LIEUT. DRAPER OF GLENS FALLS, N. B., TELLS OF HIS EXPERIENCE FOR BENEFIT
OF OTHERS

"Lieutenant William Draper of Glens Falls, N. B., popular officer in the Canadian Army, veteran of the South African and World War is an ardent champion of Tanlac.
He says:

"After putting Tanlac to the test I feel that I owe it to others who may suffer as I did to relate my experience. For three years I was troubled with rheumatism in my arms and back, and my muscles were so sore and stiff that at times I couldn't stand or raise my arms. I finally got so crippled up I couldn't walk without dragging one foot after the other. My stomach was all out of order, too, and I had no appetite and was weak and badly run down in general.
"Tanlac absolutely drove the rheumatism entirely out of my system. I have a fine appetite now, and everything I eat agrees with me. To make a long story short, I'm a well man." Tanlac is sold in Charlottetown by Reddin Bros., and all leading druggists everywhere.

MRS. D. MCKENZIE, Kensington, will be at home Tuesday, Sept. 27th, afternoon from 3 to 5, evening from 7 to 9.

death of Juliet, Quebec, of Mrs. S.
J. Whitlock Jr., which sad event occurred on Thursday. The remains accompanied by Mr. Whitlock will arrive home tonight and the funeral from 14 School street will be announced later.

25th the services in the Brookfield congregation will be as follows:

3 p. m. and Brookfield 7 p. m. Rev.
T. F. Smith of Athens Vermont will speak at the morning service.
At the afternoon and evening services the "Rally Day" programme will be carried out.

POLICE COURT.—At the Police Court yesterday morning three parties for non-payment of dog tax were fined $2.00 and a fourth $5.00 for reckless driving was fined $20, another for first offence dismissed. One drunk was fined $10.

INSTITUTE MEETING.—The September meeting of the Cornwall York Women's Institute was held at the home of Miss MacKinlay, York Point. Miss MacLeod of the Red Cross gave a very interesting and helpful demonstration of ways to make a patient comfortable.
Plans were made for a basket social and concert on Sept. 13th, which proved most successful. The October meeting of this Institute will be held at the home of Mrs.
Herbert Prizzell, Cornwall, on Wednesday, Oct. 5th.
