Mr. J. F. Profit, Stipendiary Magistrate, quite capably presided, and supplied all the necessary dicta. The whole programme was manipulated in such a way as to present the numbers in popular form and the applause that greeted the actors was a demonstrative proof of the excellence of the entertainment. Mrs. Ed. Urich and Mrs. George Ramsay, the controlling element and the originators, are deserving of the highest praise for the success that attended. Special mention must be made of the dramatic number from Indian River, which proves that this intelligent aggregation can vie with the best in entertaining superiority. The numbers from Summerside were indeed excellent and the whole coalescence was most skillfully handled.—Y. ARE YOU CLEAN INSIDE? INSTALLING TANK.—Workmen are busy in Kensington excavating accommodations for a large gasoline tank that they are planting. While the embryo does not show any signs of sprouting, still they claim that it will constantly spout, not political, but gaseous. Messrs. McFarlane are bound to keep pace with the progress of the age without showing any "gas."—Y. ENTERTAINMENT ENJOYED.—The Enmore Dramatic Club presented the drama "Valley Farm" on Wednesday evening April 15th. Despite the inclement weather and bad roads the hall was well filled with an appreciative audience. Messrs. Theo. Enman and Philip McArthur opened the programme with several excellently rendered violin selections. Allison Raynor, as the hero of the drama, played the part of the city lover to perfection; while Charles Frost, his country rival, displayed remarkable skill in acting out his different role. The character Silas Holcomb, farmer, and father of the heroine was very realistically portrayed by Mr. Percy Adams. His happy genial disposition suited the role exceedingly well. Mr. Gordon McArthur, as the New York lawyer impressed the audience very favourably by his business-like manner, and the clever way in which he helped to bring about once more a happy state of affairs. The character Azariah Keep, clock tinker, was very skillfully portrayed by Mr. Wesley Moore. His utterances being very droll, caused much merriment. Mr. Moore also acted the role of Jennings, butler in the New York mansion, in a very realistic manner. The character, Hetty Holcomb, heroine of the plot, was charmingly portrayed by Miss Estelle Stewart. Needless to say her clever acting did much towards making the play the success it was. Isabel Carney, the city girl, whose haughty demeanour, and scheming plans brought much happiness into the heroine's life was very creditably acted by Miss Catherine McKenzie. Mrs. Gordon McArthur, as Mrs. Rutledge, mother of the hero displayed much talent, acting her part with the grace of manner and proud charm the role required. The part of Alvira Holcomb, the spinster aunt, was skillfully presented by Miss Blanche Raynor. Especially amusing was the instance of her and Silas' visit to New York, when their contrived sayings and doings was the occasion of much merriment to the onlookers. Eliza Ann Tucker, the community gossip, was well rendered by Miss Pearl Stewart. This role also afforded the audience much amusement. The character of Verbera, the hired girl at Valley Farm, was very cleverly presented by Miss Gladys Bryant. Between the acts two choruses were sung. The violin music, and the step dancing by Stella and Willie Harvey, were much enjoyed. At the close of the programme the pies and baskets were ably auctioned off by the chairman Mr. Fawcett Bryant. The tidy sum realized from the sale of baskets, saloon and collection at door will go towards the Enmore Hall fund. Grateful thanks is extended to all those who in various ways gave of their time and assistance in helping to make the entertainment a success. Since the bad weather and muddy roads prevented many from attending, quite a number have expressed disappointment, and a desire to have the drama repeated. Hence, yielding to the popular demand, the play will be reproduced on or about the 30th of this month. To critical observers we would say that any noticeable lack of skill in the portrayal of the various parts was largely due to the fact that all taking part in the play were amateurs. It is to be hoped that this, their first successful venture, will not be their last.

Mr. A. E. Crofton, lay-reader in charge. (G). RECOVERING HEALTH.—It is pleasing to be able to report the almost complete recovery of Mr. Arthur McDonald of New Perth. Mr. McDonald recently underwent a very serious operation for appendicitis, which although of a very serious nature, proper care and attention has played such an important part, that Mr. McDonald is in hopes to be able to attend to his duties in a very short time.—L. FIGHT RUM RUNNERS.—Capt. Harry Bruham who spent the winter at his old home in Montague, left recently for Halifax, to join one of the government steamers engaged in the service of protecting our shores from the ravages of the boot-legger. Capt. Bruham is first officer in one of these boats and is one of the most qualified mariners sailing in these or other waters, being born and brought up almost on the sea.—L. VESSELS DUE.—The schooner Sea Farm, Capt. Sydney McIntyre is daily expected from Pictou to load produce. Capt. Alvin Allen was in Montague last week, his vessel the Victory W. T., being in Georgetown waiting a favorable wind for Craapaud. Capt. Allen is another of our Montague young men who have reached the top of the ladder in their calling, holding a master's certificate for coast wise and foreign waters. Alvin is certainly a chip of the old block, when it comes to pushing ahead.—L. PRESBYTERIAN SERVICES.—The continuing Presbyterians of Montague and surrounding districts held services in the Montague Baptist Church on Sunday morning, last, when a large congregation had the pleasure of once more listening to the Rev. A. S. Stewart, whose kindness on this occasion is greatly appreciated. The aged gentleman delivered a splendid sermon, taking as his text the five foolish, and five wise virgins, and strongly emphasized the importance of being always ready and to ever have our lamps trimmed and burning and be ready to meet the bride-groom when he comes. Splendid singing featured this service. Mrs. William Garlick very kindly favoring the congregation with a beautifully rendered solo. Next Sunday evening this congregation will again have the privilege of hearing the Rev. D. McVicar of Cardigan, who has kindly consented to again occupy this pulpit. A cordial invitation is extended to any who wish to worship with these good people. BUSY PORT.—Not for many years has shipping been so brisk at Montague as during the present season, a steady stream of potatoes pouring into the town for the past two weeks, ever since the roads became passable. Of course a few days more will see the end of this rush, when the farmers will begin cropping operations. During the past few days, the Potato Growers Association shipped a large number of cartloads of potatoes, and it is understood more will be shipped in a few days. Dealers are paying the following prices: Blues thirty-five cents, Reds, thirty, and whites twenty-five cents per bushel.—The following schooners, mostly from Newfoundland have arrived in Montague and are all loaded and ready to sail for their various destinations.—Netra A., Capt. Palmer for Whitehead; Ruby, Capt. Chaisson, for Port Hood; Annie E. Francis, Capt. Holt for Harbour Buffett, and Catherine B., Capt. Shade for Fortune, all loaded by Poole and Thompson, also the Queen Mae for Grand Bank, loaded by McLeod and McGregor. More vessels are on the way and will be given quick dispatch. No change is anticipated in price of potatoes, and although the price is low farmers are apparently satisfied and are not grumbling at the mere pittance they are receiving. The scriptural passage that the laborer is worthy of his hire, was certainly not intended for the P.E.I. farmer.—L.
