

THURSDAY
SERVICES ENJOYED.—Mr. Walter Auld, B. A., Freetown, preached very acceptably in the three congregations at Clifton, Summerfield and Granville, on Sunday last, while the pastor, Rev. G. W. Irvine was in Alberton assisting in the dispensation of the Sacrament.—L.

FROM SOUTHAMPTON.—Mrs. Wm. Hamm, Bunbury, received a card from her son, Sgt. C. B. Hamm, saying all the boys were happy as could be on their arrival in Southampton on their way to the front. My chum and I were up to London for two days, we saw as much of the city as we could in the short time we were there.

WEDDING BELLS.—A quiet wedding took place in Saskatoon, on Sept. 1st, when Miss Marie Macinnis, eldest daughter of Mr. P. J. Macinnis, Cherry Valley, P. E. I., was married to Mr. J. S. Horan. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Fr. Laprouie of St. Paul's R. C. Church.

PATRIOTIC SCHOOL.—Every day the Canadian ensign floats over the Campbellton School, New London, and by constant association, the pupils are taught respect and love for the "old bit of bunting" so dear to the heart of true Canadians, especially during this crisis. This custom should be adopted in all our public schools. L

SPLENDID GROWTH.—Farmers of New London are well along with the harvest, which is up to, if not above the average yield. Mr. E. Williams showed the corresponding two stalks of oats a few days ago. One measured 5 feet nine inches and had 83 grains on the head. The other was a little shorter, but Mr. Williams was of the opinion that much of the field was as good as the above.—L.

PROPERTY SALES.—Mr. Hector A. Corbett, South Granville, has purchased the property owned by Miss Jennie Campbell, who now resides in Millinocket, Maine. Mr. James Mayhew, Graham's Road, has purchased Mrs. Mallett's very desirable property in Bradalbane. Mr. Mayhew is to be congratulated on this purchase, as no nicer location could be secured in this part of the country.—L.

FRIDAY
WEDDING BELLS.—The wedding of John Kenneth Whitman, of Lewiston, Me., to Miss Jennie Euphemia Profit, of Augustine Cove, P. E. I., took place on last Saturday at the residence of the officiating clergyman, Rev. F. S. Porter, pastor of Germain street Baptist Church, St. John. Mr. and Mrs. Whitman will spend a honeymoon on P. E. Island before going to Lewiston, to take up their residence.—St. John Telegraph.

PATRIOTIC FAMILY.—Mr. Austin Walker, son of Capt. James Walker, Q.M., No. 2 Stationary Hospital, Le Touquet, France, has resigned his position in the Bank of Nova Scotia at Sydney in order to join the 93rd Regiment, and is at present in Halifax qualifying for the rank of Lieutenant. Austin's brother, Gilbert, is a Lieut. in charge of the Machine Gun Section of the 13th Battalion, 1st Contingent, so this family is a worthy example of patriotism.

ST. JAMES GUILD.—The annual meeting of St. James Church Guild was held last evening in the ladies' parlor and was largely attended. The reports of the past year were read and adopted and showed a most successful year's work. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Miss Margaret Fullerton; Vice-President, Miss Edith Rogers; Secretary, Miss Blanche Toombs; Treasurer, Miss A. Saunders; Executive Committee, Miss Nellie Gillespie, Miss Katherine Irving, Miss Lucy McNutt, Miss Pearl Stewart.

PLEASANT EVENING.—On Tuesday evening last Mrs. Susan McDonald of Vernon opened her home in honor of her son and his bride, Mr. and Mrs. John A. McDonald, when a reception was tendered them by their friends. A very enjoyable banquet was served by the hostess, at which complimentary speeches were made by Rev. Father P. McGuigan and Father Connolly, and were responded to by the groom. After the banquet an enjoyable evening was spent in music and dancing until a late hour, when the guests dispersed wishing the bride and groom many years of health and happiness.

CORNWALL-YORK Institute held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Gordon MacMillan, Cornwall, on Monday afternoon, Sept. 6th, with a good attendance. After the usual routine of business, two excellent papers on Pickling and Jelly-making were read by Mrs. Fred White and Mrs. David Scott. The needs of the different patriotic funds were discussed, and it was decided to send a contribution to the Machine Gun Fund. At the close of the meeting ice cream and cake were served by the Cornwall members. Mrs. Hector Murchison kindly offered her home for the next meeting to be held on Monday, Oct. 4th.

PRETTY WEDDING.—A pretty home wedding took place in Charlottetown yesterday when Miss Sarah McDonald, daughter of Mr. John McDonald, Pownal street, was united in marriage to Captain James Howard Murray, of Point Tupper, C. B., the ceremony being performed by Rev. Dr. Fullerton in the presence of the immediate friends of the contracting parties. The bride, who was becomingly attired, looked exceedingly nice and was assisted by her sister, Miss Bessie, as bridesmaid, also handsomely gowned, while the groomsmen were Capt. David Walker. The happy young couple were the recipients of many handsome gifts, and will be followed to their home by a host of good wishes for their happiness.

PRIEST ORDAINED.—On Wednesday, September 8th, the ordination took place of Rev. William Bowlen by His Lordship Bishop McNally, Roman Catholic Bishop of the Diocese of Calgary, Alberta. His Lordship was assisted by the Rev. Fathers Newman, O'Brien, Hetherington and Father Bernard McDonald, formerly of this province. Quite a number of the young priest's friends at Calgary were present at the ordination. It is the privilege of the Rev. Father Bowlen to be the first priest ordained in the Province of Alberta since the erection of the Diocese of Calgary under His Lordship Bishop McNally. His Lordship is also a native of this Province, coming from Summerside. The Rev. Father Bowlen formerly resided at Cardigan, and he is the brother of the Honorable P. D. Bowlen, former member of the Cardigan District in the Provincial Legislature. The Rev. Father Bowlen attended the Seminary at Montreal for three years, and during the last three years he studied in the Seminary at St. Louis. It was his desire, however, to follow his calling in Canada and he was transferred to the Bishop of Calgary. He takes up his duties as Assistant Parish Priest at St. Mary's Cathedral, Calgary.

THE DEATH OF MARGARET FLORENCE GOODWIN.—The death occurred on Sept. 4th, of Margaret Florence Goodwin, youngest daughter of James Goodwin, Bedouet. Deceased had been in failing health for some time, but bore her illness with Christian fortitude and resignation. She leaves to mourn; her father at home and one sister, Miss Maude Goodwin, Worcester, Mass., who was with her in her last illness. Many kind friends gathered round her little white casket to gaze for the last time on one they had all known by the familiar name of "Maggie". There were numerous floral offerings from dear ones, who during her illness cheered her many times by their presence, and who always loved to brighten her room with flowers. The funeral which was well attended took place Monday morning, Sept. 6th to St. Peter's Church, North Charlottetown. High mass of requiem was celebrated by her pastor, Rev. John J. MacDonald, assisted by Rev. Fr. McIntyre, both of whom strengthened and consoled her many times during her sickness. Fr. John who has known her from childhood, referred in a few feeling remarks to her life and death. The procession then wended its way to the family lot in St. Peter's Cemetery, where we leave her in the hands of Him Whose ways are not ours, and calmly say "Thy Will be Done."

CHARLOTTETOWN P. O. IMPROVEMENTS.—The heavy cement slabs of the path leading to the back entrance of the Post Office have been rather uneven lately. They have just been raised and levelled off this week.

SCHOOL WORK.—The average daily attendance of Mont Carmel school is all that can be desired having reached for the past month 60.02 out of 63 enrolled, giving a percentage of 95 for the three departments. Who can beat that?—R.

MISSIONARY LECTURE.—Mrs. (Rev.) J. A. Sellar, who with her husband is doing missionary work among the Cree Indians on the reserve at Saddle Lake, Alberta, gave a very interesting talk of her work among the Indians. She also sang very sweetly in the Cree language. Special mention may also be made of King's Trading round the coast and having business dealings all these years he was ever found a most obliging and faithful Captain, thoroughly deplorable in all his dealings. About nine months ago the Captain took seriously ill, heart failure with other complications undermining his naturally strong constitution. After much suffering he passed to his rest on the morning of the 14th inst. Captain Rafuse leaves a widow, (Mary Saller) and two daughters, (Emily and Edith) both at home to mourn the loss of a loved father. Captain Rafuse will be much missed in the community where he lived so long, and was so favorably known. Funeral on Friday at 2 p. m.

PERSONAL MENTION.—Mr. J.B. Gaudet, Miscouche, travelling salesman for the Rock City Tobacco Co., Quebec, was in Crapaud on business Wednesday.—Miss Louise Walker, Crapaud, has taken a position as bookkeeper with Mr. D. S. McQuarrie, merchant, Crapaud. Mr. McQuarrie is fortunate in securing the services of such a complete young lady.—Mr. George Francis, accompanied by his daughter Mrs. Duff, Illinois, are enjoying a pleasant holiday in Crapaud.—Miss Mary McNeill, Crapaud, left Tuesday morning for Halifax, N. S.—Mr. R. K. Boswell, Victoria, returned home Thursday from attending the Provincial Exhibition at Halifax.—Mr. R. S. Lea, Montreal, is visiting his old home in Tryon.—Master Windsor McNeill, Crapaud, left Tuesday morning for Halifax and Dumfries.—Miss Emma Gill, who has been living in Halifax arrived in Crapaud, Wednesday evening, on a visit to her parents Mr. and Mrs. James Gill.—V.

COMING MARRIAGE.—The marriage banns were published Sunday at Sacred Heart Church, of Miss Gertrude A. Curley, formerly of the clerical staff of the Daily Post, and Mr. P. J. Donovan, lately in the employ of the Dominion Iron and Steel Company, now located at Shoemaker, Ontario.—Sydney Post, Miss Curley formerly belonged to Charlottetown.

The following letter was written by William Gillis, who is assistant Quarter Master in the Second Contingent to his brother-in-law, Mr. Havelock Bryant, Enmore River and as he has a host of friends and relatives in Charlottetown it will be of interest to them.

Sandling Camp,
 Aug. 28, 1915,
 Dear Friend Have.

Just a few lines as I am awful busy I have been working nearly night and day. The Q. M. S., is away to Scotland on a four days leave and I am in the stores all alone. We got word yesterday to be prepared to leave at any day or hour, so I don't know how long we will be here yet. The Captain and I have been getting clothing and other things ready since early morning and besides getting the grub ordered and ration issues for the Company. It keeps a fellow busy when alone, but the Quarter will be back tomorrow night.

I got the papers from you folks and was delighted to get them. I am glad to see so much interest taken in this war as the P. E. I., people are showing they are men who can't come and fight but they can give to the cause and the women can do an ample lot to help and supply the lads that are leaving their native shores for this is a war for liberty and justice and we've got to win. If the girls and fellows around Enmore and vicinity would collect a little money to buy tobacco and soap and mitts and other useful things for the boys who are leaving down there I know it would be very useful for I know myself the tobacco is no good here and a few articles like that brightens a fellow up when they come from home, and don't forget the lads that leave around your part of the country have to work hard and it is no holiday. I am awfully glad there are so many enlisting they are all needed, every man.

I hope you are all well. I wish you were here to see the troops leaving every day and others coming back wounded, it is a stream both ways. I will close, write soon. Good Bye.
 BILLIE.
