HURRY—TAYLOR—An interesting event took place at Marsfield Presbyterian Manse on Wednesday afternoon, March 29, when Miss Margaret E. Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney D. Taylor, Winsloe, was united in marriage to Mr. Charles A. Hurry, son of Mrs. Hurry and the late Augustus Hurry of West Royalty. The bride looked charming in a gown of blue crepe with grey accessories and was attended by his sister, Miss Addie Taylor, who was attired in pale green crepe. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Stanley Hurry. A reception was given by the bride's parents in honor of the newly married couple. At seven o'clock a sumptuous supper was served to about thirty guests. The numerous wedding gifts were both beautiful and valuable. Previous to her marriage two showers were given in honor of the bride, and at each she received many beautiful gifts. After the wedding supper, a very large crowd of senders, in wiled costumes arrived and before departing wished the happy young couple all success and happiness in the future. (Patriot please copy).

OUR CHAUFFEUR MR. BENNETT

I pick up my pen with a desire to write, I droop not in sorrow from morn until night. But I realize the fact that depression is here. And I sincerely hope its funeral is near. It was a rough trail to climb, but to the pinnacle he got.
