IN MEMORIAM

MR. WILLIAM MAHAR

That even Montague the Beautiful is not immune from the ravages of the grim reaper, was apparent on Saturday, September 7th when the sad news was heralded that William Mahar had passed away. The deceased who was 65 years of age was born in Sturgeon. Thirty eight years ago he moved to Montague, where he has since resided, and was looked upon as a life long resident of the town. Blessed with a strong and robust constitution the gift of his forebears, he was fully able to cope with anything that came his way. A few years ago however, his health began to fail and as time passed it became evident that the strong cords which bound him to earth were gradually weakening, and despite all that loving hands and the best medical skill could do, and being fully fortified by the ministrations of his beloved pastor the Rev. O. Kiggins, he passed peacefully away on the above date.

William Mahar was one of the most optimistic of men, and could always see the silver lining in the cloud; he fulfilled the scriptures fully and to the letter in at least one of its phases, in the fact that he was a man who provided well for his own household, and in the many and varied callings which contributed to his earthly existence, whether the wind blew East or West, calm or storm, he ever exhibited that spirit of amiability and cheerfulness which is the lot of the very few. His greatest asset however, was his obliging nature. He delighted in lending a helping hand and truly to say he was kind in his bosom glow, but that charity, the greatest of all these was by no means lacking in his makeup, and in his passing a Father in Israel has fallen.

There are left to cherish the memory of a kind and dutiful husband and father, his sorrowful widow nee Ros Reilly, and three daughters, Margaret and Violet at home, Lavena, Mrs. Thos. Fitzgibbon, Boston, Mass., one daughter, Agnes, Mrs. John Cannon, Boston, Mass., predeceased him; also two sisters, Mrs. Dennis Collins, St. Montague, and Mrs. Charles Mack, Sydney, and three brothers, Auguste, Henry and Ambrose all in the United States, and one half brother, Stephen in Montreal.

He was buried in the cemetery at the graveyard adjoining St. Mary's Church, where for many years he worshipped. The following were the pall-bearers: Messrs. Simon and Edward Mahar, Daniel Reilly, Duncan McDonald, Dennis Collins, Sr., and Capt. George McEarmid.

The following bear testimony to the esteem in which deceased was held. Floral tributes: Wreath, Mrs. Fitzgibbon, Boston; Crescent, The Family; Wreath, Ella A. and Margaret, Mahar, Sturgeon; Cross, Mr. and Mrs. J. Clair, Montague; Cross, Miss Beth Vessey, Montague; Bouquet, Mrs. E. R. Campbell, Montague; Mass Cards, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Collins, Montague; Miss Gertrude Collins, Waverley, Mass.; Mrs. Katherine McKearney and Mrs. Agnes McPhee, Souris; Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lannigan, Catholic Women's League, and Holy Name Society, Montague; Mr. and Mrs. George Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Powers and Mr. and Mrs. Parker Whitlock, Charlottetown; Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Fitzgibbon and Miss Nora Cannon, Boston, Mass.; Letters of Sympathy: Judge Inman, Summerside; Miss Margaret Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Johnstone, The Catholic Women's League, Montague; Mr. and Mrs. Temple Murphy and family; Mr. Stewart; Mrs. Katherine McKearney and Mrs. Agnes McPhee, Souris; Mrs. E. Campbell and family, Charlottetown; Miss Nora Cannon, Mr. Thos. Fitzgibbon, Mr. Harry Kelley, Miss Isabelle O'Reilly and Mrs. Sadie Mahar, all of the United States. May he rest in peace.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank my friends and neighbors for their kindness shown me in the sad bereavement of my husband's death.

Knotty Problems Face Leaders At U.A.A.U. Annual

(By Arthur Merkel)

HALIFAX, Nov. 21—Hidden in the language of 42 notices of meeting from its various branches and allied bodies, some of the most vexing problems ever to face the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada were to be aired at its 48th annual convention which opened here today.

A more liberal "amateur definition", constitutional changes and a simplifying of the Union's international relations were pressed.

In varying tones, most of the 10 A. A. U. branches and the Canadian Amateur Basketball Association had resolutions before the body insisting the line between amateurism and professionalism was too fine to be enforced and attempting to make a not-too-obvious middle-ground.

Resolutions urging the application of "British principles governing sport", the idea that professionals in one sport should be allowed to play with amateurs in other athletic fields, had been passed during the past year by the Alberta, Maritime and Thunder Bay branches and by the basketball association.

The Central Ontario Branch urged "that amateurs be allowed to play with and against professionals and that professionals be allowed to play with and against amateurs" and "that cards be issued to athletes for registration purposes as formerly, not only as amateurs but also as professionals." These "departures" were recommended to be put on trial for one year "in order to expose the athletes receiving compensation for his services."

Complete elimination of Clause B in the amateur definition was sought in a resolution of the British Columbia branch. The clause states, "an athlete who has competed with or against a professional for a prize or where gate receipts are charged or a collection taken up—shall be ineligible for registration and competition as an amateur."

Creation of two new governing bodies, in track and field and boxing and wrestling, were urged by British Columbia. The move would put the sports "in affiliation with" the A. A. U. instead of their being directly under the control of the governing body. Extensive legislation regarding the control of track and field meets was also proposed.

The basketball association had a resolution before the body asking that "amateur teams in British Columbia and the state of Washington be permitted without an international permit to participate in games approved by their respective basketball associations for the current season." The request was made to "save time and expense in ar-

Amateurs Seeking "Considerations" For Competitions

(By The Canadian Press)

HALIFAX, Nov. 21—A request from the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association was placed before the 48th annual meeting of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada here today seeking that non-professional athletes be allowed to compete for a consideration, monetary or otherwise.

Faced during the summer at a special committee of the C. A. E. A. the resolution sought further amendment of the existing amateur definition "to meet present day conditions so as to provide that any body affiliated with the Union may permit athletes under its control to compete for a consideration, monetary or otherwise, under such conditions and restrictions as may be deemed advisable."

Further support for the only resolution set before the union by the hockey governors came from the basketball association in a technical way. The Canadian Amateur Basketball Association asked that "steps should be taken to amend By-Law 6 which would permit any sport allied with the A. A. U. of C. to apply to be listed as a body governing a "pastime." (The union lists cricket, golf, indoor bowling, horseshoe pitching, quoits and archery as "pastimes" and allow athletes to compete for their prizes, "cash or otherwise," without jeopardising their amateur status.)

Readmission Of Pros Is Debated

(By The Canadian Press)

HALIFAX, Nov. 21—Delegates to the 1935 convention of the Canadian Amateur Athletic Union opening here today were prepared to discuss a motion of President W. A. Fry of Dunville, Ont., that would "close the doors" to professionals seeking amateur reinstatement.

In his notice of motion, President Fry explained it had been submitted "in view of the fact that provision has been made for tryouts of athletes with professional teams without penalty."

Opposed to President Fry's resolution, however, was Secretary John Leslie of Edmonton, Alta. In his own resolution, Secretary Leslie suggested "applications for reinstatement from Class "A" professionals who have been out of competition for a period of not less than three years may be submitted to and acted upon by the President of the Union and the chairman of the National Registration Committee through the National Secretary of the Union."

The Class "A" professional, the out and out money player, rarely has been reinstated by the A. A. U. The "amateur" professionals, tabulated in Class "B", on the other hand, have had little difficulty in gaining reinstatement.

OFFICIALS SHOULD BE AMATEURS TOO

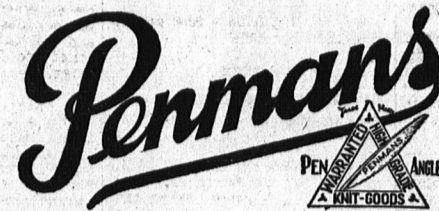

(By The Canadian Press)

HALIFAX, Nov. 21—The British Columbia branch of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada believes that not only the athletes but everybody directly connected with amateur sports should hold amateur cards.

A resolution from the branch forwarded to the annual convention of the A. A. U. of C. opening here today, urged "that all officers of the Union, dominion or provincial, and all executives of clubs, leagues, associations, commissions or other organizations in affiliation or alliance with the union must hold amateur cards before nomination or election to office."

Charge Annual Fee Excessive

(By The Canadian Press)

HALIFAX, Nov. 21—Resolutions urging a lowering of fees charged by the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada to its branches were before the annual convention of the body opening here today.

Terminating the annual membership cost of $100 "excessive" and the five cent cut taken by the parent body on each amateur card issued comparatively excessive," the Alberta branch had a resolution on the table asking "the 1935 meeting of the A. A. U. of C. to reduce the membership fee to such sum as this annual meeting of the Alberta Branch may designate, or to place the membership fee on a per capita basis."

The British Columbia branch urged "that the annual dues payable by the branches be reconsidered" and suggested "where registration of senior athletes is less than 2,000 that the dues be set at $50.00; 2,000 and less than 4,000 at $75.00; 4,000 and over at $100.00.

FIRST MUST FIND PROOF OF GUILT

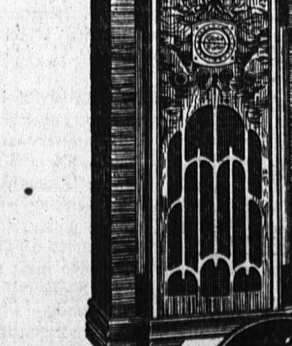

HALIFAX, Nov. 21—The principle that "a man is innocent until proven guilty" was before the 48th annual meeting of the Canadian Amateur Athletic Union, opening here today, in a resolution of the Canadian Amateur Basketball Association urging a change in the system of issuing amateur cards. The basketball association asked that cards should be issued only to athletes who could not be proven guilty of infractions of "the amateur code" within two weeks of their application. The cards would be subject to immediate cancellation if "evidence of guilt" were uncovered at a later date.
