. Although Mr. Casley is bordering on 80 years of age he still believes in keeping nothing but pure breeds to make farming pay.—Mr. Keir Bernard of Park Corner was in Malpeque on Wednesday on a buying trip.—Messrs James Hickey and Chas. McLennan of Darnley attended the dance in the C. M. A. Hall at Kensington on Wednesday night.—Contractors Craig and Clark are about finishing the Manse at Malpeque, having stripped all off the old shingles, put in new windows, papered and re-shingled it, and took down some needed partitions making two rooms into one. The painters are now finishing the inside and out and when finished will give credit to the congregation.—Mr. Thomas Champion, Baltic, having sold his property at Baltic is moving to Bradalbane having bought at that place a large farm. What is Baltic's loss is Bradalbane's gain.—Mr. Robert H. McNutt of Lower Darnley is erecting a concrete root-house, size 10x26 and 7 feet deep, all cement. It is the first of its kind around here.—Mr. Melford Woodside is the designer and Foreman of the work.—The writer is glad to be able to report that the condition of Mrs. James Mountain is much better and she is now able to sit up for a few hours a day.—N.

—MR. A. N. MCKAY, station agent and Mr. Alex Matthews, telephone manager of Alberton, were in Summerside Saturday.—A.

—Mrs. Morrison, Dominion, C. B., President of the Rebecca Lodge of the Maritime Provinces, will visit Maple Leaf Lodge No. 10, Summerside, Wednesday evening, October 24th, and will be pleased to meet a large number of the members.—X.

—His friends regret to learn of the illness of Capt. Chas. Veno who is well known in Alberton. Mr. Veno took sick aboard his schooner in Chatham, N. B. and was taken to hospital. On Wednesday, his son-in-law, Mr. Geo. Mather, of St. John, Chatham and took him back in his vessel. Everyone hopes to see the veteran captain around again shortly.—A.

—NEW RICH BLOOD is what is most needed in the declining years to keep up energy and vitality. That Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is a wonderful help in maintaining good health and prolonging life is attested by the writer of this letter.

Mr. Stephen J. Leard, North Tryon P. E. I., writes:—"At seventy-five years of age my heart gave out and became very irregular and weak in action and would palpitate. My nerves also became weak, and I could do nothing but lie in bed in a languishing condition, losing strength and weight. In that condition I began using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and am cured. Had I not obtained this treatment I would now be in the box with the roof over my nose. At eighty-one I have an energy which means go, and I am writing this letter so that old people like myself may prolong their health and strength by using this great medicine." 50c a box, 6 for $2.50.
