The Sydney Record of Aug. 3rd. speaks thus of the Crawford-Hyde entertainment. "The musical and dramatic entertainment held last night in the Temperance Hall, Sydney Mines, by Miss Tina Crawford and Miss Agnes Hyde was a magnificent success. The high expectations which the people had cherished were more than realized. Every item of a long programme was of the highest order and was enthusiastically appreciated. It is the unanimous verdict that never before was Sydney Mines favored with such a delightful and a high class entertainment. The ladies of St. Andrew's church' under whose auspices the function was held, had fixed the Hall for the occasion and had it tastefully decorated with drapery, plants and banners which made it look and feel very cosy. This evening Misses Crawford and Hyde will render an entirely new programme, beginning at 8 o'clock, and it is expected that there will not be a vacant seat in the building." (These ladies will entertain in Market Hall on Friday 24th Inst., when it is expected standing room will be at a premium. Secure your reserved seats early by calling at Mr. Enman's Drug Store.)
